Session Summary

The session began with technical setup issues in Foundry VTT, transitioning into character introductions in Worm's Rock prison. Each PC experienced vivid backstory flashbacks: Liora's patricidal storm surge, Alenia's wrongful arrest as an assassin, Vale's framing for sorcery, and Kiernan's vengeful killing of a noble abusing tiefling orphans. Neighbor Albert bantered suspiciously. Chaos erupted as Flaming Fist Gauntlet Valtor released them amid a fey invasion; butterflies slew guard Astri. Round 1 combat against three fey constructs (lantern mothkin, winged blaster, orb slapper) saw low rolls, pet contributions, and Valtor's aid. Post-fight exploration yielded potions, gold, letters (including Astri's admirer poems), scrolls, a staff, and hints like frosted lions riddle. Secret cavern revealed via crowbar. Albert's cell remained charmed shut despite insight revealing his forgotten status. Upstairs, allied stag druid (Boris), Valtor, knight, and Sir Kassadin battled more fey; party aided in chaotic darkness-infused fight. Discovered distressed child Lily grappling a fey via spell, mourning her slain mother. Looted regal greataxe, magic orb. Valtor escorted party toward lower city; Kassadin, Glinda, Boris pursued fey to crossing. Session ended with feedback on pacing, music, roleplay.

Timeline of Events

Session Transcript

I don't know what gonna happen since I did not move by the way No I moved them, you guys were in the abyss I just got you to the south You were in the abyss? We are not in the abyss No No no, Kensei Kensei was all the way in the left corner, was here Stop moving! That's my belt Okay now I'm not doing shit by the way, I'm just putting it out there You kind of Are you moving? Like, you're not supposed to be able to do that. Yeah, like, I accidentally clicked in Nugget by the way and bro, it just moved for that time. Okay, Clark, if you keep doing that then just... My, fun fact, my hand is not on my mouse, so yeah. You're being casted by something. Who the fuck is doing that? It's not me. I just moved every one because I did not think I could do it. I'll talk to you bro. Nice people. There we go. Okay. Fags. Can we put the bot inside? Do not mute the board or I will kill you. How do I bring my chat back? Like it just disappeared randomly. Your chat? What are you seeing on your screen? Nothing, it just randomly disappeared. I didn't press anything, it just disappeared and there's no option to bring it back. So I'll just refresh. Okay, thanks. Oh yeah, this is the lady you saw. Oh yeah. Yup. I'm here by the way. Okay, I'mma see if you can hear the audio properly like the normal volume volume. Let me just play some random music. Yeah, what about this? Can you hear it? Oh my god, it's too loud. Brawblade the strokes. Is it like audible but like you can hear each other? I can't hear anything. At 200% it's barely there. Keep it at 200% and I'm not gonna explore it. Don't keep it at 200% keep it like you can hear it in the background but it doesn't really annoy you. The only way I can hear it is 200. 200. No no no. If I turn it max. Ah okay. At least give us a warning. 250 it goes. 250? 250 it goes. 5-0. No it's connected to my Spotify. Okay so like you guys have it at like the perfect volume right? Yeah. Just making sure. Is this the music? No! Imagine! That's the music we have to escape to, yes. I'll take it, I just want to. You're not escaping. Yeah we're let out. Okay, now you have to shut the fuck up. Okay, hold on a second. I'll unmute Khubaib for a while, then I'll unmute when it's your turn to talk. Because I'll know when it's your turn. Because I can hear myself when it's... I can hear myself. Anyways. Bye, Khubaib. Bye. Okay. Well, if I... If I... Come up, type if you can still... You know, hear us. Can he even type though? Chat. He can type in the chat. Yeah, he can. Okay, okay, okay. Okay. Oh, you definitely... Oh, server mute. Okay. Oh, he's typing in the chat. Okay, so... Now, everyone... Everyone shut the fuck up. Including you. Okay. I'm gonna drink some water because this is long. Okay. So, Baldur's Gate has never known peace for quite some time. And only days ago, the city stood on the edge of annihilation. An illithid elder brain, swollen with foul magic, sought to enslave the Sword Coast. Heroes from across the realm rose against it and though the battle was desperate, they prevailed. The Elder Brain was destroyed and the city was spared. Now Baldur's Gate limps towards recovery. The Flaming Fists, which are the mercenaries, they rebuild their broken ranks. The refugees from Rivington search for a place within the walls. For the first time in years, the city breeds in something like safety. But in Baldur's Gate, safety never lasts and danger always festers in the shadows. Your story begins in one such shadow, deep beneath Worm's Rock Fortress, where the toll gates guard in the way into the lower city. The lowest floor serves another purpose, a prison. The air here is damp with mildew and sweat. Dust crumbles from the ceiling with every breath you take. Somewhere beyond the stone, you can faintly hear the river rushing past. Around you are cold walls that press close, their surfaces slick and unwelcoming, and the iron bars hem you in. Each of you has found your way here, some falsely accused, while others were guilty beyond denial. Ever hours have passed in silence until now, not a word has been spoken between you. Thought familiarity lingers between some of you. The silence is broken by the faint call of a raven inside your cell, followed by the soft meowing of a cat, their presence oddly grounding in the otherwise grim chamber. There's a flaming fist on the entrance of the prison, And at the far end of the corridor is an old man which you will now see. Hopefully. Old man looks pretty young. I can't see. Yes. Hold on. Okay. You can't see him? No. Oh, north. I can see him. Hold on. Oh, north. Okay. He's above us. Let me just put him on your screen. He's dark for us, he's not always when we look down He's outside the darkness Okay I will show him how he completely looks like Albert? Yeah Albert He needs a... What did I say? Yeah Definitely Okay How do you see Gyar there, Khobar? Okay I will continue around. The old man stirs, letting out a gravelly yawn. He stretches, bones creaking, then pushes himself upon his crooked bed. Slowly blinking, he peers through the gloom until his eyes settle on you. The grin spreads across his weathered face as he saunters lazily upon the iron bars. By the way, I will try to do an accent, so like, yeah, just- Oh, heads up. Anyways. Anyways. Okay, so here he goes. Well now, wasn't expecting company. Hails not this much of it. And look at y'all, like a festival gone wrong. Ain't seen such a mix in one cell before. Names Albert, so we might be here a spell, so no harm being neighborly I suppose. And then his gaze lingers closely towards one of you, specifically. Well, look at that. You're Shatterkai, ain't ya? Rare folk around these parks? What should I be calling you? You're cute. Who's cute? Gun Jack! I thought the story was good! So this is the part where I'm supposed to introduce myself! No, you say your name and then I guess like for you personally you start introducing how you look and what you do. Yeah, also you have grown-ups. Continue. Uh-huh. Uhhh One moment, how delayed is my voice? Not delayed I don't think I don't know Six seconds Damn Okay Six seconds Okay Anyways I am Liora Ashmane The Shadowfell was once my home Grey skies, grey people, guards. My mother, she was the only hope there, the only light. And now she's gone. Taken from me too soon. Kanjak, Kanjak, Kanjak, hold on. Yeah? Yeah? Uh, like, not the backstory stuff, only like your, um, your character description, like what you look like and stuff and what you do. Cause we, yeah, we'll get into that later. My name is Liora Ashvale, I'm 24 years old and I'm a female, pronounce she-her. What? Yeah yeah continue continue continue continue continue continue continue continue continue continue So my appearance would you Would you fancy knowing about my appearance? No! And my clothing style? No! Then kill yourself! Go to the same! I'm trying so hard to be serious! We don't need a description of mine. Okay, anyways. The name is fine. Yeah, it's fine. Name is fine. Anyways. I'll continue. Why did you say just move on? Why did you keep going? It's... I realized it's gonna... It's not gonna be a good idea anymore, so... No one has to say their description. They can just say their name. It's fine. First time's fine. Okay, okay. Liora! Reckon that fits? Now, humor and old soul, what do you do to find yourself in such a situation? I wouldn't expect you to be in a cell. And as Albert's words hang in the air, the prison fades and his voice lingers, echoing strangely until it twists into another... Harsher and colder memory which claws back at you. The bustle of Worms Crossing slows as Malric Asheville steps towards armor dark and gleaming. His gaze locks on you, sharp and disdainful. Silence cuts the air before he speaks, venom coiled in every word. What? Weaker. Still, tell me, do you wear her memory like a badge? Or do you cling to it because you have nothing else? You disgrace me with simply existing. Pray you never cross my path again, woman. The world tilts. Your chest begins to burn. The storm you've kept caged claws at your ribs. Aware. Hungry. Focused only on him. Stone trembles, the dust coils upward. The air bends, straining to hold back the inevitable. You feel the storm building, pulling every ounce of hatred into a single point. This is it. You either cage it, or you let it devour him. Do you try to restrain it? I'm asking you. Can't take. He's gone. Okay, Kanjur. Yeah, answer. Yeah. Yes, Kanjur? Can you repeat? You feel the storm building, pulling every ounce of hatred into a single point. This is it. You either cage it, or you let it devour him. Do you restrain it? This is your father, by the way. Okay. The storm burst. The stones rip free and hang in orbit. The crowd screams, scattering as the weight of the world bends towards Malric. His cloak snaps into the gale, body-wrenched, bone-shattering, armor twisting. His sneer breaks at last, terror flashing across his face. Before the storm folds him into ruin, Then silence. Dust hangs like ash. Malrek lies broken. The storm haven't marked him as its only target. The crowd roars in panic, and guards surge forward. Your raven caws frantically at your shoulder. How do you feel in this moment as the guards take you in? I couldn't stop it. I lost control the first time I saw him. The hatred of 16 years ago. All of that wondering. And everything that he did. The first interaction. And how pathetic of a man he was. A cold hearted piece of shit. I just couldn't control my surge of magic. It answered before I did. And he's dead. The vision shatters. Okay. This is for Kobayev. Okay. Okay, hold on. Kabab, you here with us? Yes, of course I am. Everyone's crazy. Okay, okay. Point to yes on the Wii squad. Why was I the first one? Oh god, you did good. You did good. Because you were right next to him on the left. Oh god, you did good for me guys. Yeah, you were- okay. Okay. Now then, you can cut from the same- Okay, okay. Okay. Okay, let me continue. There's more accent with that, Kimph. Now then, you ain't cut from the same cloth as our Shattercar friend now. Them features. You're a drow, ain't ya? Hells go, what should I be calling you? Okay. Why did you use that glasses? Oh my god. And... I'm Alenia Blackfrost and you will not be getting any more details from me. Alenia, huh? Alenia, huh? That's a name with a lot of... ...weight. Mind telling me how you wound up in the irons? The prison stink fade... ...a bit. Hold on. I thought I was supposed to answer that. No, no, no. You will answer that. The prison stink fades, worms crossing returns, grounded streets, carts clattering, the river breeze tugging at your cloak. You keep your hood low, every step careful, but still eyes find you. Flaming fist guards freeze, their captain's eyes narrowing at the faint frost along your cloak, the pale scar of your sightless gaze. One of the guards is approaching you. Seize her. That's the Blackfrost girl. Bounty's still alive. She's wanted by the caverns. Guilted of assassination against their ruler. Chains on her. Quick now. Worm's rock will hold her till the drow comes to collect. Iron clamps down your wrist. Words. Guilty. Assassin. and bounty pour from their mouths like truth carved in stone. Alenia, how do you react? Do you fight? Do you plead? Or do you just stay silent? I say silent. The memory slips away. You're back in Worm's Rock. Albert's eyes grow closely towards you, his voice low. So they branded you're guilty without proof, did they? Heavy thing wearing chains for another soul sins. Tell me, Elenion, why they dragged you in? Did you feel anger boiling in your chest? Or did you just let it happen like you've been waiting on it a while? I answer. Yes, yes, yes. I... I sort of like... this happened... because I was expecting it for a while. It was just about a matter of time they accused me or something. I see, I see. Now then. Now then. You pretty little tiefling boy with the cat. I've seen you around the slums once or twice. Heard your name was... Whale, wasn't it? How did a lad like you wind up in here? And... The cell fades, replaced by Baldur's Gate's tight streets. Eyes followed you, always. Horns... Wait, hold on, the music. Anyways. The book beneath your arm, that night, they came at a noble's estate. Some say you slipped past their gates, illusions on your hands. Others say you were framed, but did that really matter? To them, you weren't a boy scraping by. You were a tiefling with dangerous magic and a cursed book. The verdict was already written on all over you. Infiltration, sorcery. The guards dragged you through the city like an example for the others. their jeers louder than the chains. Vale, how do you remember that moment? Did you fight, deny, or laugh at their words? Or did you stay silent as well? It didn't matter what I would do. It would end the same way anyways. I see. Albert leans back, capping a knuckle against his knee. Half amused, half pitying. Always the same ain't it? Truth don't matter when folk already made up their mind. Albert shifts peering at the broad-shouldered man with a mix of respect and mischief. You, Orc Fiend, heard about ya. Priest? Kiernan? Wasn't it? Folks whisper your name like it's a prayer or a curse. Depends on who you ask, I suppose. So tell me, priest, what road took you from blessing folk in some sunlit chapel to sitting here in Iron Riot alongside the rest of us? The cell dissolves... Uh-oh, I am what? Okay, uh-huh, sorry. Go ahead, continue. The cell... The cell dissolves, coal stone gives away to the familiar scent of wood smoke and pine. You walk the forest path back toward the orphanage, arms laden with firewood. It should have been an ordinary evening until you… hear shouting. As you round the bend, the sight strikes you like a hammer to the chest. Three tiefling children you had taken in, scared, fragile, but healing, are dragged into the dirt by armored men. At their head stands a sneering young noble. face flushed with arrogance. One child is already motionless at his feet, cut down as punishment. The other two sob and thrash as the escorts tighten their grip. And through the orphanage window you see, the pale terrified faces of the orphan staring at you, too afraid to move. Kiernan, how do you feel in this moment seeing the children's lifeless body in front of you in the dirt? Enraged. Sad. I did not think much after I saw that. And what will you do to stop it? I have already done it. I went up. This time in the form of a human. And I wrung its neck dry. For I am but a man. And I will stop it wherever I can. No matter the words, the outcome is inevitable. Rage and justice blur together until the line disappears. The world narrows to steal blood and broken bodies. And escorts fall one after another beneath your fury. The noble's arrogance curdles into terror, but it's too late. His neck snaps in your grasp, and silence soon follows. Save your ragged breath. Then your eyes meet the window. Dozens of children's faces, innocent, scarred by the fear. They've seen it all. They've seen you for who you are at the moment. The night stretches long. You visit the orphanage. Where the children beg you not to go, you give them as many words as you can. The head nun holds your face in her hands, blessing you one last time. And when dawn comes, you wait at the village gates. The guards arrive behind shuttered windows, muffled sobs echo through the streets. But nuns come out. They honor your wish not to fight for you. You stand alone, yet never unloved. The sound of marching fades. The prison walls close back