Session Transcript

Okay, we are recording. Okay, so... Uh, does... Hold on. Adige, do you wanna recap the session? For everyone? Like, in a... Very quickly. Very quickly. Okay. So, what happened was that we woke up in prison. Uh... there was this dude called Albert that was somehow able to help us reenact how we got captured question mark then we had a guard lady Astri who and then Valtor runs in he he unlocks all of our cages he brands us to make sure we don't run off Astri dies rest in peace and we are in battle so we fight the first what was it? Fae... Faeblades and the Gloamwings, right? Then we, after exploring, we go upstairs where we meet a White Stag and another boss called Nightwing, I think, yes. And after defeating those, we find out the White Stag is... a shapeshifter? His name's Boris, right? Then we meet two more NPCs, which is... Kassadin and Glinda. We don't know anything about them. We talked for like two seconds and then they left. And we are supposed to go into the lower city with Valtor now. But right now we are in the castle and we were supposed to be exploring. Where we, in one of the rooms we met a girl named Lily. We helped her. She was casting a whole person on an enemy that we defeated for her. And she's traumatized so we were comforting her. And she wanted to look for her mom. And that's where we stopped. Okay, thank you. Okay, so one hour prior to all of this happening we have a situation in Worms Crossing in one of the brothels called Shiresk's Caress. We have a purple horned friend inside um one of the rooms inside the brothel purple ant nerd inside one of the rooms of the brothel okay and they appear to be uh uh they have uh have you i think you have chained them up yeah you have chained them up to the bed And this person is supposed to be a water deep noble. Like quote on quote, noble. And you are molesting them. What? Wait, who are we talking about? Yes. And they are turned on by her. They are turned on by her. Wait, what? I lost the plot, what's happening? This is what she wrote, okay? Oh my god! Durnehviir, Dharil! What am I supposed to judge here? Durnehviir, not me! Why am I- Durnehviir, Durnehviir! What the fk is Durnehviir? Okay, so... There's a reason for that! Hold on! Hold on! We'll wait for this lit! Okay! Yeah, we're getting edge-pressed! Okay! So, you're doing this so you can get information out of it. but apparently the person is enjoying it and to further worsen his situation you think of something that might help him answer you what do you do? turn over here yes oh my god shut up god what do you do? so i have tied him to the bed and Because he's not answering my questions, I think of something that I've tried before. Like I've met this noble before and I've played pranks on him with my brother. You're saying the prank, dog? With your brother? No, okay. Chill out. So what I do is that I summon a spectral hand and then I just point towards the noble and i say go my trusty hand tickle away oh my god she's molesting him via bluetooth it's over tickle away tickle away oh by the way i i i had to i had to unrace him so that i can tickle his sensitive parts oh yes yes of course that makes sense yes of course yes of course okay so He starts moaning very loudly and the people in the brothel are extremely concerned. And they... I mean like, it's in that brothel, it's not common to hear those specific noises that he was making. It was worse than a donkey's. It's worse than a donkey's. It's worse than a donkey's noise. So, everyone is concerned. and the door is locked and they call the flaming fist guards to see what's happening and... Dernevere hears about it. What do you do when you hear about this? Obviously, obviously when I hear the guards coming, I just panic and I do the first thing that comes to my mind. I splash water on him. And then steal his clothes. And then wear them myself. And then I try to make a run for it. Okay, so you... So you waltz out the window. And now you're running on the street. And you start hearing footsteps behind you. And something that doesn't really sound like a footstep. Something different. And you notice that you suddenly pushed upward. and you're on top of a stag. You're molested the stag? No, no. No, you're on top of the stag riding it as the stag kicks you up. Okay. Okay, so this is the same stag you guys have seen before. Wait, which form? In this tag form, obviously. And he asks you, what the fuck was you thinking running off like that? And what do you say? How does it feel writing? What else do you want me to do? What else do you want me to do is stay there and then let them catch me? I would request everyone to shut the fuck up. Yes, continue. Yes. Yeah. I said what I said. Okay. So, um, What was the point? You're gonna go to prison anyway and now it's worse because you ran off from us. You could have just, you know, stuck it... Yeah? At least I tried. At least I tried. I mean, I'm no gooder. Well, that's gonna lead you to prison and now you're coming with me. And as he like takes you on his stag form into the

Wormsrock fortress... you step into the reception area that takes you to the prison downstairs. And while you're in the area, suddenly something comes crashing down inside the fortress. And it hits you. It hits you. And you get launched off on the other side of the reception. And you get knocked out. So after that, an hour goes by... And we're in our current situation and like the place is like filled with many people. Like at the time you were going to the reception, it had many people in there. And as soon as that thing crashed down on you, you were thrown off, like there were like bodies scattered around as like with you. There were like blood everywhere and the people that were there had died. So it was just a stag there. And it had to defend, uh, I mean, there was nothing to defend in that room specifically, but it had to fight the thing that came in. And, and the events of last session occurred, and now we're here, and your body is inside the reception, and we will put you here. Yes. There you are. You see yourself? Could you change the map? Yeah, yeah I do. Change the map? No, I just put blood there, that's it. Okay. So, you are in one of those rooms, what do you do? Me? Yeah, what do you do? Like you just woke up, you literally just woke up. make sure that my antler emblem is still with me because I can't risk losing it. Yeah. And then I look around and try to see if there's anything valuable in the room. Why is that the first thing? Really? Ah, classic. Okay, okay. Okay. I do perception. Okay, so I want you to do a perception check. Okay. Fuck. So basically, you notice that there's nothing left and this room has already been looted completely. Oh my god. And there's nothing left for you to find here. Except bodies, of course. I'm no necrophile. Okay. Okay. I just spilled my coffee, I choked on my coffee in between and had to leave. Because of all the thing that was happening. Okay, what do you do now since the room is completely useless to you? I try to get out, of course. Okay. Do you say anything? Do you look for people? Anything? You can hear anything outside the room before stepping out. Okay, so you hear like whispers coming from the other room? Like, there's whispers coming... like, you see the wall in front of you? On like, uh... with the... okay. I'm not gonna be... okay. On the wall, like in front of you, right? In front of you, I'll just draw it. Uh... Yeah, this wall. You hear whispers. of people talking and you're curious what do you do? I go and greet them okay I want you to go towards them then okay is the door locked or something or can I? it's from I go from the other side other side other side yeah there you go this side? yeah so you are inside right? oh I'm in the room Yes, okay, you are in the room. Okay, so you see these people and all of them are also surprised. Oh my god, initiate combat. Okay, fuck off. Fuck off. No. Okay. No, that's your job. You have to do something. Okay, okay, okay. I just cautiously step forward and... Oh my god, I'm having performance anxiety. Oh no. Okay. How about you guys start and she'll talk. Yeah, you guys start, she'll talk. Bro, it's lagging. Okay. Can I first exist? Can you hide my... You are here, what do you mean? I don't see myself here. You're in the room with them. Technical issues. Yeah, I don't see myself. I just accepted that. Okay. It's very weird. Yeah. Yeah, let's just talk to her. I mean them. Another one. Another one. Would it be easier if Kubeb was here. Okay. Just continue. Just continue. We are going to loot a dead body right in front of us. Actually that's a good way of saying. Guys there's someone Is she looting the dead body? Is that an enemy? I'm trying to see if there's anything valuable in the dead body. There wasn't. Okay. Is that what counts as a sword? No. Yeah. Talk to each other. I mean she's looting the dead body. I didn't know I had company. Who are you? Are you friendly? I don't know it depends if you guys are friendly I'm friendly. Depends. Do you see the bodies over there? Are those bugs like? What bodies? The person that behind you. Oh the person I just tried to loot? Yeah I do. What about it? Why do Chelsea do you know them? Are you with them? No I've never seen this guy. I mean if I had then I would I would not forget that face. Like, come on, look at that face. It's bludgeoned. What face? That thing, never mind. This is a suspicious question. So what are you guys