in. You are in the cell again. Okay. You begin to hear sounds above you. Shouts. Steel clashing. Muffled screams. And dust falls from the ceiling of your prison cell. A heavy thud echoes from somewhere overhead. Albert Jolce. And he clutches the bars of his cell. What in the nine hills was that? The gate slams open and I will reveal a man. Hold on. Let me open the gates for him. Okay. Yep. You guys see him? Okay, hold on. Is he... Oh yeah, there he is. Look at the bottom, at the bottom. Do the thing that you did with Albert. Oh, there he is, hello. Is that for that? Oh my god, hold on. Why is he pretty? Okay, anyways. Victor! Victor! Okay, okay. Okay. So the gate slams open. And this tall man strides in, cloak half torn, blood spattered across his polished armor. His smile is razor sharp, despite the panic in his eyes. This is Valtor, a flaming fist gauntlet, which is the second lowest rank for the flaming fist. And... The guard before you... the woman that you've been seeing the whole time. Her name is Astri. And she's panicked as soon as she sees Valtor come through the gate. And she goes, Sir Valtor, what's wrong? Valtor responds, what's wrong? Oh, just the small matter of our fortress being torn apart brick by brick. We need bodies now. We need help. And Astri responds, What? What do they want from us? Do I look like I have the time to philosophize, soldier? They'll all be dead before the hour's out. If we stand around wringing our heads, I'm releasing the prisoners. I'm gonna do it. He storms forward, boots echoing. stone corridor, eyes narrowing on towards you. And he... hold on let me do that real quick. Yeah there you go. There he is. Okay. Yup. So, Valtor says, well what do you say? Care to earn your freedom or would you prefer to rot in these chains while the world burns above you? He snaps his fingers, your cells grown open, and a faint red glow sears across your skin as a brand settles on place. Let me open your cells. Hold on. Is he gonna open one by one? Oh, okay. I mean, I can't really open them all this. Anyways. Whoa, whoa, whoa. Chill. Okay, so after he... Nice. A fluttering of butterflies storms in. Floods through the gate and Astri looks behind her as she gasps. Stumbling as the swarm pierces her flesh, she screams once then chokes as more butterflies crawl from her mouth. Before she collapses lifeless, Valtor shouts her name, Astri, and his composure cracks. Just for a heartbeat, then fury sets in as three fey-like figures emerge through the swarm of butterflies. I will put them here. Hold on. There's this guy. Yeah, hold on. you can't move apparently not yet I can move all of them but not myself okay I can't move Haridhar by the way I just moved Kanjakk out I moved you out how does Kanjakk yeah I can move all of them but I can't move myself I can move everyone What about bears? What about this unbred guy? Oh my god, why are you touching him anyways? Oh he's gone. Anyways. I still need to understand why the fuck you can't move. You can't move ourselves. I can't move myself, I can move everyone else. But who can move? I can move everything actually. I can even move this guy. No no no. Who can move? I'm asking who is moving, who can move themselves. I can move myself. Only naked. Alright. Canja, I can. Aris can't die, can't for bad. Okay, let me see. I can move myself. Okay, nevermind, sorry. Just me and... Try reloading. Reloading. It is opening. It is the black screen. Zoom in. Oh what if a right click? Does it not share that? And now I see no one except myself. I see myself. I can move myself. Hallelujah my legs work. I cannot move myself now. My thing is loading work. I cannot move myself. Oh I can move my pet somehow. But not myself. I can move my raven but not myself. What is happening? Okay. Okay for now I'll just move it for you and yeah we'll just yeah. Connector. Yeah, yeah, poor Esri. I don't even see her. She's dead. I never saw her. Actually, hold on. Let me just show you her. I can like... Mr.DM Yes, yes, you can't hear me. I cannot see clock. He disappeared from the clock. I'm next. Oh, okay. Now I see Ashtree and stuff. I couldn't... By the way, Abdul, I couldn't see the bottom half of the entire map until I reloaded. I didn't even know I was there. Who the hell is the other thing? It's fine. It's fine. Quick question. How is she coming in? Because I think... brain research because i was listening and now i don't so like okay so the gate like storms open and butterflies like swarms of butterflies come through the door and they like they move in a way that it pierces through her chest like like blades in a way so she just explodes and and like butterflies start coming out of her mouth and she just yeah she's dead It's fine. I mean I see new characters all the time. Yeah same. Those are not new characters. Those are not new characters. Wait she wasn't there. No no no no it's the... Yeah she wasn't there for me either but it's the... One of the fucking... I forgot what that they called. He said that name. I don't know who that is. Yeah those are three. No there's another one. Yeah there you go. Okay, so everyone can see each other, right? Yes. Yeah. Klog is bugging out. Okay. Yeah, I can see him though. Okay, like before you were saying you couldn't see Klog, I was like what the f. You couldn't see him, then he just appeared next to me. What the f? Yeah, I see you now, guys. Okay, guys. I would prefer if you guys stay in your... Actually, don't stay. Yeah, it's fine. Anyways. Okay, time to walk down. Okay, so, so like, as the butterflies come through, uh, they reveal these three figures, like, coming towards you. Oh shit. And, like, they don't, they don't seem like they wanna talk, you know, they're, they, they have intent of killing you. Yeah. They're like the same species, yes. So they want to fucking kill you. And Valtor is there like very fucking angry and like cause like Astri died and he's like ain't no okay so he is extremely mad and he's and he and he like immediately charges forward which would result in we redo our initiative yes so open your combat we open your combat Also, just so you guys know, your equipment is not with you. It is in your... It is in your stat block. Okay, that's like first time for him, but anyways, it's in your stat block, but like, just ignore that you have equipment. You will have that later. You can use your spells and stuff. But how do I roll again? I don't know. I can just remove my... Do I roll now? Go on your character sheet. Go on your character sheet. Okay, initiate. Okay, initiate. Yep. Oh, damn. Why are there big numbers? I like how three of us have 90. I can't! You guys can do it for your pets as well. Oh, my baby! How the fuck do three of you get 90? Wait, how do I do it for my pets? Right click your pet and click open monster start block. What the fuck is all of this? Where? And you don't see monster start block? Oh wait hold on. No. Okay now try. Yeah I see it now. Oh there we open. You will see initiative there. I like how I can open it as well. There's so much happening on my screen right now, give me a second. Where is his initiative? We got a hi! Oh, it's happened actually, you know. What? Okay. Nothing, nothing. Both of the pets are still there. No! Bro, why does it say question mark on the combat list? Oh no they don't have names! Oh no they don't have names! You can see their picture it's fine. Wait they don't have names are you? Crazy. They don't have names for you? No no no one has. Even the NPCs don't have any. Yeah like the characters, even the NPCs don't have any. Holy shit Natwety. Oh they're not supposed to, they're not supposed to, they're not supposed to because you don't know them. What about my baby? Would you guys like to see the images of the monsters? Yes, hold on, but there's so much happening on my screen. Show me the white hair. Same. The one that looks like Mael. Does that look like Mael? Oh damn. Oh wow. We got a babe lit down. Blue looks like a Warframe. She looks like a Warframe. That's a Warframe. And would you like to see the other one? Sure. Nah. Yes, we would like to see NPC 1 and 2. Yes. Oh, bro's a moth. Oh, that's actually cool. Yeah, the BFPs don't do them justice. Yeah. Yeah, it's cool actually. Okay, so... I do. Yeah. Gloomy. Okay, so he goes first, he got a 20, what the fuck. Oh no. Okay. Okay. Okay. Okay. Works. Okay, so he will move 30 feet forward. Does that use his movement? Yeah. You can only move 30 feet. Is there a ladder there? Yeah. Anyways, okay. So, he has, like, from his lantern, he can, he, like, he, like, lifts it up, and it starts glowing, and Three motes like like missiles start forming from his lantern and He does Okay, oh wait, well, why can everyone see my ring? God my bad I thought only I could see it It's fine, it's fine It's fine, okay, continue So, so They... they... the modes that are generating from its lantern goes towards... Valtor. And... each of them does... two damage, so he loses... 6 HP. Oh my god. 6 would be... 2... Wait, we don't see the enemies of the HP. There you go. Uh, wait hold on, I'll make it so you see the HP in a different way, not like number way. Hold on. Do you see the HP bar? Yeah, it's like a HP bar. Okay, HP there. Okay, so now it's Kiernan's turn. You can't move yourself, right? Do you want to move? I think I can, yeah. I can do it. I'm just gonna check the range. How much movement do I have? 30? 30, everyone has 30. Why am I in the front? Why am I in the front? I think that's down here. That's 30 feet. Just gonna stand in the front. And now where did I use... Wait, some lord do feel locked. Because he moved out. Yeah, yeah, yeah, dynamic lighting. Alright, I'm just gonna do good old fireboard. Okay. Did it hit? And who are you doing that to? The guy right in front of me. Oh yeah, it... It hits for one. It does not hit, actually. It does not hit. Okay, that's fine. I will now use my bonus action to summon spiritual weapons. Okay. 2 hurt is 23 and... Okay. It has a range of 60 feet. And that obviously hurt and he takes 10 damage. Okay. Why is I making out the magical lance and just chucking it around him? Yeah, you can see that? See the line around them? Yeah, yeah, I see. Okay. Is that your turn? I will end my turn. Okay. It's my turn. Hold on, hold on. Hold on, hold on. How do I switch forward? Okay, there you go. Yeah, yeah, I already did it for you. And now it's... Baby girl's turn. I wanna move next to the guy. I can move all the way down there. I can only move third. Let me see if my ability actually hits. That guy is directly 60 feet away from me. Yeah, it does hit. I recommend you guys turn on the measure wild dragon tokens thing. It might help you on the settings. The what? On the settings icon on the right, you can see something that says measure while dragging tokens. Yeah, I do have it. Okay. Okay. I mean, I can't use my character anyway. Okay. I want to... I want to use Ray of Frost. How do I roll a guy? I forgot. On your character sheet, you can see Ray of Frost. Do I have to just press 6? You press the icon next to Ray of Frost, like on the left side. Who? Who are you trying to hit? The guy in front of the block. It does not hit, unfortunately. Yeah, I mean, he has an 8. Yeah, yeah. Okay. Yeah, I'll end my turn. Do you want to end your turn? Okay, end it. Yep. End her. There we go. I cannot move my character. Yeah it's not... It's... It's not... Here is fire.

Here is fire. Fast party. That's when my demon comes with me. I cannot move my demon. He has a separate turn. He has a separate turn. Oh, I can't come with. Interesting. Yeah. Okay. Do you like this one? I guess we'll do the spell now, right? Yes. Is it fine if I end my turn or... Is it fine if I end my turn? You don't want to? Why do you want to end your turn? You don't want to? I'll like to use my combo magic, can I? You cannot do that. Unless you do the requirements for it. you do you do remember the requirements can question what is the most important spent a yeah I mean if you don't want to you don't have to but it's better if you do but I'll use the program okay And... It does not hit. No, it does not hit. Okay. Anything else can do it? So this guy moves forward and... Let's see... Okay, so he has Eldritch Blast, so he's going to grab, like, move his hands in a very... What is it? A very direct motion, like, the hands are going forward and he... lashes a big bolt of energy from his wings from his fingertips and they zap towards the creature, dealing... Let's see... That would be... 6 damage. Wait, that's over too much. There you go. Okay. I guess 90. So... I can't hit him. Okay. That's his turn. Yep. Continue. It's alright. Okay. Yes. One second. I was trying to read all my spells again. How far is he? I can hit him. Okay. So... I'm nervous. What? Can we use level 1 spells? Yeah. Yeah, you can. The more you use them... Is it fine now? Hello. Yes, hello. I think it would be better if you save them because the only way to get them back is through a long ways. How do we cast a counter? Go on, go on. Just click add win. Oh, nevermind. Shit. Well that obviously does not hurt. Also, you were supposed to move a bit forward. Wait, what is happening? Yeah. You forgot to move. What happened? No, I wasn't out of range though. I can actually hear somebody else. Yes, hold on. Sorry, I was lagging. I'm going to... Oh, what was the range? 60 feet? Firebolt is 120 feet. I have 120 feet. Because mine is the Fiendish legacy one. Yeah, yeah, that is obviously... Yeah, that's in range. That's in range, sure. Anyways. It somehow went past him. Was that a bonus action or did it count as your level? It was an action. It was basic. Yeah, it was basic. Do you have a bonus action? I don't understand it. It's an enemy strike. We can try to fix it. Oh my god, it's still less. The music wasn't fine. Anyways, let me fix it. Oh, why do I have a million things? What the f- Is it better now? Hello? Yeah, actually. Hello, hello. Hello. I have a question. I used my spell right? Chromatic Orb. I missed it. So it's gonna count as a slot, right? Yes, it will. Also, when will I be able to use my wild magic subclass? Let me just show you the thing. It's supposed to be... One second. It's called Divine Search. Hold on. Yes. Oh, here it is. Okay. So, okay, okay. So, you can actually do it. Only after you use up a spell slot. Okay, okay. After a spell slot. Yeah, after you use a spell slot. Yeah, next one you can just immediately do it. Okay, actually. You can call... There's also the tides of fate that you can do only once per longest. Okay. Yeah, okay. So, it's this bitch's turn. He walks up 30 feet. Those are so rough for all of us. Yep. Okay, so he will attack... use his orbs again let's see they do 5 damage to Kiernan yes and you will add that as your damage we can hit him yep what damage? 6 damage wait 5 5 sorry to you Yeah, do you. You're good bro? Yeah, done. Okey doke. And now it's your cat's turn. Oh no! So... Cut the move. Bro can only do one attack. Wait, how much can she... Oh, she can do 40. I can do that. Yeah, she's fast. She's fast. You can do a little... I don't wanna move her that far. It's not like she's gonna die. Yeah. We can do that. And... It's still too far is the problem. Yeah, that's fine. But you can actually... You can actually roll a d6. And if you do that, you can teleport 15 feet. Yeah, flicker step. So if it's like 5 or 6, then you can... TP. Wait, if they can move like 30 to like 60, do we always have to go 60 or we can go like 40? What, what, what? You can up to that much feed, basically, is what it is. Okay, you cannot go beyond that. But you can go somewhere like, for example, 10. That's fine. Yeah. Basically, yeah. Where is it? Arise, you see the dice on the left on the bottom? Yeah. Click that and you will see a d6 on the second thing. Oh, that's not a d6. That's a d1. You see the... Oh, that one, okay. It's a cube. Yeah. Nice. No. How do I remove a roll? Oh my god, hold up. You just click the axe. Hold up. Yep, we got it. We got it. We're rolling. We're rolling. And it's a 5! Oh, she can move. That does. That does. Yeah, so you can TP 15 feet towards where you see it. I'm scared. I'm scared. You can literally get close up and do something, I guess. Is this... 5 feet? No, it's still too far, I'm pretty sure. Why is she quick close to them? The melee attack only reaches 5 feet. Yeah, because the cat only does melee damage. That's 5 feet, no? No, that's 10 feet. Yeah, that's this one. Wait, for me it says 5. What? Huh? For me it says 10. Why is it 15 for me? What? Guys, what the fuck are you doing? Oh, it's 5 now. I can see 5 now. What is it? God damn, guys. What the fuck? It's still 15 for me. Abdullah, make the final judgment. Can I do the melee takonot? Let me... So you were here and... Actually, you can't... It is... Oh, wait, it can't be an action though. Yeah, yeah. Yeah it counts as an action.