doing here? I tried to direct, I tried to reflect. Can I try to restrain her? I don't think that's a good idea. Actually, I mean, if she- I am a they-them. Not a female. Okay, if they-them were- That is not what he should be asking. I am a they-them. Okay. Were you also supposed to be a prisoner? Yeah, I mean, the last thing I remember is that I was- they were dragging me down to prison, like a stag-looking guy. Oh, so they met Boris. So, like, Valtor starts to speak and he's like, you guys don't have to worry. I remember this person coming in with Boris an hour ago. But I thought she was dead. Oh. Yeah. We're just standing suspiciously. I thought they were dead. I'm sorry. Sorry. Sorry. Yeah, I mean... Well, it is alive. Yeah, I did not die. I survived. So... I guess it looks like we are in the same boat. So how about I join you guys? Sure. Yeah, I would heavily recommend we have more company for what's to come. Viltro says, you know. I am a smart guy. Okay, sure. Okay, so what's your name? Leora steps up with a raven. My name is... I don't know where, but you can call me where. Where? I know it's hard to pronounce. I'm Leora Asheville and this is my pet, Niblet. Oh my god, such a cute pet. I try to touch Niblet. Do I do any more? Niblet perches on your shoulder and yeah he's sitting there I think Niblet trusts you so I guess you're not a bad person after all I'll trust you too then Thank you Thank you Niblet and Deora What about you guys? How about you guys introduce yourself too? I don't fully trust you yet. You're too new here. Oh yeah, how did we all... We just had so many fights, yet we just walked through like nothing happened. Oh, by the way, by the way, by the way, you're at 1 HP. You can change that. I'll change that for you, you guys can keep talking. Oh, one second, let me just rearrange that. Oh, you look like shit. Okay, you know what, you're fine. Yeah, yeah. I'm Kiernan. I am the healer of this group. Apparently. Come child, be healed. And I like tap it on her shoulders. Them on their shoulders. Heal it. Okay. So, her body is healed I assume? Yes. That's what you did? Okay. Yes. There we go. By the power vested in me, by GQ, be healed. GQ. I appreciate it. I appreciate it. Hey, look at you. Looking more healthy, yeah? Yeah, thanks. You look more alive. Why did this sound like a backhanded compliment? Anyways. Anyways, let's get moving. Yeah, the corpses are starting to rot. Oh my god. Oh my god, my homie, Eredia. Oh, you mean the unconscious one over there? Yeah, she sort of just flopped. Can you carry my kid? Unfortunately, Alenia has fallen ill and she will be resting on the bed she's on currently. Oh no. Can we just lift the bed and take it with us? Unfortunately, you can't. You're not much for creativity, are you? And here I thought I was flirting with my friend, my old friend. Okay, there's one person left for introductions. Oh, I did not even notice that guy. That's all you know. He's away. As you say that, Nyx slowly walks towards Dernavir and starts licking their foot. Oh, hmm. Dove cut, that's filthy. Good kitty. Good kitty! Good job kitty! I healed her, I didn't give her a kiss. Yeah, I burnt Pixie. Can I hold her Pixie? No. Name's Nick. Yeah, then Nick suddenly goes back to Vail. Oh, oh. I guess. In sass. In full sass mode. I guess she didn't like it. But at least Niblet is... Never mind. He's a bird. He doesn't stay at a place too long. It's fine. Yeah. If Nick seems to trust them, so I suppose it's fine. So, Valtrow is like, uh, we should hurry. Introductions are over. We can leave now. It's better if we go to the city. What about Blizzy? Uh, she can come along. This place is unsafe. And are you gonna leave the child alone here? I mean, Alenia is also here. Alenia is in her condition. She cannot protect Lily. I think that both of them. Okay. Can you stop being weird and let's just go already and keep Lily with us and we can protect her if anything happens. I have no objections. I'll stay close to her. Lily starts hugging Leora. Like, you know. But she also keeps saying, but I want to see mommy first. So, there's that. She was like stuttering before. Now she is actually gonna speak a word. like proper sentence. So she'll be like, I remember she was in the other room and then I ran off here. She told me to hide here. Okay. Sounds ominous. I wonder what happened to her mother. Okay. I want to go check in the eyes. Okay, you can go in the other room. Which is the other one? I'm confused. There's many rooms here. This one. I guess it's this one. Yeah. Okay, god damn. So you want to check? You do an investigation rule. Since we have less tries? Yeah, yeah, yeah. You're doing it in the whole room. Should I try arcana on the right side? Let go, or...? Oh my god. Uh... Wait... Hold on. I do not recommend doing arcana currently. You won't find anything. Is this an item? Uh... Okay, you did that. You see the only woman on the ground and you can check that she has a necklace wrapped around her. And what do you do? Oh no. I carefully take the necklace from her and maybe cover her with like a blank sheet. So Lady doesn't find out. Okay. Okay, now what do you do? I turn to Lily and tell her that I couldn't find her mother but I found this instead. And hand her the necklace. Where am I? We're gonna lie. I see. She's a child. Okay. Okay, okay. Okay. So, carefully hand her the necklace. And he says that I wasn't able to find your mother but I found this necklace. Is it of any use for you she like starts looking at the necklace and notices the blood around it and she begins to cry like very hard in front of you as she like kneels down on the floor you can and she like holds the necklace in her hand like other tears like falling down And she starts like... You know how kids do in race, they start smashing the ground? Like the fists are like smashing the ground. And she starts saying, you lied. You lied. Where's mommy? She's not there. Fine. Where's mommy? We will find your mommy. We will find your mommy. Don't worry about it. No, she is able to recognize that this is her mom's blood because of an arcana check, so she did. We only found the necklace, we didn't find the body, so there is still hope. The necklace has the blood on it. Yeah, so maybe she got injured and ran off. The body is in the other room, we already investigated. Yeah, no, she doesn't know that. You weren't hearing? Oh no! I was... No, I didn't hear that it was her body. Yeah, it was her mom's necklace. She was like... She said that her mom was in the other room and the only woman in that room was her mom, which I each found. Yeah, which Vale found. Can I also do it? I don't love fucking 10. Is that anything? All of you can persuade us if you want to. I'm not persuading, I already messed up. Just say what you're gonna persuade her with. Leora can start. Like, I have to tell her, like, yeah, how are you persuading her? What are you saying? So, first of all, like, Leora, she whispers to Wail. Should we tell her? No, she's a child. Is it okay to tell her? As a kid I don't think it's a good idea. But she knows now and sooner or later she'll find out she might not even trust her to go with us. Suppose we should tell her then. We don't want her getting into trouble. Okay. So Leora steps forward. She pours Lily's hands and she says, Lily, your mother isn't here anymore. I know that hurts more than the words can hold. But her love hasn't left you. It still lives inside you. You have to live for her. She died. She died protecting you. And keeping that necklace close to you, you have to live for her. and you have to avenge whoever killed her someday and I would recommend to stay with us it would be the best option we'll be safe and eventually find the killer of your mother okay so this bond you're making with Lily is something you can very much relate to as you have also lost your mother at this age so she begins to feel like she can find comfort in your words and she begins to wear her mom's necklace around her neck and like she's still crying and looking towards other than you for comfort as well. I need to be right back. Okay. Wait, will I have to do a persuasion check? Or can I just... Yeah, just shh. You don't have to do a persuasion anymore. It's fine. Okay. So, Will's gonna lean down and he's gonna use like a small handkerchief to gently wipe away her tears before saying that I'm sorry about what happened to your mom and we will look after you in her state and that you need and that will protect you to make sure nothing happens to you and you can protect her necklace and her love with you. Okay. She is no longer crying and she has a like some form of content that she is safe around you. Yes. Nyx is just gonna push herself on her shoulder. Yeah. Okay. The other two. Were you gonna say something? I just... I just... I just watch. Okay. I don't wanna... I don't wanna play. Okay, Kieran, do you wanna say anything? I just rested my hand on top of her head and I just said, your mom, she's passed away and she's gone to a better place. But I'm sure she can still see you. So let's not let her see your tears and let's smile. Because we will... see better days and although this is a bad day, we should not let this take control over us. That's it, right? Yeah, that's kind of it. Okay, so she is like trying to form a smile, which she is unable to, but it's obvious that she is trying and will follow you wherever you go. Can I hug her for now? Yes, you can. Can Canjag leave, Badu? He said there