You gotta point it towards the center or close to them? What word? Center. Like you have to point it to the center? No no no, from... Did you do the thing I told you? Yeah. Go on your settings and the... Yeah. Yeah. We attack from center to center or like center to the front of them? The edge of their... I can... It doesn't- Oh, if you're five- Yeah. If you just have to be five feet near them if you want to do melee attacks, if that's what you mean. For my cat. Is that what you're talking about? No, he's asking when measuring the distance, do you go middle to the middle of the token or what? Because it's different if you go near it- Yeah, yeah, it is middle of the token. Okay, fine. Middle to middle, right? Okay, but this still counts as an action, so I'm going to end my turn. Okay. And I pray. Yeah that bird is a bit far. He's a bit far. But he has the speed, the fly speed. So what do I do? How do I roll? You can fly 50 feet. So hold him. And does he have ranged attacks? I think he does. Oh he doesn't. He doesn't have... That's fine. Yeah, so, yeah. For now you have him near you. Yes. Okay, moving on. We have the baby girl. The baby girl. Oh no. She can fly 40 feet, so... What the fuck? Anyways. Oh, she won't. Chill. Chill, girl. Okay. Okay, so, she... She cannot attack you luckily right now, so... She's melee that's why. So you guys are fine. Do not go towards the cat. No! There's no point in hitting the cat. So like they're gonna ignore your pets right? No, no, no. There will be times like some enemies can be dumb like these creatures are not dumb. So they know who to... Okay so my cat is safe for now. Yeah, so our pets are safe. Yes, for now. For now. Moving on... Moving on to the other bitch. Oh, no, he's not a new. Okay. Okay. Let's see. Move... 30 feet close to you guys. Oh, look. How you doin? How's it going? He has witch slap HP, that's all I'm saying. Yeah, but like, you know... He can hit you though. Let's see if he hits or not. And he rolls a 11. He does not hit. Even slightly. Anyways... He tries to punch me, but like he just... Let's the DM do his thing. Okay. Anyways, he tries to hit you with his lantern straight to your fucking face and it does not do shit as you like dodge beneath him. Can I just say like, I don't say it but did nothing? No you can't. Okay, moving on to... you. No. Me. Oh my god. What? Wait for that. Also, I think we really need music. Are you guys following the music? Yeah, we're down. Yeah, yeah. How about... I was thinking of using free run music. I like how only Nugget and Kanjakk had the music during that. I was just there, bro. So, everyone fine with free run music? Yeah. I don't mind. Okay, let's go. Hell yeah. I hit it. I think that only does 3 damage. Yeah. But it's guaranteed 3 damage. Now I have a point selection. Is volume fine for everyone? Yes, man. Okay, so what are you saying? I did an unarmed attack and that does like a confirmed 3 damage. That's all it does. and... okay... I have bonus as well so you can do the thing and then I roll it. So I take... I take three. So is that your bonus action or is that your actual action? That's normal, that's normal. Now I'll do my bonus after. Okay. I take... Okay, continue. Alright. Now, I will do a spiritual box. Now, if it hits then I'll tell you what I do. Alright, that's it. Anyways... He flies across your weapon as you try to attack. I want to move next to cloth. I don't want to use full 30 feet on. You right next to cloth? Yeah. Okay, there you go. That's exactly 30 feet. Oh, now maybe. What if I use a spell and it's AOE hits you guys and that guy does it damage you do? Yeah, it obviously does, Kanjak. No friendly, okay. And the other guy would not like that at all. I think this... A one, okay bro. Well, at least... At least you had it. Go next door. Wait. Is that your... Okay, it's fine. One is... Whatever. I'm fucking... I'm fucking... Anyways. Anyways. I'm in a mask for the care, by the way. I need to go there. Okay, okay. We can take a break if everyone wants to pray. Okay. Yes. You guys pray first and come back. Kanjakk if you hit me with a holopop or I'm out. Thank god I'm behind. Yeah, that's the problem. They're in front of me, all of them. Yeah Kanjakk, there's a risk in doing nukes. The CI don't have a nukes. Not yet. Imagine the only time he hits a holo purple his entire playthrough is on one of us. Bro, I might even do it because you know 100 is not easy to hit. There's also a chance he'll never hit a holo purple in his life. Can't really, that's still a 1 in 100. Okay Kanjakg, do your 1 in 100 because you had it available. I need to move though, no? Since you didn't do it last turn, I'll let you do it right now. Should he not move first, bro? Let bro move, add over there get hit. There's no point in moving. I wanna go towards the right, maybe, so even if I let something good, I hit both of those below and not the guys in front. No, you'll hit everyone, Kancha. No no no I can make it You can't hit the wall You can't hit the wall No I can go towards the right side Move 30 feet to the right side You can't walk through him You can't walk past him like that That guy You need space in between which there is no space for you to Just walk past On the right there is No on the right there is No on the right like no no no It's a small gap but it's not big enough for the whole like you see this Yeah, you can only work if it's space for her. Okay. Okay, do that D100. Am I going to get her? Okay, what the fuck? What is 72 let's see? What is 72? Hold up. Check Kanjaki. I want his thing as well. I wanna see. 72. Let's see who is getting fucked and who is not. Let me see. Kanjaki, you can skip your turn. Leonard user. Just say, oh I don't use it. My bad. What if I land it and... Can I skip? Or do I have to use it? I'm assuming you already saw what it is. Actually, it's... What the fuck? It is you gain vulnerability to... Oh, okay. You gain vulnerability to all damage until the start of your next turn. So if anything hits you... Everyone yet comes! No no no not everyone, only here. Okay, okay. Uh, KJ can you walk towards us for a second? Why? Uh, no particular reason. You need to be in the vicinity. I think I'll just hit my turn. Can I? No, you can use your spell, cantrip, whatever you wanna use. Okay, okay, okay. I'll use my cantrip, hold up. Let's use fireball. Let's hope it kills this thing that's right in front of you. Yes. 21? Okay, that's an obvious hit. 3 damage. Okay, I'll kill that bitch. It won't kill him, but... Why 3 damage? Because you suck. Okay, damn. I mean, I've seen a lot of natural ones, I don't know who really sucks. That was me hitting a 0 and a 1 bro. He's almost making a HP now. He needs a good slapping. You want to continue Kanjakg or you will stay where you are? Kanjakg would you like to move? Can I move 5 feet ahead? Just 5 feet? Yeah 5 feet ahead of me, yes. No no you can. Yes that's fine. A bit to the left maybe. A bit to left. Good sir. It's the pretty boy's turn, everyone shut up. Yo, okay let's... Let's see. Okay, so... He does not hit, and we just ignore that. He's gonna move like a little bit ahead hard now I don't have any of them. I don't have any of them. I'm going to use movement next round. DC is 14 Actually, I feel like I feel like I will reduce it to 11 Okay fine 11 Everyone can hit him No, that still doesn't hit though. No, same number hits. No, same number hits. So that about armor class? Yeah, that doesn't... He will give chips to him and he will give him a second. Baby girl's bed. My headphones died for a second. No, then run. I like how we get two turns in each. Yeah, but they can't really do much, can they? Yeah. their emotional support is fine. Is that your turn? Oh, it's still my turn. Hold on, I can't. I'm not gonna do the banshee screaming. Do it! There's no other amazing stuff. Okay. How far can I move this guy? I think that's fine. Okay. Oh my lord, let me try this one. Oh my god, let me type this move, it's scary. The guy in front of us is dead, like if we, like if it won't hit us, we'll hit him now. He's on, he's a court from the ground, walk over him. Okay. Yeah, we can just walk over him. Okay. Stab on him. Okay. Yes. He's already dead ago. I'm going to put that in my backpack for future views. Okay. Okay. So... this is... okay. This is for him, which is why he had one tag and I have to wait for him. I'm waiting for the clock. He said one second. Oh, and also the music. Oh yeah, the music. The main part. There it is. Is clock back or no? I'm here, hello? Yeah, yeah, okay. So, the creature decides to dash through you, Kiernan. So, now you have a choice, like you have to roll a dexterity saving throw. No. Go on your sheet and you'll see saving throws. Okay, so it does not do damage to you as you pass the civic floor. So it dashes through you but it fails. Fails back like what the hell is happening? Yeah. Okay, that should be the action. Okay, continue. It's the cat. The cat's trying to open it. Hold on. I just wanna do this. What are you gonna do? I'm gonna land. Oh damn. I'm gonna do... What is it? A 1-D-1? Let's go. Oh my god. You're supposed to do the attack roll too. Attack roll, attack roll. Hold on. You see the plus 5? Yeah. Okay. Okay. It's a 19 Holy 2 damage! The cat is doing more damage than Nero. That's still more damage than Nero. Now it's your bird's turn. Your bird can fly over everyone by the way. Can I fly... The pets are in Pukki? Can he... If I fly here, can he hit her? Fly where? Like here or no... Where are you going there? Are you going there? I can fly around the guy beneath, between us. No, when you're flying he can't hit you, so you're fine. Can I hit her? My melee attack? Yes, you can. Yes. You roll, do that across first then the hit roll. Where was he? He was right here. Why are you going back? Jared, why are you going back? Are you supposed to hit him? No, no, wait, I was just measuring. Oh. What about the guy in front of you? There's also a guy in front of you, yeah. Yeah. I mean you can leave him for your own character and a race character and use your fucking bird to bitch slap the other guy. Yeah whatever works. Okay let's do that. Oh my god! It's a crit? No, it's not a crit. Crit only when you actually get nat 20. You only got 15. Click the lantern that hit dice. 1d6. Wait, the shiverment burst or hunting claw? I see two of them. What about the 1 target hit? 1d6 plus 3 piercing plus 1d4 action? Let me see what you're saying. You can do those but you have to do the 1d6 like I reached it before. That's your melee attack. Yeah, so you do 8 damage. 8 damage. I've captured way more than you. Okay, it's my turn. So that would be... Okay, there you go. Can I move? Anyways, yeah. Yeah, can I move to that like brown thingy? whatever that is. The crown? On the left. No, no, this brown thing on the left. This? You mean the right? This? Is that the right? Is that not left? It's the other side, right? You mean the small wall? The next to the dead guy, bro. Like here, here, here, here. Where I moved the back. Oh, okay, okay, okay. No, no, not there. here here here oh okay okay okay oh wait i can use the i can use that that's my bite i can't hit the bites right you can't hit the bites? you can't hit the bites? Abdullah where's the lady in the combat? uh she wait wait I had to reset her so she got aham, fed, hold on. Wait, I can... I have to use d20, the d20 dice first, right? And you... No, no, no. You don't want me to press that, no, no. You don't... Okay, I'm gonna use... what's that called? Boss bite. Please. Oh my fing. It's... It's something... Well, at least it's hard one, I guess. I think I'm hitting the guard. Yeah, I don't know. Okay, you want to continue? Or... Ah, no, I... I can't end my turn, because it's not my turn on the thing. Oh yeah sorry, um... The guy is dead, let me delete him. Yeah, okay, there we go. There we go. Wait, why am I above clock now? Wasn't I below him? Yeah, that's what I was asking. You are below him. It's... I don't know what happened anyway. It don't matter because you're the same speed. By the way, when you're the same speed, all of you can move it together, so... Oh wait, so all... Where me, Kanzak, and clock can do Kanzak, like, turns together. If only I could move my own character though. I'll move forward first. I moved to the side because I don't want to get stabbed by anyone else. Wait can we like get this blue guy off the screen? Yeah everyone might have it. Let me check. Let me just hide him for now. 17? 