are many. He said just be redweb. Hold on, I have to make a note. I'll fill up my water. I'm sorry when you NPC with us. I'm back. No. Should I pause the recording then? I'll disturb you. You can. Disturb you said be- Their body is drooping everywhere when you poke it. What did I come back to? Do an investigation, Jum. Why? It's the same. Just do a perception then. Do a perception. My investigation is minus one blood. They're just setting me up for failure. I tried to rummage through. the spawner, whatever this is. Um... Good? Yeah? You did the perception check? Yeah, I did. Okay, okay, okay. Uh... You find a note... Uh... Like, it's like, slightly... Uh, scrambled... It's like the person who wrote it wasn't actually going to do anything with it in the end. It's like crumpled, I mean, not scrambled, crumpled. So you open the note and it reads, I'm sorry it had to be this way, but I had no choice. I'm afraid I have made my decision. And it is signed by Astri. What? Astri is the guard. Oh yeah, you guys talk to each other. Yeah, yeah, character is talking. I am confused and I just say out loud, who is this Astri person? Shut up. And Valtor suddenly looks behind as you say her name. And he comes to you and starts reading what she wrote on the note. And he's like looking at it with tears in his eyes. And he's like, we were supposed to get married. You're kidding me. No. Yeah, they were supposed to be married. I mean, and yeah, he says that and like the tears are like falling on the page. And I don't know what this note is for, but I think this is about the marriage. And that's all he says after that. And you are unable to talk to him more about it. I'm not saying anything. So we can't talk to him anymore? You can talk to him, just not about Astri. The whole time I'm confused as to what happened because I don't know. I don't know what happened to Astri. But like... I connect the dots. Yeah. Aww. Even with minus one intelligence, you can do that. Yeah, with minus one... Be a little... But why did I have to find that note? Why? Why? Why Lady Luck? You... You are the person who looks around everywhere like a gloat goblin. I was looking for valuables not to break somebody's heart into pieces Bro just broke I hope someone has to take a note of that literally I was only half listening I was only half listening but I have it and recording Oh my god I'll just show you You're kidding me man I currently have no idea what the note actually means. I know you could try piecing it together but you won't have any idea. Yeah, maybe, maybe like they were supposed to get married but like something happened and she was like... Okay wait, uh, disturb me, I'll fill you in on something. In our previous playthrough we did find two love letters that were addressed to Astri but from a secret admirer. So... So that's Valtor? We don't know that. if they were supposed to get married and she's sending this note either shh I don't know there's a lot of assumptions that could happen but keep that in mind that was a thing we did find okay so maybe I'm reaching I guess what I'm thinking was it an arranged marriage? I don't know I don't want to talk to Valtor about this poor dude's in drama but assumptions assumptions Yes, that was the case Okay You everyone is here except conduct. Yeah, okay. You guys you guys finish Yeah Yeah, go ahead Behind on everything that has happened since your stack friend didn't fill me in He just dragged me into the reception and I don't know, I just went unconscious, but like... Why... Why are we... Where are you taking us? What is happening? Okay, so he starts wiping off the tears and tries to get firm so he can have a more serious tone. And he tells you... Sorry, I was a bit too distracted. We are fighting against strange enemies that came out of nowhere and are striking Baldur's Gate down. And they came in and they've killed a lot of people in the fortress that we're in. And we fought them off and the fortress is clear. And my... And... what is it? What do you call them? Yeah, my higher up told me that we have to go to the lower city and fight off the remaining enemies. Oh, so, hold on. Hold on. So you want like... How many are we? Like five of us to just go there and fight the whole army? It's not just five of us. My friends are also there, the other flaming fists. But why us? Like, we're just... I don't know, we're just normal people. In the fortress, it was just me and the stag and Kassadin and Glinda, who are my higher-ups. They could not defeat all the enemies without the help of more people. We were already struggling and Boris was about to die until I rescued of your friends here so. Oh, um, can you tell us what these enemies even want? What are they? What's happening? I am just as clueless as you guys are. Great. But if we, if we do, man, if we do agree to help you with whatever is going on, what's I wish I could have been smarter with my decisions. Yeah. I don't know about molesting people. You don't know. That was not molesting. If you knew, we had beef going on, okay? I just had to resolve it one way to another and that was the only thing I thought of and he deserved it. Okay, so if I had beef going on with you and strapped you to a bed and started doing things to you, you would be fine with that? You know, constructing a magical hand that starts... Anyways. Let's just ignore that conversation. That is not happening. I know you're gonna say yes. Anyways. Anyways. Anyways, let's move on to the lower city, guys. Let's move on to the lower city. Fuck this shit. Okay, let's go. I'm sorry, I lost the plot. What character were you speaking as? I wasn't trying to speak as Valtor. I was just making a statement. Until I realized. Didn't Valtor have an accent? Oh, that map is huge. It's all I've learned. Also, is there the music? Yeah, yeah. Thank you for reminding me. Hold on. Do not move yet. Otherwise I will delete your character. I have to zoom in. A lot. Oh my god was that a threat. Yes it was I will delete your character. I will delete your existence. We yeet it from the camping camp. My cat is missing. Of course. So is Niblet. Niblet and Nix are missing. No. Okay. They're doing their own thing. Let the f- Let the- Oh, that's nice. What the f- You can hear me? Yes. Oh, there you go. Okay, so I will try to describe what's happening. Okay, so you guys have left the fortress and you see around you is like the sun has set and you can see the stars and... and as you look at the ground you see there's blood everywhere and there's bodies scattered around as if like there's been a brutal mass murder around the area and you hear a flute playing in the background and this flute is playing like from a distance behind that building in front of you. Okay. Okay, so... What do you want to do now? Why are you doing the bloodpath? Yeah. Okay. I'm just looking around for anyone I can heal. Don't mind me. I am... Oh yes. I am celebrities. I tried to look for shiny things. That looks like a lot of blood, guys. It's out of here. Can I investigate? Shit, I stepped on a pool of blood, shit. You... I just got issues. If you're gonna investigate, I want... Everyone to be there. In that area. Everyone come here, there's a giant pool of blood. There's pool of blood everywhere, so... Doesn't really help. No, it's extra large. Okay, yeah. So... Do an investigation roll, everyone. Oh, everyone. And then you three. Investigation. That's a minus one, I'm so crooked. Ah, she's not bad. Anyway. I'm surprised Arid is still lagging. It's just a slow burst, it's still better than whatever was happening last time. Okay. So, all of you noticed that around this area there's like, there's like three people dead and they have They do have things glowing on them and... And there are... What is it? There are like... There's a body of one of the Gloomwings also dead here. And it looks like they died during the fight and they were probably... They had... They lost too much blood basically and died. I feel like someone heard specifically one word from what I said in that. No, no, I thought glow wings didn't bleed. Or did you mean the people were bleeding? No, no, no, I didn't say glow wings were bleeding. Three people were bleeding and there was a glow wing. What about the glowing shirt on their body? Was there like anything specific? That just means that they have stuff on them. I load them. No, wait! Too late. How do you even get in there? I can't get in. I can't. Are we gonna ignore that guy in the room? The Chloe guy? What? He's dead anyways. The Gloom Wing. There was the enemy. And the area you're in. Oh he dead. I don't see him. But he dead. Yeah I didn't put him there but like I'm saying he's dead. So we looted him. He doesn't have anything on him. Yeah don't worry. Darn. You've seen one of them before. Just Dird. Where is that float sound coming from? You wanna do a perception check? Or do we even do a perception check? I still wanna loot the bodies, but okay. You find that there's just a few pieces of gold and a necklace. Yoinks and necklace. The gold is like three gold and a necklace. Shiny, yikes! Okay. Okay. We'll do a perception. Okay. 18 should be decent. Oh god. What is happening with your roll? So you are... Okay, so... Okay, so... Kiran notices that the noise is coming from that Wait, let me just draw it for you. Oh, where is it? Okay, brush. Like, it's coming from this area. Like, where the... Yeah. I have to zoom out to see hold of... I find it suspicious, guys. Maybe you should go there. There might be someone still alive. Good or bad. Is everyone here with us in Durnehviir? Oh, who the? Okay, wait, hold on. They look very pretty. One second. Okay. Well, I don't think they are friendly. Okay. So, Valtrow, as he comes behind you, he notices one specific person. and he looks at them and says and then he screams their name Azuriel, is that you? and this person looks behind and they have this strong British accent okay, let's hear it let's hear it okay oh my god, what the fuck Let me show you him first, let me show you what he looks like. Yes, please. Hold on. I wish to hear the British. You already did last session. I wish to re-hear the British. Oh my god! Oh my god! Okay. Stop! Stop! Does he have nip rings? What are those? Yes. Okay. Okay. instead of being responsible for a battle oh my god okay oh okay so he's like like looking at you guys smiling and he he says uh it seems you've brought company and he looks at you and uh he and he turns away immediately and says, would you care to help or not? So, oh my god, didn't do the accent. Forget it. Okay, so, he looks at the enemies and you have to initiate combat. Okay. Bring Nyx in first of all. I need my cat here. Oh yeah. Just do your initiative first. I'll just do that. Why is Leora still here? Just ignore her. Just ignore her. Leora's sleepwalking. My boy. I cannot access his sheet. Hold on. I forgot to do the initiative. For once give me a high roll. I'll take it. I am. Oh my god that's so ass. Oh my god that's double ass. her initiative, god damn. Okay. So, he is fighting these two enemies, which I'll show you. Okay, there I go. You see them? Ooh! Pretty. Yep. It reminds me of the twins. Yeah, the acrobat. Why did Nyx get the first? What? Nyx got the first. Yeah, of course Nyx is going first. Yeah, go Nyx, you can do it. You already made the internet. I love her. Okay. Okay. Do I have to tank? I don't think I have to move her on one second. Cause she's gonna have to move forward. So, Nexus is gonna move forward. That's 30 feet. That's 40 feet. And I want to check if this is 5 feet. It's 5 feet, okay. We're rolling an attack. Shadowclaw. Okay. Okay, 17. What the fuck is that? What is happening with next bro? She's a bit too angry and she's like okay. That's such a shit. Okay. Okay, so she does 2 damage. Like you had me there, I thought she did 17 damage for a second. No, no, no, no. You see the HP I assume? Yeah we can see the HP. Okay, good to know. We can enter. Here and in. Okay. I will walk up here. If I can. Is it lagging for you guys? Not lagging, it's just a little slow. It's just jank. I think it's because of the big map. You're in the city, that's all. I'm having four attempts to get my character there. I don't know why, like, even on my shitty laptop, it's fine. I don't know. I think it's because you're a host, really. I don't. It's not a server. It's like on a different network. It's not my network. Wait, can I just use this as a character? What? Let's pull out a big gun straight away. I'm going to use Guiding Bolt. If it hurts, then I'm going to, like, you know, do the thing. That's if it hurts. If it hurts. If it hurts, then I can do my entire... Okay. It does not hurt. Yeah, I'm assuming that. Okay, I will instead use my bonus action. Okay. Speed... I look at the thing, I'm confused as to where the size are, and then I like, conjured a magic bat and smacked it across her face. Okay! That does 6 damage! Now you can get an idea of what the HP's are. So as you like, do it, As you do that, their neck moves in a very owl-like way and it rotates and comes back. And yeah, it's very creepy. You're not normal. Alright, my turn. Durni! Yes. Dunder, dunder. Dunder, dunder. I want you to pay attention Dunder. I'm sorry. There's a lot going on in my house. Okay. Okay, I'll move like 20 feet here. Okay, here. I'm sorry if I'm blocking your view. I'm sorry very much. That's fine. Yes. So, I... I forgot Valtor was here. Oh my god. Valtor is all from Valtor. He's still grieving. Okay. At least he died before she left him. Oh wait. At least for him that's not that bad. You don't know the actual story. Wait. Hold on. Wait what happened? Wait what happened? It's Mix's turn again. No you don't know. That's like the mystery here. No, no, no, no. Why did you switch back to Nyx? Why's it back to me? I did not. That's because... No, it's her turn. Okay, Dundra, you did 14, that did not hit, unfortunately. But you... Yeah. Okay. You can do a bonus action. Wait, you don't have a bonus action? I don't have a bonus action. Yeah, you know. Just say something offensive. I run like the bus and it bounces off. Not on me! I like turn around and look at you and get friendly fire. I literally like race and I was like what? What do you mean? Me and the enemy, we have gained a mutual understanding. I love how the enemy has more hair than Kiernan. I think she's cast confusion on everyone. Me and the bug have gained a mutual bond. Okay... So... Okay... The green one, she has this cone that I'll put here. And she attacks Kiernan and... Not the character. Kiernan and Azuriel. And... Both of you have to do a constitution saving throw. saving throw just in case you guys know one there. One of them is you by the way. Oh yeah, I didn't save myself. I think I fell back on my ass. You're not falling, you're gonna take poison damage. Okay, uh, Azuriel survives. And you will take, let's see, how much damage? Uh, okay. No, Azuriel does take damage also. Uh, Okay, so you will take 15 damage and Azuriel will take... 7 damage. It's half but I don't wanna do 7.5 for this move. Okay. When you get diodas, you will heal us. I do myself, thank you very much. Okay. that's my turn. Valtor. Valtor. Okay. No, not Valtor with 22 HP. Okay, he does Eldritch Blast. Oh my god. Okay. Anyways, let me see if he has a bonus action. Okay, and he has... He can cast Hex as a bonus action. Okay. it's only one per day. Wait, Durnehviir, can you remind me exactly what Hex did? If you know. Hex, I mean, Hex, you can do, like, a debuff on the enemies. Like, there are different types of Hex. Like, charisma, spell, wisdom. And if you, like, cast it on the enemy, they will, like, if they're, for example, they're, You're casting Charisma Hex on them, then they'll take like double damage. I think that's what it is. Okay, okay. So I will cast Hex on the green one and they will have disadvantage on their ability check. All of them. Because that's what this one is. Beltor has a OP one. Okay. That's my turn. Vale! 10 speed Vale. I hate so much. Bro's trying to make fun of my speed. Okay. Also, whenever you hit the green one, they will take 1d6 damage extra. They got damage, yeah. Yeah. Cool. I can discard something, Shantou. I can throw something from my crates here. Let me delete this. Anyway. Why is Hex's... Oh, nevermind. Uh, wait, how far is the one behind? I want to check one second from me. They are fifty... Okay, I can hit the other one. The red one. I wanna do... A firebolt. I should have just clicked the hit dice first, goddammit. I think that hurts. What is it? Nevermind, it's loaded. That does hit. Oh! I have 8 plus, really? Yes, it's based on your color. It's based on your intelligence. It is 9 damage. Damn. Yes. Did you like change my spells? Like the subclass spells? Because thunder is... Yes, I did. Yes, I did. I forgot to mention how anyways. I gave her more spells, damaging spells because she had way too much supportive spells. From where I'm standing... No supportive as in... She basically can't do any damage at all. She has more utility spells than me. Okay so I wanna do the... I already did firebot. Okay so from where I'm standing, sparks of fire starts boiling up in my hand and he just tosses it to the one that's the furthest away and just explodes in her face. Hell yeah. Yup. And she starts like screeching as like the fire is touching her and she's like moving her hands around trying to remove the fire. Ha! Okay. And it's Azoriel's turn. Wait, no, it was the thing that's burning. Yeah, I forgot she clicked next. It's the bonfire's turn. Okay. Let me do this. Yeah, that obviously hurts. Okay, so from that range, it shoots out a tentacle from the ground towards... What is it? How much range is it? 10 feet? Okay, so it goes towards Azuriel and he takes 9 damage. That would be... Guys, he's a 12 HP. No, 14 HP. No! And she does another attack. Uh, me? And it does not hit Kiernan. Okay, we're supposed to hit Kiernan. So I get hit by 9, right? You don't get hit. No, no, the other person was Azuriel. It was Azuriel, not you. Azuriel, no. Okay, so now it's Azuriel's turn. Keep him alive, guys. Okay. Uh... his uriel's turn finally poor boy okay so... okay... I'm not seeing his HP, what is his HP? his HP is 30 and he's 14 right? uh... okay so he... he whispers into both of them both of the enemies And they... And like, they have to take a wisdom saving throw. Okay. Let me see. Oh my god. Okay. Okay, that... They obviously failed that. Damn. Okay. And his words start to pierce them with doubt towards each... Like, towards themselves. And... They start hitting themselves and take... Let's see... 10 damage each. Okay, so that would be 34. And... Okay, there you go. And this is your character, of course. Oh my god. I feel like Nyx has always had 20 speed. Aha! So... Nyx is going to move to the other one. Why is there a bow? Oh, you have the thunder wave. What is this? I was just trying to check the radius. Ignore that, guys. Ignore that.