17? No dude, 17 damage. Uh, you're... okay. 17, that would... Bro, why am I the only one handicapped here? Would you guys care about the guy who faces backlight? This guy, she didn't even get to attack, guys. Poor Vyell, guys. Too bad. Canjag ignored the guy in front of you, move to this lady. I'll do that. By the way, if any of you move close to him at all, he will do an opportunity attack. I'm gonna move five step back. Why would they move close their way? Yeah, that's what I'm saying. I'm just saying, if they do this, like any way of safe shape or form, they will get opportunity attacks. Okay, I hit that as well. I have extra. It's a free bonus I have. Okay. 27 damage. Yeah. Anyways. I used a baseball bat. A magical baseball bat. I think the clock starts over. Yeah, I can add my turn. I just got my weapon. Who do you want to hit? I want to hit the guy from the first, like me and Arich. Yeah, since I reduced his armor class to 11, you can hit him. Can I also step back or go forward? You can step back. We should step back, if he comes too close, he's gonna be lethal. Yes. How far do you want to go back? Can I go straight? Can I go next to Khubab? Is it possible? No you can't. Because he will do an opportunity attack. I'm just gonna go back bro. I'm going back. I'll go 30 feet back. If you really want to go past him, I will let you do it. I will let you do a dexterity saving throw and if you succeed you won't take any damage. I need to go back to cover okay? I'm down to do it myself. You know the front line ignored the guy and went ahead bro. You are 3 out of 35 next door just shoot him. But by the way our pets already took damage to that. 3 damage yeah I appreciate that. Well I did 2. I did a whopping 2. Yes it's more useful than your item character random. Ok it's a pretty western silence. Ended. Yes. Did not end it he hasn't done it yet. Oh okay. Okay guys. Oh no. It's not a cop. He looks like he's drowning! Oh, okay, there's a guy behind me Okay, the damage he does... Two. Four! Oh, four. I dab more than me. Okay. Bro, me and this guy going on the most extreme low rolls going to my turn. Oh my god. Okay, this guy is supposed to be like the head or something. I'm gonna move back for four. I'll go back into the side you won't get. No no, okay. And then we'll do... My firebolt has 120 feet range by the way. I can easily hit the guard. Oh yeah. You can move. Two is your character. But I'm gonna go for the dude in front of us. If it hurts. Two. I can't see what's happening. Okay. Yeah, I don't know. It's just rolling. It's rolling. You are killing me! Wait, wait, what is she doing? What is she doing? Oh, that's a great! So... Okay, yeah, so you literally delete him. So he's actually gone, by the way. Wait, why did I go back 30 feet? Why did I go back 30 feet back? You're welcome, Sanjay. You're welcome! K'Chuck moved all the way back I was like why is Brobeer? K'Chuck knew everyone under the bus and then sees us and we kill him. They didn't use anything. You are not totally fine, stop running! I can hit my shit room all the way back here. And I walk all the way from back here. Okay, I'm tired. Your turn's over? Yeah. Oh yeah, let me just... It's the lady's turn. Finally! She got her turn skipped last time. Okay guys, she can do... No, no, she has two turns base. Like, if she attacks you, she can do another melee attack. So... This is... Let's see. Bro's actually my enemy. Weak! Weak, I say! She's about to get slapped for first. It hits nothing. It hits the ground of defeat. Hold on a second. She can do it again. Yeah, it ain't hitting receive. 20. Yeah, so like... Where were we? Anyways... So she hits you with a fake and weaves. She's about to hit a kill. So she does two damages. Okay, so this is three and... Alright, take it. She literally comes towards you, slices you, and does another slice and it's like fucks Yeah, she comes to you. Oh! Tries to slice you, but you dodge it, but like you get unexpectedly fucked in the ass. You try to dodge it. Stop getting fucked. Yes. Okay. Oh, pretty boy's gone. Oh yeah, yeah, pretty boy's gone. Anyways. My cat's turn. I feel like the animals might just kill him. Kill her Rami. Okay, let's do this first. Cause we're not moving, we're just doing a hit. Also, Khubaib, let me have the turn before you, I need to heal myself first. Nevermind. Oh, nevermind, nevermind. I thought that was a god. Jesus, your cat is a bit... My cat is daddy. Nevermind. Okay, so if the bird hits 8, if the bird hits 8, and the bird hit it. C'mon Kelsak, what is the name of your name? Also, Glock, you can heal while I'm also attacking. We both have the same speed. Doesn't everyone have the same speed? No. You don't, you're 15. I'm going to run. Hold up, select. Open. Quick quick quick Kelsak, fing. Open, 5. Where'd my thing go, what? I have to refresh bro. I think this is... I'm going now. I'm going now. I'm going now. Damn, damn, damn. Damn, the pet carried bro. I did a whopping like 5 damage. At least you're 0, at least you didn't take any damage. Even though you're close to the... Clock is a bit low. Anyways. Okay. So while he is gone, you guys can explore the area and there are things you can find. Oh, bro, it would be nice if it loads. Yeah, so like advance a load. You can move consecutive combat somewhere. Oh, there I am. Move anywhere, anywhere. Like, what do you say? Bro, I want to move, you know. But the thing is, Abdullah, I cannot move my character. Oh, oh, okay, okay. So just like, tell me where you want to move and like, you can do stuff. Abdullah, can I like move? Can I like move over this way? Wait, wait. You guys you guys want to go in this room Oh, let's go inside that. Like how would we know there's something there? No, no, no, Abdullah, not that one, the one Areej is in. Oh. No, no, I wanted to be here, but I didn't know anything here. Okay, you can be with Areej. Hold on. Okay, so let's start with you, Khubei. What do you want to do here? I was just looking for stuff. You want to look? So do an investigation check. on your character sheet. investigation... where is that? it's on your skills. wait where? you don't see it? wait wait wait oh yeah there it was. plus three. i got... 14. A lot of 14. Yeah. Okay. So in the room you find 20 gold coins. Gold bloons! And a healing potion. A fucking bloon and a healing. So you can like in order to add that to your character you go on inventory on your inventory tab. Yep. Yep. You can click manage inventory. Manage inventory, yep. And inside you can search a potion of healing. Potion of healing, yeah. Wait, which one? Legacy, the normal one. Normal one. Yeah, add to equip backpack? Backpack. And then what was the other thing? Gold. How do I add to gold? Gold should be the same way I think. Gold... No. Nothing here. It's a... It's a... Separate, no? There's a thing here when I start gold. Oh wait! If you go on your inventory again, you can click the gold coins you'll see on the top and you can add more. Oh yeah, yeah. Yeah, GP. I add... GP. Win 20, you heard? 20. Oh yeah. I have 48. Adam. Okay, so you guys, let's go over to you. What do you want to do? How many times can I investigate, Role? You can investigate in one area once. I want to rummage around in this. Okay, you also do investigation. Can my cat also? Can my cat? Can I move like here? Where do you want to move? Yeah, in the room I reach and open that up. 23 That was a nat 20. Okay, so uh-huh. That is a nat 20. Okay. Okay. Okay, we're cooking. We're cooking. We are cooking. Okay. Can I also do one? I mean there's no point anymore since you would since like a reason already investigated the room So if you investigate now they won't really find anything But you can do one thing you can do a perception check or what's a perception perception check you notice things that are like like there but you Yeah easy to miss it Okay, let me start with you. So, you find a letter in between the wooden planks. And in that letter, it says that I have placed something for you Where this... where the... Frosted lions... Open the way. Okay. That's like... And like this is written to... Someone. Which is... But the name is like... Blurred out. You can't read it. Can you repeat that one second? I have left something for you... At... Where... Frosted lions... That's a hint. It's a riddle. Yeah. Yeah. Okay. And for you, Khubab, you rolled a 8. Unfortunately, you tried to look for something. You tried to look for something, but unfortunately, you can't see shit. Can I, can I like move here, bro? On the other side? Yeah, you can also do a perception check since Khubab failed miserably. Can I, can I like move to the other side? I wanted to do an investigation thing here. Oh my god. Another dirt 20. Okay. That is just enough. So, Kanza, you notice cracks in the wall in front of you. Let me draw which area it is. It's right here Kanza, you see that? Yeah, okay. Yeah, this wall has cracks on it. And it's like, it looks weak enough that you could probably destroy it with an attack. Ready? Secret room, and up. Yes. I would like to do that. I think you can just use a spell. You have to note that spells... Like, the only spells that damage walls are spells that have force, like magic missile. But that will cost you a spell slot. Or... Or you could use a weapon. mostly weapons that do bludgeoning damage, slashing. We don't have weapons right now do we? Yeah, we're not inventory. Wait, can someone else? Your inventory is in the room you're in. Oh. Yeah, so like basically that's where your bags are and let's just assume you already took your inventory because you already went into the room. I'm a dragon and spear. Does that do anything? Probably not. Spear, they do slashing damage so they don't work. But let's just assume you find Kiernan's backpack. his stuff since he's you know not here he has oh he has there's a crowbar yeah can i use that i have a crowbar crowbar yes you can use that you can use my crowbar you can use that yeah okay so you use the let me remove this you use the crowbar and this let me just um hold on technical issues Okay, so the entrance opens to this weird looking cavern area. Okay. Yeah. So you guys, you guys see it, right? Like you should come here. Let me bring Khabib here. I did a 23 investigation. Yeah, yeah. We'll go back to that in a bit. Yeah. Okay. You can do investigation here. Oh my god, don't fall over. Where is bro going? My bad! Does that work? Unfortunately, you do not find shit. No. Actually, what is more? Also... Oh yeah, you're supposed to be here. I'm sorry. What if I do another one, bro? You can do another one here. Everyone's lying in here. Let me add it. Let me add it. Oh, there he is. I'm gonna do it. Oh my god! So you guys have to wait for Kiernan? No, you have to wait for Kiernan. You know what? Screw it, I'm doing a perception as well. Okay. Can I... Can I go where the bird is? Surely I see something. Surely I see something. No, no, no, Abdullah, that's not what I meant. Like, I'm gonna move my bird all the way. Like, this area and get out of investigation here. Yeah, hold on, let's do his first perception. Yeah, I have a 23 and a 21 waiting for him. Okay, let me think of something for you, which will be smacks you. Okay. You notice something, like you see the water area in the bottom? On the right side? The right, which means right. area. I don't actually see the water. That's like supposed to be water with a rock. Yeah, so there is like a bunch of weapons. Like spears, swords, hammers and like all the useless items. Yeah. You could take them using Mage Hand if you wanted to. You don't exactly know if there's anything useful. But from what you can see above, it feels useless. Yeah, I can use Mage Hand. Yeah. Sorry, it's a counter-bunny. Hold up. Let me use Mage Hand. I mean, you just say that you used it. Oh, I thought I was supposed to do that. Yeah, so the Mage Hand is on the water. So, like, tell me what you want to do with the Mage Hand. Does it not just pick up the weapon? You want to pick up the weapon or do you want to, like, you know, swim, like, see what you could find as your hand? Oh wait, that's how you can do that as well. Like below the weapons. Okay, so below the weapons you find 40 silver coins. Oh! I'm not going to get rich. Silver coins. Yeah. At least you get rich to bet. Yeah. It's not a lot. It's like 0.4 gold. Well, it's something. Yeah. How many? Okay, let's go back to Khubaib's old investigation check that he did. Wait, 20 or 40? How many did you say? 40? 40, 40. Bro, I'm Darius. Is mine here? Okay, take me to that 20, bro. Okay, so here... You notice two heads... lions that are glowing with red fire. Okay. No more. Ben? So does that not remind you of anything? The lions? Yeah, the lions. Does that not remind you of something that happened like minutes ago. Yeah, so does Khomeim do something or should I do something? I don't remember. No, no, since he investigated it, both of you know where that it's there. Okay, so then I try to look for something. Also, I don't remember what just happened. The letter that I found. I have left something for you at where the frosted lines open the way. Oh, right. Where, what? So, I try looking for something. between the lens so do a perception check fuck a reach he goes about to get a two shut up where's perception shut up where's perception shut up god if i do better okay okay go ahead so you realize that you read something in that letter that said Can I use my ice ability? That's all you will, I will have an ice one. Sabaar. Let me add it. You're supposed to use a spell, right? Like a thing. Use your... What was it? Cold Fetch, whatever the fuck. I don't remember. Cold Fetch? I have Frostbite and Ray of Frost. Frost, yeah. Any Frost attack. Yeah. Ray of Frost it as well. Oh, now I hit a 17. You don't have to worry about the... We just reuse it. So since your Ray of Frost has like a radius that it can... It hits both the lines. And they start glowing frosted flames. And as they do that, the door opens for you. Take me in! Boom! Boom! I'm moving, Lugget. Who are you? I'll move you in. Who's this? Where did I go? Girl let's not go too far Wait I lost my cat Where is your cat? Bro forgot about his cat No no the cat is somewhere Wait wait last time? No the cat is here The cat is here Can I move like to this crevice next to me? Crevice? This crevice? No no no no no no no, the other like right This? No, the other one. This one? Yeah, yeah, yeah. Hit him with another investigation. Boom. Yeah. Okay, no, it's good. You find, like, there's gravel right next to you, and it's, like, a bit lifted up, as though, like, something is hidden there. Like, you could probably dig it up. Oh. So I have to dig it up. To dig it up, I want you to do a strength check. Bro, it's gravel. Let me add it, bro. I can lift it. Just kidding. I got 9. Oh yeah, that's enough. There you find a potion of healing. It is another letter. This is a love letter. Oh no. To Astri. That died. Oh no. You can't see who it's