Yeah, luckily she is not close enough for an opportunity attack. Yeah, I went the other way around anyway, so it's fine. So, I'll do a... another Shadow Claw. Okay, down. Next meet's to chill out. Actual MVP. I'll do the hit roll. It's probably gonna be two damage. Let's go Nyx, let's go. At least she's hurting. Black shadow claw swipe across her face. Ow! I'm considering my options here, one second. How low is my guy behind? He's 14 HP. What's his total HP? 30. Oh, that was a lot of damage, brother. Okay, fine. One second. We gotta see which spell is good for healing. You had Cure Wounds. Wait a minute. Did you? I do have Cure Wounds, yeah. Yeah, I do, I do. Yeah, yeah. It works in a melee range and you can use that. I had Cure Wounds. Goddamn. Heal for 14. 28 HP now. Nice. Now I'm also gonna use... Wait, does this count as a bonus action? Like, my weapon has a active to it, right? I can like pull it up to get an extra shield. Let me see your shield. Shield. Yeah, let me see. Hold on. Let's load in. Your weapon does not count as a... I'll do that as a bonus action. How do I manually cast Shield of Faith and unremove it? No, click cast on Shield of Faith. And then just remove the starter picks? Uhhhh... Yes. I can...should give you... ...some AC. It gave me nothing. Uhhh...wait, lemme see, lemme read that again. Uhhh... Oh, oh... Let me cast it for you. Okay, let's just assume you have 18 then. Because we can't do anything. Imagination. Let's put my shield up. Yep. Durni, wake up. Yeah, yeah. Okay. And it's blasting. Oh my god. Okay, that hits. Luckily. Oh, that hit? Yeah. Okay. So... Hit one. Now do your stuff. and then i pulled my head towards the green one and i just blasted towards it and it and they fall behind uh 10 feet because of your repelling repelling blast yes that's it okay okay It's their turn. Let's see. Okay. Okay, they walk towards Kiernan. Oh, he's back. So... And that does not hit. And they can go another one. Kiernan does not concern to this. And that does not hit either. So, yeah. Anyways. Kiernan keeps... Kiernan said no. He has 18 AC because of his shield of 5th. I mean, without that I survived those two words. It's now a Valtor! Valtor, okay, there you go. Please hit Valtor. Okay, okay, he does an Eldritch Vest again because he doesn't have any singles. Goddamn, what trick quality? Oh my god, oh my god, poor boy. One D to a tree, please. Anyways, let's go to Vale, guys. Anyways. Anyways. It's my turn again. Vale. Good job. I am right here. Are you though? Yes. You're here with us physically, but what about spiritually? Yeah, I don't think so. Okay, bro. I have to get that cut. i mean i'm gonna do firebolt again obviously kaboom i mean does it actually hit or do you like torch and nail by building did it click or not? it clicked it's rolling if it misses just throw it or it's a building oh my god if it's a gnat your cat gets hit my cat does not get hit and it is a gnat one i feel like yeah Yeah it is. Actually you know it explodes in your own hand. Yeah it just explodes in my own face. Unfortunate. That's my first naga. A rage you will take 2 damage. That's fine. Because I say so. I turn around to see what the commotion is and I just see like black smoke. His hair like pushed back spiked up. Yeah. Yeah. Don't mind me, shake it off, move on. At least we're sort of badass, that's nice. It is now the red one. Okay. She's gonna smack you, that guy dude, why didn't he move? Unfortunately, that's what's gonna happen. Why can't you do it? Wait, it can't, it should not, wait, it still has 10 range. It still has, it still has 10 range. Wait, let me see how much that is. That's it. That does not go towards you. So, and anyways. The card got punted. That's nice. You're a irresponsible owner. You're bringing this tiny child into the door. Does it even live? Oh my god. And another one. Wait, wait, no. Oh, immunity? Yeah. That is not- Oh yeah, I forgot about that. Bro, my cat survived that! Hold on. Bro really said, nope. Nuh-uh. I was literally reading. I was like, there's no way. I mean, the second one doesn't hit. Oh, it's from non-magical attack, but this is a non-magical attack. No, it's a magical attack. Oh, that is non-magical. It's only from like swords and stuff. That was a magical attack. Is the cat dead? And the cat... errrr... I mean it obviously will die. You had a good run next. Buh-bye! Come back to my grimoire. It's not dead, it just coops back into my grimoire. Does it have to roll? Does it have to roll like... No no no. It does not. It doesn't die, die. It just goes into grimoire and she's gonna come back when we're out of combat. Alright. Okay. He's going to be a mess. Luckman, go! Go, sadist. Sadist? He's not a sadist. He starts playing his flute like it's a very charming melody and it goes towards the red one and they have to take a wisdom saving throw or else they'll be charmed. Let's see here. Okay, they failed that and they are charmed for one minute and... You guys have an advantage towards the red one. Alright. Did she take necrotic damage? Like the 1d6? The 4? I did not attack her. Oh yeah, before, yes. Before she should. I'll do that. I forgot about the 1d6. Wait, 1d6 was on the green one. So that should... Okay, that's nice to have that turn, anyways. Okay. Okay, continue. Take two on guiding port. Oh my god. Is that it? Um no. But if you're hitting the red one, you have an advantage so you can reroll the dice. Oh yeah you can hit that. Can I do it? Thank you. Yeah it's alright.