from. You can see a poem written for her. by an admirer. So... Yeah. It's Valtor, isn't it? Yeah, it's Valtor, isn't it? I'm calling it right now. Okay. What was the poem? Or is it like anything? Is it just a love poem? Is it? Like, no, does it like... That's it, like a portion of healing and the letter. Oh, okay. You're not gonna tell us what was written in it. I can if you want. I can. I can. Hold on. Let me just think of something. Because I just realized. You don't have to. You don't have to. Yeah, you don't have to. No, no, it's funny. Okay. Let me just come up with something. I keep your name folded quite in my chest like a letter never sent yet every glance of yours turns the world into a confession. Yeah. Anyway, that's it. Can I do a investigation check update? Yes, you can. My cat can do perception, Jax. It has a skill for perception. It can. I'm just gonna make it so you have the fun. No, that's good enough. You notice there's a pillar and right next to it there's a golden crested chest. And No, they can't open it. No, they can't open it. Along with that, there is in fact 50 gold coins! Okay. 50 gold? 50 gold? Yeah, 50 gold coin. And what about the staff? And you can have the staff, but I will add that into your inventory later because I just, I need to figure out what it does still. So, yeah. You have the staff. We have a staff. Okay, so Kanjak, do you want to do anything? Am I able to explore here in this area? Somewhere? Yeah, you can explore this area. Okay, I'll do that. What about the area down? Down like, or like... Look at my bird. Okay, my birdio. Yeah, you can go there, but like... Oh, I'm drawing. Yeah, you can go there. You can just select them, yeah. Like here, can I explore like... Investigation, this thing, do you know? Uhh, you can. Okay. Do one. Okay. Investigation there. Okay. W. Okay, so you find... Oh, I found something? Weird. What the fuck? You didn't do anything. It's only three. I don't see anything. Oh wait, let me do it. You guys see it? Yeah, now we see it. You notice there's like blue trails around and on the blood you notice there's like a few gold coins, like four of them. And on the other side, you have like this bag of rice. And it's like open, it's like open open. Yeah, so inside the bag of rice, you have a... Let's see. I'm not gonna put coins in there. I'll let you have... Oh yeah, it's a scroll of Eldritch Blast. So you can cast this as an action whenever you want. You just have to tell me and I'll make it happen. What action does it mean? It lets you cast the spell called Eldritch Blast. Oh, okay. Let me see if I can add it to your inventory. I wanna see how it works. Like what does it do? Blast. Biting blast! Hold on. What's that thing at the bottom where Kanjakk is? Or Sarkhan? That's the staircase. Yeah, staircase. Let's not leave until the top comes in. Come out, please. You can't do that without me. I mean we're gonna have a map change. What about this guy, Victor? Actually, he's right there. He tells you that he's gonna go up and check on his friends and he leaves. I don't see him. Oh there he is. I see him finally. Now he's gone. Now he's gonna be gone. What? Big ass. Hello face. Okay. So... Who's next? You guys can do whatever you want. Explore in crevices that you think you haven't investigated within. Does anyone want to explore? Or... What places? What places? down by the sentence can I explore the dude can I can explore the cell actually you can even visit the dude who hasn't talked at all yeah I wanted to check on the dude creepy ass what is fire I don't even see him yeah I don't see him either oh hold on let me let me make it Actually no, whale wouldn't do that. He's not gonna go voluntarily talk. Someone else do it. I'll do it, wait. Move me to him bro. Move me to him. Okay, where is baby girl? Baby girl's in the cave. My cat's gone again. My cat's gone again. It's fine. It's fine. Hi baby. Hi baby. So how do I talk to him? Just talk to him. Hello. Hello there. Just kidding. What happened to his accent bro? So wait like who is this guy? He's the homeless guy that was talking to you remember? Albert. No no I do know that but like no no no I know. Ask him. Ask him. Ask him. Oh, okay. So like, who are you supposed to be? Well, son, I've been here a while. Just a couple years. Daughter, okay. You know, just like you, I've been falsely accused. I don't believe you. They said I robbed a bank, but I didn't. They just knew I'm a home... The way I look, you know, how I dress, they judge me too quick man. I just walk away bro. Why didn't they let him out? Oh wait, yeah, let me ask him, why didn't they let you? Well, it just so happened to be that they forgot about me. It's as though I'm a rotten corpse around here. I just whispered around my brother, that sounds guilty. You noticed that the guy that came never unlocked my door, but he unlocked yours. You ever wonder why? I did. That's why I asked. That's cause... That's cause... Everyone just thinks that I'm dead here. They don't give a shit about me. but you were talking to him I never talked to him oh hold on I wanna I just I just walk away or you put me back in my cell by the way there's a thing called there's a thing called you can like do yeah what was it that what was it that insight I wanna do an inside check on this mobile. How much is your inside? It's plus 4. Plus 4, okay, you do it. I have plus 3. I mean, let's see. Hello, did it count? It's counting. Can I also start work? Yeah you can. Let me bring Kanjik here guys. 12 Can

I do Arcana check down yet? Alright we're trying to do inside checks. Yes, wait, Kanjakk can do that. So, okay, so first, Khubab did an insight check. And you notice that there is a hint of truthness in his words. It's as if he is completely forgotten by everyone around him, except you guys. Okay, Kanjakk, you can do an arcana check. Can I move to my cell levels? I want you to do an arcana in there. Can you move my character like here? Where my bird is? Where your bird is? Oh it's in the hidden secret room. Oh, no. Oh, I'm supposed to bring it. Oh, never mind. Just here. Oh, I don't know. Do you want to go here? Do you want to go here? Do you want to go here? Do you want to go here? Check for magic. Okay, I'll do it now. Okay. Okay, like in the rubble you sense something blowing. It's another scroll. I'm gonna do an arcana check where I am by the way. Where I am right now. I got a 15. You're fucking kidding me. Can I heal myself? You can heal yourself. I got a 15 by the way. Mine is my con somewhere. Unfortunately, even though you successfully are able to look for magic, you don't find anything. There's nothing in this area. No, no, no, only for... Both of you actually. You don't find anything in your cells. I'm gonna go to the cell myself. Well, he'll clock first. I do not recommend going in the cells for magic. You won't find anything. No, not magic. I'm not going to investigate. I actually want to go into the investigation. To the other area that we found. Okay bro. I'm gonna do a perception as well, cause I already failed my investigation. Oh! We just do both! Fail investigation, do perception. Should I do it? Yeah, do it. You try to look for something web, but you unfortunately do not find anything in your snubs. Why is the messail empty? On the other side... Here... On this area... There is... Another scroll... It's for magic messail. Yeah, I'll take that with these spells can be can be useful for real because he's a wizard and wizards can learn spells through scrolls sorcerers can't obviously I did 14 check investigation myself You just find like a like 10 silver coins nothing else. Okay so it's essentially. Yeah. Exploration around here or something. He wanted to heal and then he wanted to heal. I do recommend I do recommend you already got your weapons because you went through the room so it's fine. This room yeah this room had your equipment. Okay. I recommend checking near the corpses. Oh yeah, can I just... Hold up, I wanna go to the guard lady. Do I do investigation or insight? Which one? Investigation. Insight is not for the situation. You can do insight when you're talking. I'll do investigation. On where? Can I go to the... Can I go to the lady naga desert? Just in case he doesn't hit an investigation. Where is Klog? I don't see him. He's next to the center. Oh the corpses. Oh. Okay. You try to poke the corpses and they do not bleed. It's as if they are not actual fey. Yeah. That's all you get. There are other checks that people can do here. The corpses. Just saying. One second. Also, I'm going to use myself. using like one of the abilities, I guess? Uh yeah, just don't do it with the spells, then you make it better. What? Yeah, I'll just cast it. How much do I hit is the question? Nine? No. I'm gonna die. Fourteen. Not bad. Okay, wait, I want to investigate the card lady first. Okay, what did you know? It is so buggy. Wait, have we brought this guy out? Why are we not taking this guy out? Shouldn't you do arcana? The guy did not unlock his cell. We talked to him. Unfortunately, you can't because it has a charm on it. One second. Why would you not leave? They forgot about him. It's like he doesn't exist too. I got 20. I got 20. Okay, so you look through her corpse, you see her dagger, her pockets that have 10 gold coins in them. I used to rob him! I know! Hey, what you doing? They're dead. I mean that's not a bomb. And she has a letter from her admirer. Another one. No! Unfortunately, the letter is in an envelope sealed. she has not yet opened. She has another love letter. She just left 11. That's hard. Should I be sad about this? Can I open the letter? I mean she's not gonna read it. Yeah, you can choose to read the letter if you want. I choose to read the letter. I'm keeping these letters by the way, these are on me. Yeah we're gonna give it. We're gonna give it to Huda, yeah when we find them. I bet this is from one of us. You do not know who the guy is because it's a secret admirer. But we're saying that it's him. I'm going to go to the town square and I'm going to say it out loud. Whoever wrote this step forward. One second, we're doing... What other checks? I guess... Hold on, can I do Arcana on the other corpses? Yes, yes, yes. I'm doing Arcana on the one moth first. On which guy? The one blue guy. Can I go to the dead lady? In the cave? The lady? I'll tell you. I'm doing it on the blue moth. The lady. The white heron. Wait, I- Oh, you also wanna do it. I wanted to do it on the white heron lady. There were two guys. Wait, hold on. One by one. Khubaib speak what are you saying? I was saying I wanted to do it on the white hair and then maybe for the lady. Yeah, arcana check? Yeah. I got a 24 on the mod. Okay, so each of you do an arcana check if you want because you're I'm gonna say the same thing. Yeah. I was gonna say if I'm nothing. Continue. You go. Okay, everyone except is able to see that these are magically constructed organisms by the use of evil magic. Literally the one person with the highest arcana here. What? Literally the one person whose lore is X. Yeah, unfortunately. You study arcana, you're not good at arcana. Kubev, how many bonus points do you have for arcana? He has 3 but he rolled an exact one like a fucking failure. I have 7. That one is amazing by the way. Are you like the first 3 night ones in this game? Oh, that's what we find out. The first and only. Aim for 10, yeah? So... Created by evil magic. Let me go over that again. These are created by evil magic that you are not aware of and you've never seen these species before. Yada yada. Yeah. Okay. So what would you guys like to do now? What about the charm on the dude's door? Is there no way to do that? What is the thing for that? Fortunately, that charm is locked. It can only be unlocked by the person who created the charm. No matter what spell you cast, it won't be broken. Alright, I'm gonna walk out and say we'll be back for you. Okay. We'll be back for you. Alright bye bye. What spell? Anyways. Everything. Wait, don't you be buying that? How do we leave here? I mean, I'm not gonna say anything. That means there's still something. Arkana where? Here, in the cave. In this cave? I do not recommend that because there's... Where my bird is? You see him? Yeah, yeah, I'm saying this. Yeah, they have this nothing. What parts have you checked? I don't know. Literally everything. No, wait, we were waiting on him to do a perception check somewhere, no? Or investigation. Like in this guard room, you guys already did an investigation and you got 20 gold points. I think that was kebab. The cliff room. All of us failed a check. Which room? Oh, that. Yeah, yeah, yeah. Yeah, okay, okay. I forgot about that. Do you know the room where like... The weird room where... Yeah. Yeah, where she is. Right here. Here. This is where they all failed and... An investigation check I don't know if I'll have any better chance because I'll minus one yeah Go ahead I see a legend in front of me can I do an athletics to jump there? It's not athletics you can just literally jump cross but it's the same thing you don't really find anything Can I do another one here? It's a different area? No you can't. It's the same. Counts are the same. So we all failed it. So we checked ourselves. We checked these rooms. Can I not do it in this cave? There's nothing related to magic in that cave. So it's like a waste if you do it. So what about this room? Have we the one on the right side? Did we do arcana there? No we didn't. You have not done arcana there. I wanna do it on the cliff. Ok, do one. Ok, let's do it. Listen, we do everything. No, no, valla. Unfortunately you find jackshed. Congratulations, after your 10 hours of search you found a red bean. It does nothing. I'm gonna do arcana on the cliff. Abdullah! In the room where he fell. I got to 20. Oh my god, I forgot something. There's nothing magical in this room. Can I do athletics to drag them out of this room? Yes you can! I am rolling athletics. There's no way! Bro just holds him by the scruff of his neck like a cat. Wait no way. Oh I got so shit. Anyways. Can I throw a saving throw? I already lost you can you you can do that too, but like where is Khubab? Guys I can assure you that this area is 100% explored so Can you make my character so that I can move my character? Let me let me let me see let me see if you move your character on the old old screen we used to have this one Oh shit. Map cannot be loaded. Yeah I can move it here. Okay now we go back to the old area and see if there is a warlock. Is that where it is? My thing is growing. The corrector is not even there. Mine is loading. Yeah, mine is still loading. I can't see the map anymore. Just try scrolling and stuff. Like scroll... Oh, I can move now. Everything is moving. Everyone can move. Everyone can move. Conjax was just literally locked there. Can you guys like wait one minute so I can like set like a like me see if there's everything set up Where's Nugget's cat? I mean do you want to stop? Because like there is something ahead that you can do and it's like on the scene. I can't see the map. No no Nugget on the bottom there's a scroll bar move it to the right. No, that's fine. It's still saying loading. Just reload. Yeah, just a refresh. Okay, let me do this real quick, then I'll bring you to the other map. Why is Bro here? What is this? What is this? What is this Bro doing? What is Albert doing? Stop moving him around guys! Stop moving him around! I did not move him around. Oh he's moving! Why is he here? Hey, you said you were leaving. We are leaving. No, I'm saying it to the guy. He's hacking into the mainframe. Why? There's a bunch of code on the screen. Hold up. There's an hour of content left that you can still do if you want. Your call. I'm down. Just making sure Kanjakk is fine. I'm also down. I lost my circle. Wait, where's my cat? Hello Kanjakk. Are thou here with us? Give me a second. Okay. Nuggets, it's just a weirdo. I'll bring your cat back, okay hold on. Your cat is on the other map so you don't have to worry. Oh okay. Was that in the jail cell? It's a cat right there. Yeah it is in a jail cell but like I'm gonna put this guy back. Oh what the fuck are you guys doing? And you can no longer access him so yeah anyways. I want to come back and say hello to the guy. I forgot his name already. I'll pass the recording for now. flowers. I think you can already guess where this is going. A little bit. A little bit. Yeah, so you can use the staff. The staff has like 15 charges, like staffs have charges. If you use one charge, you can bloom a flower from the ground. And I think you know where this is going. Anyway. We'll figure it out. Anyway. Did you add the... What? Add what? The scrolls. In my thing. I have not yet. Because... I'm here. Let's switch to the other map and I... Oh my god. Yeah. Are you upstairs? Yes, it's upstairs. Everyone here? Yes. Yes, loading. Present. Present. Oh, it's her. Yeah, that's what I meant to say. You and both. Um, what is going on here? What? Hold up, I have to reload. You guys gotta see this. I have to restart the thing, hold up. I'm not gonna spoil anything. What is that other thing? Were they all not fighting? Yeah, they were. Those are allies, but yeah. I think so. What happened? Just loading. Yeah, technical difficulties. If you leave it idle for a while, it does that. No, every time you switch a map, my whole thing breaks. I have to reset the page. I can. Of others? Who others are you talking about? The three... I guess... Because you're not supposed to. Fair enough. Did you forget? You only see the... The HP meter on... I know. Is that... Can it learn? Can it learn? Oh my god! I'm sorry did you do that on purpose? Okay there it is. Someone did that, I didn't do that. I don't think we can do that. I misclicked. Can't you guys not explode too much? Oh I'm somewhere. There was a button here. Where is Arige's circle? Yeah my circle is gone. Okay, we're here. Okay, roll initiative question mark. No, wait, wait. Set the scene. What? I see that. Is that good bro? Okay, so. You look around you like. Literally the first thing you see is this giant white stag in front of you with this like big thick horns and it seems to be fighting this humongous knight looking creature with fairy wings and probably also the fey-like creature. Oh can you guys stop clicking? I was wondering why that happened. I was like oh that's what it is. I looked away from like two seconds but... Okay, so... And it's like accompanied with these Feyblade dancers, the things you saw before in... Feyblade? Feyblade, fey... Yeah, okay. So... Before... Oh my god, sorry. This whole area is like 40 meters tall, so like... 40 meters, what the fuck? 40 feet, oh my god anyways. It's 40 feet tall and these creatures like the stag and the knight are both 10 feet tall. That does not look like a knight to me, I don't know why. I will show you both of them. I'll show you both of them. Which one do you want to see? Do you want to see the stag first or the knight first? Sheard is the stag robot man. Okay, stag it is... Oh, you are bad! There's a shadow on the bottom left, if we go down. It's Harry Potter. Ignore that. Ignore that? No, no, inside. What Kintrid wanted to be. Okay, can you guys hear the music? I'm gonna lower the volume. I'm gonna cut you easy to cut from the previous one. But if you do. Hold on. Let me just... He was hearing something guys. He was hearing something. Oh sorry guys, there was the voices in my head. Okay, let me do this real quick. Expecto. Watch Ronan. I think you guys will love the knight looking thing. That's what I wonder. Does he advise? Do you advise? Yes. No, no, no, just do it. Just do it. Just do it. I didn't do anything. Why'd he get louder? I'm sorry. Okay, there we go. Okay. So like, adjust that and we should be going. Okay guys, let's see the Capitano now. Should we go loot? Okay. I'll be a sent dog buddy. Oh, that's actually really sick. Oh, that's gorgeous. Oh, that's gorgeous. A whole night enemy. Yeah. Yo. Okay, that's a night. Yo, it's a butterfly night. Yo. Yo. And we get the stupid ass deer and they got that guy. I get butterflies too. By the way, this deer is a druid, so like it's someone who turned into a deer. I mean not a stag. Hey, there's a dumb ass deer on the hook. Hi. Okay. So... Now you roll initiative, oh where you already have. No I did not. Okay okay okay, never mind. Let me clear that. Okay go back. Yeah go back into combat. Yeah there it goes. No. Hello. Do it for your pets as well. What the whale go? Where the bait go? I'm sad that I'm ahead of here Okay, let me see where my friend gets. 10! No, it's above you! MashaAllah, I love you too. Clap in my thing. In my thing. My three boys. My three boys. Bro, Nugget's cat is about to get a 20. Imagine! Imagine! Oh, there he has a cat. Hello, get it low. Why is everything so slow for me now? Hi! Hi! 17! Get her out. Wait, can we beat which bro? Hold on, my cat is imploding. Genuinely, it's not. Okay, here it is. Where's the circle behind us? Yeah, it's gone. It's gone. You're actually kidding me. Yeah. Okay, so tell me when you guys are ready. 11! We have 3 11. At least how are you behind your own cat? Oh my... Behind him! Oh my god. Nooooo! Wait, what about the night? Oh, it's 13. Oh, it's 13. Okay, wait. Which one is our ally and which one is our ally? You don't need to move. You don't need to. Okay. It's only the fairies that are your enemy. Okay. Okay, the three, okay. Okay, so the stag goes up to one of the dancers, like, Feyblade dancers, and... Okay, let's see if... It hits or not. It hits... Okay, so now it's your 14 or above. Yep. Yeah, that guy probably is like 70. Next. So it's the dancers turn. Let's see. Okay. She can do like two attacks if she hits this. I mean like... Okay, never mind. I would be appreciated if you don't let the stag die We will do our best. Oh shit half our system is just like... Go on bro, no. Should I heal it? Is that what I should do instantly? You can as your bonus action. Not cure wounds though. I think you have healing word, no? Or you don't? I do have healing word, but I don't think I have that as boost action. It is. Oh yeah, I can. Okay, I heard red eyes. I heard red eyes. I also shield up. Who is eating? Okay, so... actions and move on to the your okay you luckily luckily luckily the cat is small enough that you can move past it's the the the the the the head like here yeah okay I wanna see if I can still be right now I can reach everyone from where I am. I don't have to move. At least I can run up to one of them. That's what I wanted to see. I'll lose my tantrip for now. You can't do your By the way, you can only do the search thing if you use a spell slot. Just making sure you know. But, isn't cantrip a way? No, cantrip is not a spell slot. Spell slot. Not any... Oh. You should have told me that before. You said I can use a cantrip. I did. I never said cantrip. It's like I forgot that at that time you used a cantrip, not a spell slot. So I forgot to mention it. I mean, cantors you can use infinitely, right? Yeah, they're infinite. Like, if he keeps using that, then it's like infinite times he can roll on the table. So, I can use this, right? Do I hit? Uh, you obviously hit, because that's a 20, what the fuck? And who are you hitting? The lady next to the hag. On the left side? Oh, that one. Stag. So, he doesn't- Hag. Okay. The hag, yo. Okay. Now, is that your turn? I wanna use my combo. Should I use another spell? And full, and full. You can't use a cantrip. Like, you can't use a level one spell if you already used a cantrip. Just count as an action. Okay. Right. I'll add my turn. Okay. Dancing lights is... Teleportation? No. It creates a... I don't know if it counts. Weaknesses, I mean. Anime weaknesses. I can't tell you. Let me see. They are not weak to... Can I move here? Can I move there? No music, it's cocking by the way. Yes you can, yes you can. It's free run music obviously. Okay, surely I hit this time right guys? Surely. I'm gonna do Rayo first. One right in front of me. Okay. Boom. Fuck off. Okay, now. I feel like I feel like 15 is a bit too much Yeah, it's 15 so I let I let it be 13 because like the other enemy was 11 we change it to 11 and we're not talking about the stag I'm talking about the Yeah, yeah, it's cuz it's cuz they have their own special armor Okay, so it's 13, you can hit it and it takes 4 damage. Yup. Uh, 35, there we go. And guys, it's the off night's turn. Guys, catch it over. Oh my god, guys. Okay, what did I give this guy? I mean I don't think there was anything else I- Me and Ben- I'll give the knight some mercy- No, the stag some mercy, because what the fuck is it? I can roll- I can- I can roll- Nevermind Which- Okay I can fly to you guys I'll hit you, Khubav. You have the same HP as. And I do not hit, so good for you. Wait, actually, I can do one more. I can do one more. I do hit! Fuck you. How much damage? 10 damage. oh shit go on your hp and like type 10 on your character sheet yeah yeah no no no he's an overface cloth hurt him with a 32 actually i don't have advice but also i see no i i'm used to the damage I need to heal the stack first. Oh. Is that- yeah it's in range. Alright, can I do it? Yeah, let me go to your turn. Sorry. So, I wanted to first activate Shield of Faith and then heal it. If you activate Shield of Faith, that counts as a spell, so that's an action. I won't do any damage. Why can't I move my ult? Ok. I can't move. You can't move? I can't move. I can't show my ruler but I can't move. Alright! Maybe do select. I'm on select. I just have the ruler thing on. Like I can move. Lexi has to move him back. What if we do the same thing again like I go take you to the other map and we come back here Can you just like move me next to the the solo one down there? I just want to handle that so it doesn't go extra damage The one that's not with the stack? Yeah solo one That's in range like next to it Like here By the way I don't know how you're getting there because you will get opportunity attacked if you try to go there. Oh, that too. So should I not? Should I go back there? I can move past... I can go past though. No, no, that's not... you overlap between them. Like, whenever you overlap your character, it's not... you're not good. So you can go here or try to get closer from workaround. Yeah I guess here. I'll slowly make my way down to that. I guess I'll just do a normal... I can do a cantrip and then I can do the spell right? Cantrip? Let me check your shield first. I want the bonus action to be healing basically. What can I do on my normal action then? Yeah, let me confirm for you. I lost my dude's shield. There's so many numbers. I'm not gonna do that. In dim light or darkness. So you can use your healing word on... What the fuck is spare the dice? That is... I guess for guys I can just bring them back on one. It's pretty obvious. Okay, okay. Healing word you can use, but if you'd use another spell, after that we'll use two. You'll have... Yeah. What do you want to do here? You can use firebolt and the healing word. Yeah, I'll do that. Yeah. I'll throw firebolt at... Well, first I'll throw it, then I'll consider it. Okay. Six damage, that's not that high. I think I should... I need to get rid of the stuff around the stacks. So I'll go for the one next to the stack. That's how I'm going to do it. Okay. And then I will do healing. Okay. Almost like she's not a huge word. Okay, so.