Okay. Okay. Okay what? Oh I didn't do that on purpose. This don't happen, sorry. There's a lot happening. So, they will only... They will only take 14 damage, not 20. Fuck is that. They still got hit though? There. Oh wait, they didn't, nevermind. Nevermind, I assumed... Yeah, I was gonna stay. Yeah, they didn't. Ignore that. I was gonna say, that's really bad for him if he can get hit by that. Alright, I tried to summon magic, but nothing happened, so instead... I just do this. I do spiritual weapon. I try to summon the baseball bat again. That does not hurt. This is aimed at the red. You can reroll the hit dice. No, it was already aimed at the red. Yeah, you can reroll it. It was already aimed at the red. Yeah, but you don't have enough to hit. So you have to reroll You have advantage. Fuuuck. It's kinda annoying I see. I see. Stop clicking cast all the time. Just to hit guys. You're gonna use up all your spells laws if you do it that way. No, it's still not. Like these don't. It will only take 8 damage. I'm not gonna cover it then. I just like launch it at him. It hits it in the stomach. Yes. Okay. It will be your turn. It's not my end, your turn! I'll do it for you, let you. Okay. I really wanna use my second level spells, but I only have two spell slots. I guess I'll just... I guess you'll just... this the old-fashioned way I guess. Does that hit? Okay. Yes, that does hit. Okay, so... Oh my god... Okay, I guess that works. So I do the same pose, but this time I aim the pose receding hairline okay okay and then I blast it off come on okay but did you do do the damage roll yeah I don't see it for some reason okay okay 15 oh my god oh oh shit What is happening? Ignore that. Ignore that. There's something, something inside that building. Inside what building? Goes to investigate mid battle. What building? The one where... The one where... Let's continue. How zoomed out are you guys? No no, I'm zoomed in at least. Okay, it is now the green one. Yeah. So it also gets flung back down to you. Yeah. And the green one. And... Corny wave... Does not hit. Also after this battle can we take a break? Is he gonna eat? I guess you could do a few more stuff and you can choose to end the session. No no, I just want to make a meal for my mom. He's gone. Did delete his HP for him. At least he was too smart to speak. Yeah. I'll just do the damage. Okay, so now it's Valcour's turn. Valcour! Yes. Run, Valter. Valter, why? Okay. 1, 20. Oh! Damn, Valcour! Valcour, damn! Okay, that... It does not kill him. It doesnt Yes it does. Literally, literally 1 HP. Someone just poke him. Someone just poke him. With a stick. Okay I'm gonna do a chromatic one first of all. Broke killed my cat. So I'm gonna do a dice. No, those aren't walls. If they were, I would count them. Oh, okay. It's close anyway. Those are like small fences. Ah, don't do this to me, come on. Why is that not adding? Um, the fuck did you? What happened? I don't know why it's not adding my plus 8 onto it. Um... Let me see what you just did. I was trying to do the cast. Did you click cast or did you click hit dice? I just hit hit dice. I should do the cast. Let me try... Do the cast. Hello, you took like some damage. You took sick damage. He did it for you. Yeah, I saw that bad. Are you? Yeah, you got whipped. Bro, I was that good. I was unconscious. You were too stunned. Why is it not adding? What the fuck? What the fuck? Do I have something on me? What is happening? There we go. Okay, that's ten. Brother, come on. Wait, wait, wait, wait, wait. There's a hit dice I can do again. It's an advantage. I think that will hit, so that's 14 damage on the red one. Why wasn't it adding before? What happened? I don't know what happened. But anyway, it deserved for killing my cat. Kaboom. There we go. Acid just starts boiling her face. Hell yeah. I'm just targeting her face constantly. Okay. Okay, so she will go towards... Turn in. It's my roll. And... Let's see... It's a touch attack. I say no! No! No, I say! That hurts. No, no, no. It will do. My consent is a joke to you. 8 damage! 8 damage. And your speed is reduced to 15 speed. Yeah, one second. I'll fix myself when I'm back. You're back? 8 damage. I have a bone to pick with these or these fuckers. 8, d'm out, 8 d'm out. You can literally poke the other one and they'll die. Weren't you like 17? Why did it only do- what the fuck? I had 8! The hell? I had 2 right, so 6. Damaged me. There, what the hell was that about? Wait, why am I- Was I at 24 before? Why am I 17? Because you got 6 damage while you were AFK. But I was 24 HP, so I'm 10 HP right now. No, you're 8 HP. What is happening? I was 24 HP, then... You were 17 when you came back. I was 17 when I came back, but you said I got hit by 6. Wasn't I 24 before that? No. I hope this one HP does not stab me in the ass, but it's fine. Let's move on. You're probably fine. You just have to kill their very low HP. Hopefully fine. Please, be fine. You're not gonna die, it's too early. Disturbi, I have full faith in you in case I miss. You put your heal yourself, bro. Right! First to die! Oh he is not hailing himself. Does that hit? 14? On the right. 8 damage. Abdullah? Yeah... That does not hit. Okay. Well I'm gonna die anyways. I might as well take one of them with me. One second. I'm gonna walk here. Right? And I'm going to use... I can't heal myself in a bonus Actually, I guess I can I'll channel divinity and I'll heal myself for 1d8 plus 3 How do I actually cast it? I'm not too sure. I think it's a healing word. That's the 1d8. 10 HP. Is it clear? That was my bonus action. It's going to be 5 tons in 10 minutes. 20 D. You got this bro? I would like to come a bit closer, like 15 feet, but I would still be behind Kiran. Why are you even coming closer to be honest? You don't need to. I just wanna be close to the pretty boy. Okay. I'm behind him, what am I getting? Okay. This time I do some fire bolting. Okay. There's a gremlin behind me just throwing fireball. At least it hit. I don't need to say anything for that. Yeah, at least it hit. Otherwise it would have hit you. Did it hit? Oh, thank god. I was wondering if I was getting hit in the back of the head. Okay, one second. So you delete them, one of them first. Okay, I would like to delete the red one. Hold on, the stream is exploding. I banished you from this mortar plane. And I threw the bolt at her, I mean. Yeah, that's it. How about the green one's turn? I'm going to scream for Hobob because my thing starts going down. I can try. Because nothing is... Okay. Kiernan takes 9 damage. And he doesn't have a mic. He's like, sorry I was asleep. Yeah. What does that mean? He didn't come across the sleeping thing. What do you think that means? I'll do this combat and then I'll go eat. Noooo. Oh, I'll eat Kiernan and enter. But I can time him again. Okay, that's the turn. Valfor. Valfor's gonna end. Valfor! End it! I attacked Kiernan for 9 damage. But bro, just deleted his HP bro. But bro, I think he's... he's AFK. He did say PRB. Yeah. Oh. But it's fine. He's gonna die anyway. Somebody just, just throw your, throw your weapon at her or something. You could've done that. You could've done that. You could've done that. Yeah, you could've. I only have like one weapon. You have dagger. You have a, you do have something. I have a sixer. Yeah, you could throw that, but it's fine. Let's see if this... You took 9 damage. But let's just... Okay, so he does not hit, so it's up to Vale to delete this enemy. Oh my god! Oh my god, Vale, you had one job. How far is he? Not draw, don't draw. No! How do I delete that? I'm a bit lost. Ignore the purple box. I just want to measure. Why do you have a purple box? There was an accident. Why is it lacking? Stop this! I'm surrounded by idiots. I just wanted to check how far away the dude was. Why do you need to check that? I don't have to move forward. No, I'm on my laptop. This would be probably fine on my PC, but just throw a firebolt at him. After you're done eating, are you able to come on your PC? Yeah, yeah. On my PC... Probably not. That's sweet. I mean I could kill him regardless but this would be quite sad if you all missed. Imagine all of us missed. No I have an unavoidable attack. I have an unavoidable attack that he can like avoid. Like I can just kill him. No no that hits. Should hit. Why won't you add it bro I have a plus eight. You have a plus eight? I have a plus eight. So let's just ignore that and it is at zero HP now. Okay die DP. Nothing matters on yours. Okay. I gotta loot the body. Okay, go ahead and loot it. I'll try everyone to cast perception. We're casting perception on these guys already. Just do it right now. Okay. One second. Shit, I'm a strict on something. I think I'm going to... Oh, god. My fault for having bookmarks, I guess. Shit. Bro, open the door. Yes. I want to talk to the pretty boy. Perception first. Okay, perception first. Okay, so first he's... Okay. Point D3, okay, good enough. Good enough. What do I see? Okay, you... All of you noticed that they have the same insignia of that Devil Pack that the Nightwing had. Oh, shit. Okay, so I'm gonna just BRB, but I'll keep the recording running if you guys wanna do anything. Wait a second, I loot her? There is no loot on them. I left his... Okay fine. Let's talk to this guy. Okay. I look at him and then I say, you come here often. I face thought. Is there really something you should be asking? I'm trying to lighten up the mood, you know? Yeah, I think I failed. I failed. We've literally just killed two people and you're- Did you roll a charisma check to see if you survived this? I rolled a charisma check. Yes, I need to do a saving throw to make sure you haven't utterly destroyed a relationship with this guy. Take one eye. No, you can do a persuasion check to come back. Oh my god. Do I get like a prompt that says Ezreal disapproves? No, that's only if there's no disapproval. But he doesn't really mind what we said. I keep forgetting he has a British accent. I keep forgetting he has a British accent. Oh my god. The fuck is that drawing? You don't look British to me. You look like you could be from Waterdeep. What's a British? The philp. He doesn't say that, I'm just kidding. He does not say that. Girl, why are you asking that? There's obviously no Britain here. There's no Britain. No, I'm not. I'm just... I'm just... I'm just... I'm free will. I can ask anything. I'm free will. I can ask anything I want. Would you care to explain what British... referring to yourself? I'd be like... Why... do I look British to you? If anything, you have the British accent, not me! If anything, you're not a tiefling, so... Oh... Is this about my endless... Yeah... Last time I've checked, I've never seen such horns. This is like, yeah, I, you know, I altered my appearance a little bit to appear, you know. It's just, it's just a... It's just a modification, it's not real. You can do a deception check. It's all fucking happening. Is that worth or worth?

Okay, what is it? Twelve? Do you take me for a fool or something? Oh wait, I forgot the accent. You take me for a fool or something. Of course not. Those are not modified. It's just... I'm just too good at... You know, modifications. Like body modifications. It's why they look so real. Like you can try touching them. I assure you, they wouldn't come off. He tries, like, looking at your antlers very closely and, like, tries to poke them. And he notices that there is magical spiritual energy around them. As his, like, eyes glow and he notices. And he's like, I see. So you've been possessed, I assume... I literally check in with my patron and I'm like, oh shit I think he's on to us. Wait what? And your patron refuses to retire. Fucking hell. He's doing it again. He's doing it again. You're talking in your mind right? Or are you... Yeah. Yeah I'm talking in my mind. Okay. I think, no no, I'm actually muttering to myself so... It just looks like I'm kissed off Renip or something. Do I see this or am I like far away? You are literally right next to him. Okay, so am I... I'm very confused. So he just said you have someone in you. What? Did you not know this about Distillery? No? I mean at least from my character's point of view, how would I know this? Oh, in that case you can ask her. You can ask her. Are you actually Dernie? Yeah, I am. I am the one and only. The one and only don't appear. What do you mean? There's nothing suspicious going on. Okay, I believe you. Okay. Thank you, Kaden. I know you would be a buddy. I like slap Dernie in the back. Yeah. I am pushed like 5 feet back Jesus! Not Jesus I made... I made LST3 LST3 LST3 yeah, it's a goddess I My character By the way, you guys are right next to a Shrine area which has like statues of gods I think a disturbing is this but yeah Do I also recognize one of them? Because technically my characters You live in Bordisket so you know that there's this area Is it this? It's the... No no no That looks like an inn That looks like an inn Can we go inside the inn? Are we in the inn? You're not inside, you're outside and you have to go from the other side You know where Valtor is? Like the road ahead. I'm going inside the inn. Currently, I don't recommend going in there without a reach. I'm not going inside the inn. Wait, can I get a short rest? Yo, what's up bro? Yeah, you can. Don't have all the fun by yourself. Like, wait for, you know? You can go in that area though. You, Derni, I know you're new here, but you'd be surprised how often some of them just obsess over some things and just either just die like I've seen so many of them just like fall over for no reason. It's right, it's right, it's right here. Do you see the door? Yeah. Are you talking about... Who are you talking about? I don't know what you're talking about. Who are you talking about? I see, can we have a short rest? Or like... Yes. Short rest, long rest, which one? I'm assuming short. because of the area. Cause for some reason short rest was bugged last time we were doing it in the workshop. Can I just test it? I'll just click it and see what happens. Shrest! Can I reset maximum HP changes during the restart or do a hit die? Not maximum HP. Max HP is different. And do the hit dies four times. Wait, how do I do the hit dice four times? Is it not sure you'll roll the hit dice? It just says take short rest and it has like cleric with hit die 1d8 and then like four buttons underneath. Should I click all four buttons? Click the four button. Wait, hold on. Click one of them. Wait, no. Wait, my guy... I know clerics do offer 4d8 but like my guy does offer 4d12s, right? So should I use 4d12s to hit? Or 1d12? Just... Just... Hold on. I need to figure it out. Is it 8d12? I'm asking what I'm supposed to do here. What was your hit dice before? My hit dice on a cleric is actually 1d8, but this character in specific is scaling off of 1d12s. Okay... But what else? What does this even... What does this give? This also gives back some spell slots right? It does not give spell slots. It just... Okay fine. Alright. I guess for this I will just let you guys go to max. can just heal yourself from next. I'm already maxed. Yeah, you don't have to worry. Okay, I just took a short rest and I healed for nothing. I'm just gonna manually add it back. Yeah, that's why the bug just is... Yeah, next time I'll just manually do it. It won't be that deep. Alright, I'm back to Chonk. Chonk, man. Okay. So, you can go into that... area with the statue. Is it the city? I'll- yes. Oi Darny! You did not- No, no. I wanna see. Okay. Go in. I'm trying my best here. Oh, there it is. What is going already? What the fuck is happening with my character? Okay. This place is called Stormshore Tabernacle where like there's Three different statues of gods. And... Not three, actually. Like, three on one side, three on the other side. So... There's a tear statue too. Yeah, there's a tear statue, there's a Saloon statue. And there is a... A Mistra. Who else? There's a Mistra. Who else? I guess those are like the most relevant ones. The rest of the... You followed Tyr, you said before. Surprisingly, I remember that instead. Tyr. Yes, where's Tyr? Where is Tyr? Tyr is... Here. Are you looking at what got... Can I dab up my statue for a second? What's happening? Hello. Hello. What's happened? How is it going? We are in the lower city. Yes, and... We just fought... two enemies. Are you like... is the air screen open for the me? oh i see some stuff yeah oh there's so many NPCs oh these are the two before oh you're a rozovite rozovite yeah i'll show you see you guys on the map these are the two enemies This is the NPC they have seen right now. I'll just share it with you. Oh my god. I can't do that. Azurain. Yep. Is he a demon? Yeah, he's a T-fly. Okay, I'm back. and then you were in your element with that kid. That kid? Yeah, I was locked in. Yeah, that was amazing. I was locked in, but then unfortunate things happened. Yeah. And now you can lock in again. Come inside. Yeah, I lost my energy though. I'll level come. Yeah, be right back. Okay. If he was an enemy, I wanted to yoink him by the chain. Why is Durnehviir in the... Why... What are we? Yeah, Durnehviir is what? Why is Durnehviir in the clock... The inside... Oh, we're awake, so we're investigating. Come join us in the shrine area. We're dapping up statues. Yeah, everybody else is unconscious outside. Yeah, this area is pretty weird. Why don't you just go unconscious? Even you, you were like sleepwalking. Like look right next to you. Lyra is also there. Yeah. Is that in Leona? Hello! I just jumped in Holy shit, you came from the sky, what the fuck? I mean, what the heck? Anyways, that blue guy is evil, I'm gonna yank him by the chain. Um... Wait, what? I didn't know you were into that stuff. No, just damage. I'll explode you. You come here often, what did he say? I made her do a charisma saving throw. Actually, he started asking about my antlers and I got, you know, I'm a bit conscious about my antlers so... What are those as I poke at them? Hello, do not touch them. They're very delicate and sensitive. Hey! Also, the statues have a little... What is it? Bowls? Yeah, bowls. You know, bowls on them that are for offerings and you can offer them anything valuable and they can grant you bonuses. you'll also notice that on the bows there are already other people's offerings valuables on them and because of your religious knowledge you know that stealing these offerings will incur the wrath of these gods yeah I mean displease them alright I'll just like walk up to him and say look I'm doing your job for you Oh yes. Damn, he's talking to a statue. Blue-tooth communication. Blue-tooth communication? Yeah, unfortunately you are not heard. I'm not heard. I go towards the Mystra statue. Wait, I'ma go to Durnehviir's god and take money from him. There's a god where my god isn't there. And it's a goddess. Yeah. I don't actually... Okay. Yeah. She's not here. Alright, so do all of them have a lot of gold in them or is one with less? I wanna give it. I'm not