And... How much does it heal for the events you need? Why did it feel like you actually threw a dice in real life? Nine. Oh, nine HP. That's pretty sure. Okay, that's... No, it's actually really good. Because it lost... Nine HP, no. I mean, I was expecting you to move fast me either, so... I wish I had a taunt. Okay, that comes out to get one shot. It's fine, he can come back. He works like Anivia by the way. Anivia egged, but what is in the egg? It's not an egg, it's like a feather. You can save the feather. But you use an action. Okay, let's do the... Let's do the... Yep. Alright, do I splash? Oh, I do, I think. Okay, oh, that's it. Of course. Girl, you guys, your pets are a bit too OP. Yeah, my cat has like one attack. Continue, Kanjak. Girl, you can only do that attack, that one you just did. Oh, yo! Cat, I did 4 damage. I get 4 by the way. I get 4 by the way. Ah yes. Anyways. Continue. It's the enemy. I don't wanna kill you. I guess the other one. Okay. So. I go to Kiernan. It goes to Kiernan and lets see who can counter attack? Klock can, he's called Klock as hell should be okay. Yeah he can, lets see if it hits first. What the fuck? Klock is dead, hello? He can cast hellish rebuke on that Otherwise he is a bit cooked We don't want healer dying guys, we don't want the healer dying Why is our healer first shining by the way? Yeah, welcome to my world as well What do you mean ass when you told me? Yeah, I have a shabuke. Yikes. I take, okay, it takes 13 damage. Okay, so that would be... For those who come after. Okay. Like she stabbed me in the chest when I got one final lick in. Bam! And... How much damage do I get? She can do another one. Oh no. How was she doing initially? It's a secret word. She was about to do another quest. Oh it's... okay. Let's see the damage. I really want to fucking have the shield of faith. Thought it would save me from that shit as X as I'm. X. Plus... 5 plus 11. Okay start with it. I am burning through spell swords by the way How are you not over by the way? Like haven't you? By the way, after this I will allow a long rest because I feel like it would be impossible if we continue like this. Okay, so I can actually use a spell. Hold on. It's not even my turn. Fuck off. I can use a spell. Tactical nuke. I was going to, yes. Magic missile. End turn and do the victor. Yeah, yeah, yeah. No, White Orr! White Orr! White Orr! White Orr! White Orr! White Orr! White Orr could do something- He's about to do less damage than me. Watch out! If he misses so hard, it does damage me. Okay, he has this ability called Arms of Hader. Each creature that's like 10 feet near him must make- Okay, I don't think we should do that, actually. Why the fuck? Okay, ignore that. Oh, it's a radius spell. Aoe spell. Okay, it's not around him. It's like he can choose the area. So let me do that real quick. There is no safe radius. No, there is. If I put this guy to sleep, will he take extra damage? Around... Oh my god. Let me draw him. If he put who to sleep? The guy next to me. Ignore that. Let me move it. It's like this. This is like a area of... Let me make it 10 feet. Oh my god, what the fuck. It's supposed to be 10 feet. Oh, I have guys a light breeze on his ass as I can attack you. Let me go ahead and remove this. Remove it, bitch. There you go. Now make it 10 feet. There you go. Oh my god. Get the fuck out of this. Ignore that or whatever the fuck that is. Okay, there we go. So this is around them. That makes it easier. By the way, this will last for... Yeah, one turn. Till Valtor's next turn. So if you walk inside of that you will take damage so don't walk inside of that. Oh no! Yeah! Okay. So each of these creatures will take this damage. 9 damage. Okay. So that's that and that is for this guy. There we... Now that's his turn and it's time for the cat! Oh by the way I was asking if it does do extra damage if someone else hits it. If I sleep will it do more damage? If you sleep or if you put them to sleep? No, no, if I put them to sleep, I mean, like, if I use sleep and then someone else can sleep. Yeah, if you put them to sleep, they have an advantage. Like, other players have an advantage against that character. Also, the circle on the ground, it will do damage over time, right? Yeah, damage every... Let me confirm. Bore, take 4 damage. 4 damage. Sorry will the HP bar even move? Let's see... I'm literally counting pixels. That's a lot of pixels. Hell yeah, okay. For where I need to double-check something up, but... For you, how far you are. This curve. 60 feet. I can do that. Oh yeah I can definitely do that. Okay so... Wait for the stag ones. No, I was checking how far I can go. The circle lasts forever until the end of combat. Oh wow. Victor did something useful for us. So it's a D.O.T. I'm going to do Chromatic Orb, poison damage to the Fae Dancer that's with the stag. If it is. Okay How do you do it? I want to start the roleplay. Aham, we forgot. Okay I have to... I want to wait until it actually hits or not, otherwise it's just going into the hole. Even when you miss, like, say something for it. Okay. It hits. Now do the roleplay and then do the damage. No, I didn't do the damage on this one. Okay. You didn't click cast. I clicked cast. So she just lagging on me. Okay. Okay, hold on. I can do this. I'm gonna catch her. Ow! Was chromatic over 120 feet or 60 feet? 90. 90. Okay, okay, that's fine. Yeah, that's what I was checking. Also wait, why didn't there turn the HPs with decreasing? She's gonna roleplay it and I'll reduce the HP. Green fumes ball up in Bale's hand and shoot directly towards the Fae Dancer that's attacking the stat. I feel like this is better than showing you the actual HP. I'm actually not famous to HP and just being like, okay how do you want to kill them? Like suddenly it's more funny. Yeah. Like when I crit once, okay. I think that's enough for me. I already know my turn. Yeah. Another stack. Please do something. Okay. I said I did my best. I should 1 hit for secret dies. Gets counter. to do a headbutt, it hits the wall. Gets brain damage. Okay, it can literally do a headbutt. 1d6. 1d6. If it gets a 5 or 6, it can do the headbutt. 6. Okay. And it moves right through the fucking thing. Till around here. and let's see the damage it does oh my god that's oh my god that kills it that kills it but actually it does not it does not kill it does not kill it because like the the phase are resistant to bludgeoning damage so it takes half the damage unfortunately 6.5 damage No, it's just 6 steps No, okay I have another video Oh, wait, that's the turd Anyways It's time for the one that's gonna die Let's move it Why am I so close to people? I don't want to die. I can roll a 1d6 and do a move if- okay. I can't do a move. So I can... What the fuck is this? Please ever take the hit because I have such an idea. Oh what, you gonna hella shrebuke again? No no no. This is a really strong ability I forgot about. Sure buddy, sure. One, so fuck that, that's not happening. Five, that's... Okay, that's still not happening, so... Anyways. That's the turn, Liora! You can use your spell slot if you want and get ahum ahum. I have a question before that. When can I use my empowered and quickened spell thingies? You can always use them. Do they count as an action? It does not count as an action. It's a passive. You can turn on and off. So, you guys get the NPC. I have a way of killing the other guy. Can I use the scroll? Hold on let me let me see if I can give you a who has magic missile Can you can you tell me what what dice it shows you? Yeah, so you can you can roll that and I'll do the damage and and And if you are... are you empowering? Are you empowering it? I want to ask... You can... yeah... Yeah, if you use it, it uses your action. Okay. And the... and the scroll is gone forever. Oh. Yeah, so one time scroll. And if Aridh has it, can she use it multiple times? She already has... She already has Majin Nisar. No, as in like... No, even if she has it, it doesn't... But there's no use for her if she can't empower her. But I already have this one. Oh. Oh. Where are you? Where are you? Hi. Didn't you already have magic, Miss Ash? Yeah, I do. Why are you talking about the scroll? I just wanted to ask. I didn't want to ask. Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, sorry. Yeah. Yeah. Five. Okay. Can I empower once or can I empower two spells in my one turn? How many slots it's gonna take? Two spells? What do you mean? Okay, so if I use two spells and empower them, only two slots will be taken, right? It will take your sorcery points. Currently, you only have three sorcery points and if you use it right now, you will take two sorcery points. Wait, one sorcery point. Wait, let me see. I'll not use it now. Okay, I'll use this magic missile. Also, again, I am not to ask why that I have Ice Knight. Ice knife? Ice knife is not melee. It seems like a melee but it's not a melee. It will tell you if the spell is a melee or not. You don't have any melee spells? Nope. I have one which is called health. If you want, you can hit the enemy at a disadvantage and try your luck. If you can't move back, you will do an opportunity attack. Bah. Yeah. I'll put whatever. So... Where do you... Is it Kanjakk's turn or what? Yeah, it's still Kanjakk's turn. Kanjakk do the... Do the thing. Do that 300! Oh my god. Oh... That's so close. Let's see what that is. Thank you. Wait. I can radiate 30 feet of darkness for one minute only. You can see through it. What is that gonna do now? What did you just say? I radiated 30 feet of darkness for only one minute. So, okay. Okay, so this is actually bad. Let me show you why. I don't know. Oh guys! So like... What happened? Um... Hold on. It's not supposed to look like this. Let me... Hold on. I need to change something. I have you no eye. I don't see any difference. Oh! Oh! Oh you're liking it. Bro saw the difference. Yeah I'm adding the real one. That's the darkness. So around Kanjak you guys have darkness. Even the enemies have disadvantage at attacks. So literally you can't do anything else? No, you can but there is disadvantage. Nix has an advantage in the darkness. Yeah, she does. The target has disadvantage on its next attack roll before the start of next turn. Hell, so someone is here! Who is this? Kanjakk. Kanjakk's table did this. So I'll let my turn down. Yes! Wait, feller spray, I just heard about feller spray, it's like a blind. like the yellow hiding i can get you can't stack the names connected already blank no no it's like a hand inmate and you have a little uh... the thing is that i really see you either way mother i don't know if you're going to get the actual you know it you know it we bought you a lot each old Let's go. You have to... Wait wait wait. Do your ice knife roll, click on the roll one. Hit dice. You have to do it at disadvantage which means you have to roll the... Hit dice twice. Yeah, because the target is too close to you. By the way, I cannot see anything else other than just the four of us. Yeah. Yeah, that's... 10. Unfortunately you do not hit. Oh no. So yeah. I think you did cast twice. What? You don't do that. You only do cast once. But like you're supposed to do the roll thing twice. How do I do that? On the right side, like where the cast is, like on the right side, you'll see the two numbers. There'll be like a plus something and like the dice. You see it? I will tell you if it hit or not. You just have to aim. No, no, you just tell me and aim. Yeah, what were you saying? I'm saying like on your spells, like where there's like the cast thing and on the right side you'll see the plus number and like there's a dice there. You see it? So like the plus number, yeah, the plus six you have to hit twice when you are at a disadvantage. Currently you accidentally used a I'll just remove that slot for you, because you only used one slot. Yes, continue. Oh wait, hold on. Yeah, you continued. It's the Ferry's turn. It also has a disadvantage. I can't tell which one this is, the one on my right or the one underneath me. Let's see his rolls. A two. 7? Okay. There's actually no fucking point in me doing it twice in the beginning, because they're already assed to begin with. Uh, yeah, that's... He doesn't hit anyone with that. But he can do it again. Why? Stop it. Because he can do his attacks twice. I'm dead. And he doesn't hit anyone. He doesn't hit anyone. Wait, why? Oh, wait, he can. He can, yeah. It's a 10 ft attack. His spear is 10 ft long. It's 9 damage. I will hit the cat. My baby! It had 12 hp. He'll be 0 soon. He'll come back. Do I just like go for it? What am I supposed to do? Just like... Gamma? Just tell me. Just do the disadvantage. Like roll your thing twice. And then I'll... Like tell you. Ask me who you wanna hit and I'll do that for you. By the way, Shrenda's been gone already. It's been one minute now. One minute is not in real life, it's like each turn like each person's turn. Damn we're doing it. Damn we're doing it. Each person's turn. Not each person's turn, each round you do like one total round is six seconds. Seconds? Woah. Yeah. All of this is happening in real time but we are re-enacting it in turn-based combat. So how many turns has one missed? One whole round is 6 seconds. It's like 30 seconds, come on. Unfortunately, Conjac, you have to deal with your AOS. It's literally like the entire thing now. We just banged it for a minute. We can walk out if we can. You can move out. I can't, I got a wall I am all for it You can, you still can Alright, I am just gonna Ball and I am just gonna walk out Attack, right? You gonna do what? I am just gonna attack and see what happens Roll that twice by the way Yeah Come on hide up there Dead Got a bias, it's a load of this Ohhhh Why do you guys keep hitting cast? I don't get it. Yeah, so... Why did you hit cast? I don't know, I'll remove one. I'll go to start. Yeah, unfortunately, you do not hit, because obvious reasons. Then it's the bird's turn, which will... I have a feeling the bird will obviously fucking hit, because why not? One second. Why? Why did I fucking hit? Bonus action. I don't see it, so... That was not the bonus action, what? Do your bonus action. Yeah, yeah, do your bonus action. Do it twice? Yes. If it has a roll on it, you do it twice. Wait, why are you clicking cast again? Do not hear it again unfortunately. Woah woah woah woah why is it doing so much? Cause you kept smelling it. I did it twice, I just touched it. Okay, Jesus Christ. Okay, you can see your pet now right? Thing's frozen. Give it a second. I can't see mine. You will, in a second cause your thing is taking some time. No, I will do it. Do it. Also I got like 10 more minutes because we're in there and we're gonna close the line. So... Oh, sure. Yeah. We're very close, I think. Is it close? I don't think. Is it close? DMG? Yeah. Does 18 hit? Did you... Do you have to do it twice? For Madom. Okay. Madom. Madom. Madom. Yes. Unfortunately no. Yeah continue to next. Can I move him? You can, you can. But it will take an opportunity attack. Yes. Am I Pura-Five? I will... Hmm... Okay, let's work. Okay. Roll a 1d6. It's a 1. Anyways... And... I have to do that twice... There's no way I'll ever go. The fact that clock strikes you both of them, I do. By the way... Hold on, hold on a second... I have to take necrotic damage too. I have to take necrotic damage too. Yeah, that's what I've been asking since the last round. Why aren't they? Yeah, hold on. Let me do that real quick. And the same here. Wait, no, they're all wrong. Bro's pretending as if we can even see that in here by the way. No, for me. Let's just ignore that. I don't think killing is a good idea right now. So I will try to move away and you can do an opportunity attack on me. Lock! Opportunity attack. How do I do I'm just using the attacks? You just do your unarmed strike. No, you're, you're, uh, what is it, whatever weapon you're using. Like that attack. That was... Yeah. You have to roll twice. Yeah. Fucking LMS and I got that one. Yeah. That's hard to think. I heard. That's what the power gun is moving. How much damage is the question? Oh, okay. So that's 5 damage, because it's, you know. Where's the fucking deer, bro? Bring that guy in. Yeah, the deer is waiting for its turn. I'm pretty sure that is the lord and savior. Continue. Ready, Viktor. Okay. But Valtor please save us from this stupid... uh... anyways... Uh... he... uh... he walks out of the fucking area, cause what the fuck.

And... He... no not that... yeah that works. Okay, that's a hit. And... That's how much? 11 damage. I can choose to... Okay. What do you guys think? Should I do the 11 damage on the big fuck or like these small things which only have like small HP? Okay. Big. Okay. Small. Kill one of them. No, wouldn't that make that helpful? Both of them is low HP. Just kill them. They're both like around less than 5 HP. Both of them. That's why I'm asking. You just don't want to die. Yeah, it's good. He can die, he can die that's why. No I mean it's basic thing like if something kills it why not do it for that? That removes an entire opportunity for them. Then we lose 6-10. Yeah. That cuts like valla. Okay it's the cat's turn. The cat has advantage guys. It do have advantage. I'm still gonna do the same goddamn attack. Come on Nasha, don't let us know. 2nd, 2nd, he hit him with that point Just kidding, what if it's not a 20? She already got a 20 idea. She already got a 20 idea. Just dude, clock. Get out. Can you do a thing, please? I need to do it. Yeah you can do it. Three damage. Okay. That's something. Okay. It's your turn. Finally. Oh my god. It's not even loading. Why don't I? Wait shouldn't darkvision help in this situation? It does not. No it only helps next. No, darkvision doesn't work in this darkness, it works in that darkness. I should be able to see through it. Yeah, you can, you can. I'm still gonna do firebolt. If it can load for me. It was about to hit me by the way. That's how I... No... No... It was about to crit on me with the firebolt. I recommend moving out of the place. Oh yeah, I should do that. The thing is, I don't know where to move is the problem. I can move your character. Do you want to go bottom or up? Let's go bottom. Okay. Who is... Oh, hi Milo. Can you see stuff now? I didn't move. Btw did the dice roll or am i just I did not roll. Okay, I didn't roll. What do you want to do? I was doing the firebolt. Okay. Let's see. Firebolt, firebolt. Boom. Okay. Boom. What happened? I still can't see it. Yeah, it's a 6. And yeah, unfortunately you can roleplay that if you want. I miss. It fizzles down before it hits the target. Okay. We continue, Harith. It's the Hex turn. Yeah, she did. Okay. This... This lets me... Oh my god. Why did it go back? Yeah, there we go. Okay. I will... If I charge 20 feet to any creature, 20 or more, I do double damage on my antlers. Okay. I hit her, but how much? That's 13, plus it's gonna be more double damage, so... 20 exactly. Oh my god. Oh my god, guys. He's saving y'alls lives. We saved his and then he saves us. Is it one of the Faeblades dead? Yeah, it's dead. That one is dead, I'm gonna remove that. Okay, it's your turn. It's Liora Asheville. I recommend just using Firebolt. I can't even see the sag, Nugget. I can't see this tag, I can't see anything else. Can I use Sorcerer's Burst? What's the range of it? 120. You can. At will or do I hit dice? I'm not at risk right? Yeah, you're immune to the darkvision so you don't need to roll twice. At will? At will, yeah. D8. That's a great. Oh I can roll again by the way. If I roll a D8, it says that. Hold up. Hey, move. Move. You can roll another D8 and add the damage to it. Yeah, do that. Oh my god. You can literally kill this guy. If you do it again. Can I do it again? Yeah, 1d8. Click on the 1d8. Oh my god. Wait, does it let me do it again? No no no no no no no. It's a crit, no? Yeah, that kills her. So that's gone. Hell yeah. Kenzek, you were the source of all evil, now you will finally redeem yourself. Bro, bro, blinded everyone. Bro, blinded everyone in this kind of. Yeah. Okay, it's your turn, Alenia baby girl. Oh wait, if I use magic missile, I'll have to use it twice now, but there's no dice roll in front of it. No, no, no, you don't need to worry about magic missile, it always hits. Oh. Yeah, certainly. All the rolls are still updated on chat. Oh yeah, yeah, just a reads, it will be fine. Okay so we win guys! We win! Everyone is dead! Yeah it's over! Remove the fucking brand! Yeah I'm holding on. Anyways. Thank you! Oh let me remove that as a match. My bad guys. Thank you! And I never use that spell ever again. I want to show you. It's like I would like to have a word with you. I'm out guys, have fun. Bro and Neon. Yep, I'm about to investigate. You guys have fun with it. Someone just pick up my dead corpse. Thank you. 19. I got a 19. Bro, already started investigating. I gotta pull out my Arqqana skills. Yeah, Abdullah, right here? Guys, guys, I think you should care more about the face reveal. I wanna talk to the stans! Hello, my God. Hello, welcome back to Arqqana. Bro, we are girls, wait. You didn't even talk to the bitches. Yeah, I was more free now. Okay, hold on. Miraculous, he's dead. What? What if... Oh, okay, I get there. It's gonna give us our slots back to her. Yeah, I will give everything back. So, did you guys do her? Yep. Okay. Okay. So, both of these... Okay, let me see the right lines for them. Okay. So the dust settles and Valtor's sword drips with Fae Icor. He's breathing hard, face twisted in anger, but his eyes flicker with grief as he glances towards the stag. Fucking bastards. They took Astri. And the stag turns its head, voice resonant but gentle, like a bomb after the chaos. We finish this. For Astri, come. There are more on the far side. Sir Cassid and Glinda still hold the line. So here you have to move to the other side, which I will show you. So like this door, open this, leave. Come bitches. One second. Yeah, yeah bring all of your baby girls and do not open that other door yet Okay, so Who wants to be the one to open the door? Me, no. Me! Me! I keep forgetting I can't act like myself So Kebab, you go first. Like, yeah, you go and open the door and see what's happening there. Oh! I like that. Wait, wait. So all of you come and are looking. Okay. Oh, hi! Hello! Oh, hi! Hello! Okay, so... Who's the white hair? We're gonna get to that. Okay, so we have this hot guy, which you guys don't know the name of, and he... Like, he moves like a... Yeah, he moves like a... What do you call him? Those ballet dancers, you know? Like, his blade, like, elegantly, like, slices the knight, and it immediately fucking dies. Okay. You're supposed to be like a higher ranking than the people you have met currently. And... The Fae Dancer also fucking dies. Wait hold on. Let me kill her. And you have these two characters right here. I'm assuming you really wanna know who they are. Cause... Let me show them to you what they look like. The whole thing. When you see a guy or a girl? Girl. Girl. Okay. Girl. Okay. The girl. Glinda. Oh, hello. Oh, hello. Yes. Okay. And this is the guy... Damn, Kassadin. I love L9! Eww. That's Kassadin gone. Kassadin if he wasn't a Voidwalker. Okay. So Kassadin with like a deadpan voice. Like, think of him like a Wednesday, but like a male version, I guess. Hell yeah. Yeah, so he's like, That should be all of them. And then Valtor, like, steps forward. And he's like, Sir Kassadin. Astri. She. And, like, Kassadin's eyes, like, start to twitch like a flicker. Like... He feels the grief as he hears Valtor say those words. And then he says, with like a flat and firm look, he like, We'll mourn her later. Not now. Not while they're still out there. And he studies all of you very coolly. And these must be the prisoners? And Valtor says, Yes sir. proven themselves quite useful, honestly. The stag shimmers, its body folding into light before reshaping into... I'll just show it to you. Hold on. Oh my god, where is this guy? Let me bring him here. Hide the stag. Unhide. Oh. Hide? Yep, that's right there. Honestly, it's the best. Show us the zoomer, come on. I don't... I don't know if you... Yeah, anyways... He's already... Damn, Boris Borealis. Yeah, he is. Okay, so the dude turned into that hot... Anyways... says, I can vouch for them that they, you know, were useful and stuff. Uh, Kassadin replies, good, Valtor, take them into the lower city. Glinda and Boris, you're with me. We're gonna go to the crossing. So, this means, basically, you and Valtor are like That's it dude And then Bro just joins her away. She'll come back. I mean like literally like up to the third session, he'll meet again. And that is where Kassadin bids you farewell, leaves to the other side. Bro just got joined. With the mommy. No. And the daddy. Nooo, bring him back! And now you have a whole fucking castle, a fortress to explore. I already rolled like a whole... Yeah, I'm 18. 19. Let me add this, like so whenever you go around somewhere it shows you what you have already explored instead of being worried the whole time. Can I just pull out the love letters in front of Valtor to read them just to see his reaction? I'm curious, okay? You... can! Oh god, I'm gonna piss him off by accident. Where did Bro go? Am I supposed to be here? Girl, are you testing him? Bring him back. Bro's exploring. Bro's exploring like the wilderness. That doesn't... He shouldn't. Hello, hello, hello. My team. Yes. Yes, yes. Okay. So he wants to do his investigation first, guys. Oh my god. Oh my god. He's already there. Okay. If Valtor sees you trying to steal from the area He will This isn't stealing He will notice and he will be like So actually you have to put that shit back He's not looking right now So you can try to steal And what you find Are Like Some food supplies Like and stuff etc and like a bunch of silver fucking coins for some fucking reason that's like 300 silver coins for no reason yeah that's three gold oh that's something bad three more gold for me bro yeah should i just add three gold or what yeah yeah I'm at 51 boy. I think I should give him a British accent. I don't know. Oh wait, I haven't shown you his whole figure here. Yeah you haven't. Here you go. Oh my god he is exactly the best. Damn. Look at those nails bro! The clothes! Also I wanna do Arkhan on hair on these three bodies. Let's do what Hades is doing first. Yeah I was just gonna do like I'm sorting through my things and he spots the love letters that I just talked about. But okay you can try that and Let me see what check you have to do for that. I think that would be a... Let me see. Let me see your... That's what I was... Imagine it's like... Probably an acrobatics check. Oh my god. Wait, hold on. Not acrobatics. Not acrobatics. Let me see. Stay on your feet during a sticky... Performance. Performance check. Performance check. Oh, I have nothing with that. I'm not hitting the dude. I'm not doing that. Anyways, anyways, ignoring that. So he does notice that you're like the way you're over opening your backpack sorting and stuff out but like she doesn't quite understand what you're trying to accomplish. Fuck you. Okay, no reaction. Yeah. So he's not. Go to 100 roll. What roll? 100 roll. Why? Oh yeah, you can do it for him eh, but don't do it. I want you to talk to Boris! to talk to boys? Boris. Boris? What was his name? Well, unfortunately, unfortunately, it was too urgent, so he can't, like, you know.

Yeah, I get it. I get it. Yeah, I get it. I get it. Anyway, I'm gonna investigate. There is a lot you guys can find. Yeah, can I investigate here? Oh my god, never mind. Oh my god. can but think of it like your what which side are you investigating are you investigating the tables or investigating the the right side this thing right here this thing okay yeah do investigation oh you did it yeah and and you only find gold coins around the area. Does A8 do anything? Where did you do that? Top, right, left. Top, right, left. Where the fuck are you? Top left where the bodies are. Oh, there you are. Okay. You just find some fruits, like apples and stuff. Hell yeah! Food. 3 apples and 2 bananas. There is not just these 2 rooms, there is another room. Just putting it out there. Yeah, where you wanna do it? These 3 guys? Oh okay. uh... yeah ok ok you notice that every single thing about them just like is made of matter I haven't done it yet I mean it doesn't matter because you're gonna know this anyway I mean you can do it just for this moment just do it I mean I haven't told the whole thing yet it's gonna be the same anyway ok so uh... you notice that these creatures They are obviously made of evil magic. However, there is a small pattern on the knight's armor. It's as if it's linked to a demon's pact. Devil's pact, actually. Not demon. Devil's pact. So it's this insignia that tells you that this has been made Abdull laugh here, what do you do? Can I? Can I open this door? Oh, the door is open. Pause, pause, pause, pause, pause, pause. Pausing? I need to set up something. Pause, pause, pause. he said policy it it it glowing hints of magic on it. And it's a magic orb inside. Yeah this orb, it lets you cast darkness. No, no bro. Get it away from this guy. Hand it over. You can actually control where you put the Narciss, so like it's not really a big thing. Hand it over. So, yeah, you should not cast something. You should cast it like 70 feet away from. Can I do insight on the guard now? Okay, let me like... what she's gonna say. Let's see if I can actually do the thing. See if I can actually. Brom misses inside. Okay. My veil isn't good at communication, okay? Let him do it. What are you doing inside? Like to read her like how she is looking? Yes. Okay. You notice that she is extremely frightened. She as if she wants to find someone or something. It's like she is... she's in shock but she wants to move. Like move enough to find something. That's it. Mix girls up in her lap. Mix girls up in her lap. Yes. Slay. Lying. You can use Arkana on Earth. All of you are gathered around. That's good. Arkana, bro. You can use Arkana on Earth. Why? You notice that she has the prowess of a coming mage. You can tell that she wants to learn magic. Wait, like last time she was like casting whole person on the thing. Like that shows like she has talent for spell casting. Also, is the dude not gonna come in and check up on her as well? Yes. Why did you guys bring the orc? Why not? Okay. Whatever. Okay, so Valtor is like... Oh, that's like your raven has Let let her talk yes Yes, okay. Well scores like what happened here and There's this girl wait. I've seen her before and Like the girl begins to at Valtor and in like desperation that maybe he can help find who she is looking for and he he looks at the girl unable to recall her name and he he's like he walks up to her like where you guys are and it's like uh and he asks What was your name again, sweetheart? And she responds with Lily. Actually, I should actually show you guys what she looks like. Hold on. Rose Deppa. Lily. Oh my god. And Lily. Hold on, let me add her to my collection. That sounds so wrong, what the fuck. It's a fucking child guys. Oh it's a baby. It didn't show up. It's a baby. I'm showing it up, hold on. Oh it's a baby. It's... yeah. Okay. Now I... There we go. Ignore the bread on her hand. She doesn't know. The bread. Yeah. You guys saw it right? Yep. Yep. Yep. Yeah. And... Okay. She barely can say what she wants to say properly. But like, whispers come out of her mouth. Mom? Where's mom? And... And like... Valtor... members a very tragic incident that occurred in the other room while we were locked up. In the other room, there are dead bodies of other people that were in the room that I forgot to mention before, I should have mentioned. That room has dead bodies inside. It's like a reception hall. had dead bodies and Valtor remembers that one of those dead bodies was her mother and they look very much alike so he's able to tell but he doesn't know how exactly he should respond to her and there's like this silence as he refuses to say anything and guys can do whatever you want now what do you think you want to do right now I just sit and stare of course you can't even stare because you're fucking blindfolded yeah okay so what does everyone else want to do you can wait wait wait wait wait Conject's blindness should not be affectable. Conject's what? The blindness he cast, Conject, the blindness he casted earlier as well. It should not be affectable. Why? Because he's blind? Because I already cannot see like what... Oh yeah, he uses his other side effects. How is blindness gonna affect my blindness? Yeah, that's a good thing. We realize that for later situations. I have an advantage, already I'm the cat. Okay. Vale tries to talk to her. Okay, what do you say? I just ask if she's okay. If she's hurt. Okay. I want you to roll for me. Hold on. Okay does reply. She's like, no, I want, I want mommy. And you can feel the pain in her voice. You can feel the pain in her eyes as she clenches onto your cat, like desperate to find mommy. And that's, and you want to continue or not? Do we know what The dead body of the mom is in that room below you. Oh, below. But do we know if it's her mom? Like, that's what I'm asking. Valtor knows. I mean, if you go outside in a room, he can talk to you. Like, if one of you talks to Valtrow in secret, he will tell you. I think Ayesha will just stay with the girl for now. Yeah. If anyone wants to talk to Malzor, he'll be outside. Should we not save this for tomorrow? Because like, Klock... Yeah, Klock's missing story. Yeah, Klock's missing out. Yeah. He won't even know who this girl is. The three characters we just saw. The girl is like a side quest. It's not really... I guess it's fine. Yeah, we can wait for Klock. But even if he comes back, he won't know what the fuck happened. I mean, I guess nothing too much has happened. We can tell him that we found this girl and she was being attacked. Yeah, yeah. Yeah, all of that. Okay, so... Do you guys have any feedback? Was there anything that could be improved? Did you like the session? Should I pause the alarm? You don't have to but you can. I liked it, it was very fun. We need to work a bit on roll play but work in progress. the music part. It wasn't playing at the right time. Bro, when you were talking about my backstory and the music was playing, I literally got chills. I was like damn. This is serious. You gotta lock in. And then I still got distracted. Everyone started to close. Yeah. I feel like the descriptions could be smaller because people get like ADHD and they lose track of what the fuck's happened here. I try to focus on like one or two things and then I just space out. I don't know why this happens. It's fine. Yeah, it makes sense. I would do the same. I love the storytelling though. And the accents. Yeah, it's nice. I miss Albert already even though I don't trust him. Let's go guys, let's go. The next one is gonna be better. What is that? We will see. That will be based on everyone because everyone is gonna have a new schedule. Can we do it a bit earlier, like an hour early? Five? We'll see. Yeah, we'll see. Because like...