gonna steal, I'm gonna give some to someone. No, that will still displease the god that the offering was for. I'm giving some. No, I'm giving my own. You're giving of... Oh! Yeah, I give a gold to my homie can I say like give me like one of my channel divinity's work I have some gossip on this one goddess right here. What was her name? Oh Yeah, you're from water deep What do you mean by that? So like... Should I say it? You asking me or the voice in your head? I was asking the DM but okay. Anyways. The voice in your head. So like there's this wizard. There's this wizard in Waterdeep where I'm from. And there is a rumor that he was banging the goddess. The goddess Mishra. I look at like my statue I look at like my god statue and I like use my shield to hide my father and be like that's pretty dope I may be a priest but I don't know what I am I just hear a loud like nuclear explosion like go off on the other side of the city Do we walk outside and do we just see a tree? Are you a tree? No, he's not. He can't actually do anything. Okay, okay. You walk outside, you just see a tree. No, I'm just doing heavy. I did, that was a bit weird. Must have been the wind. Must have been the wind. I forgot to click self. I do that to myself. Heavy wind. The Rolex, they don't stop. So like, Kaelin, do you also have like a special relationship with your god? the wizard from Waterloo. I tolerate him. Tolerate him? Yes. He seems to bring faith and happiness to the people around me, so I tend to not say much about him. But let's just say my relationship with him is purely business. Also, I'm not gonna bang an old man. I'm just gonna say that outright in case you can hear. Bang an old man. I'm sorry if I offended you. No, I'm good. That guy does easily get offended, the statue over there, but it's fine. What did Conjectsion? Are you guys taking a break? I'm waiting for Arige to come in. You can come inside and do something. Yeah, we are taking a break. Also, one thing happened before we entered the lower 13. What's that? Uh, yeah the... Divorce thing? Or no, something was there. It was not divorce, what? Uh, it was the... The later. Where's Lily? Lily is here. Lily is here. No, we lost the child. We lost the child. No, no, no. I said I would stay close to her when I'm at home. I hit bro, aye sorry I fell asleep. An absent team of the figure of my crowd. Oh yes. Alright. Tell him about the thing. Oh yeah I was, hold on. Okay. Oh there we go. Hold him. Oh what's up? Alright. This is a note signed by Astri Condon. It was like crumpled up in the dorm room where you guys were. Yeah, so our assumption is that she was cheating on Valtor with someone else. Valtor... Okay. So the thing is Valtor was to be married to Valtor was to be married to That's an assumption. Many men is wild. Many men. Lure a damn. Did you see the word of letters? You would think you would see a wild gossiper in a tavern. No.

Niblet will tell me a way to say it. I'll know. Niblet? I keep almost saying Niblet. Oh yeah, you're in. I mean... I just came back, it's fine. Let's start. Kieran, why are you passing around? I'm... Just walking. I tend to do this. Normally. Also, I'm wondering if I were to like... There are other places Can we explore them without... Without the game? Not the end, not that either. Not this either? There's like... Hold on. Literally this area... This area... Yeah, you can go in... It's not a... It's just a street way. Okay. Go with this area? Don't go with the area, sir, right? Okay, so... Oh my god, yeah. As you... As Drenovir gets close to that place... Oh, shit. Uh... You... Oh my god, it's a trap. So then, we trade it. Okay. So... The... You notice that there is an indent on the wall that feels like a doorway to somewhere else. You guys can do stuff. Think of ways you can do something. It feels like a doorway to somewhere else. Is it like a portal or something? No, it's like an indent on the wall that you think is... Like it... There's supposed to be... Yes. It's an indent, by that I mean like the wall is slightly pushed back a little bit like a doorway. Can we do a perception? No, you guys did passive perception. That's how you notice. I do have athletics. You can try. I'm not gonna say any. I use my shield to brace and I like... like lunge at it. No, that does not do anything. Okay, Arcanachark to everyone first and then she rolls and she rolls and then she rolls rolls on the floor yeah she rolls her eyes um are you okay are you having one of those episodes okay so the like the indent on the wall starts glowing pinkish and you notice there's a There is a charm on the door. Yes. A charm? Charm on the door. Yes. Is it broken? Hello? Broken? No. No. Oh nice. Someone's unconscious. Conscious now. Hello, unconscious. Hello. Okay, so... Rage... If you would come here. Hold on. Yeah, come to them. And there is a... indent... on... There's a wall here. Hold on, where even am I? Oh my god, wait, what the fuck. Yeah, somewhere. Here. One second. It's such a big ass fucking wall. Where even am I? Oh my god, there's so many things popping up. My circle's gone again. It's where the mark is? The very mark is. Yeah, the dirt. Yeah, where am I? What did I miss? There's a... The doorway has a charm on it. Yeah. Yeah. So does anyone know how to uncharam it? Can I have Nyx back for a second? Oh yeah, yeah. something happened if i use mending? probably not i don't have anything that good Hey, how about we make it simple? Yeah... Okay... Okay, okay. So it's gonna be like a riddle, I guess. So on this... wall... like where the charm is... Yeah. Like, letters start to pop up. Only for Leora. Not you guys. And... says like in like a very cursive handwriting. Okay so the riddle could be like... Okay. I have cities but no houses. I have water but no fish. I have mountains but no trees. What am I? Can you say that again please? I have cities? Yes? Are you gonna... I mean... I have cities but no houses. I have water but no fish. I have mountains but no trees. What am I? God I suck, I got turtles okay. Only Leora has seen this. Okay but... Can you write this please? Like can you write that? Is it a map? Yes. Oh sure. Ah yeah, nice. Okay, there you go, Lyora. There's a map. Lyora told you and yes. And what do you do? Map? No! Okay, let me do something. Since Leora says it a little out loud, I can just walk up to her and say it's a map. It's a map! Backpack backpack. Backpack backpack. Okay, so there's this crevice that has like a very small area but you notice there's a bag What does the bag have? Why, Nick goes in first? Okay, do a... Okay, wait. Do an investigation check. Because this bag is filled with sand. Oh! You, whoever... You said it, right? You do an investigation check. You said- you literally said what's inside the bag, so... That's why, you know... Oh, that's fine. You said it's gonna return. So I wasn't supposed to roll. Just happens. Do I roll? Just roll investigation. Okay. Okay... Your hand does not find what's inside the sand. That's even worse. Can I also do one? Yeah, everyone can do one. Can I next one? Hold on. Oh my god, disturbia. No, next one. Durnehviir. Roll a high one or we're absolutely cool. Oh my god! What does an 11 get us? Hold up. What does an 11 get us? You get a ring that has Charm Person on it. But you don't find... Okay anyways, the main thing... Can I roll athletics and tear the bag open? Athletics to tear the bag open? You don't need to do that, you can just do strength. Okay, uhh... Like just a strength saving throw? Yeah, not saving throw, just strength. Oh, like this? Yeah. That was not enough, was it? Yeah. it was it opens up and like the song the sand falls over and there's this necklace which has a skull on it and it like it has the ability for you to speak to the dead only only once per long rest Can I give this to Lily so she can speak to her mom one last time? You can? I would like to give her closure. I would rather close her. And then we can ask Ashley next time. We don't need her from this to be that fast. Where's Lily? Lily! You can go back. Do we need to be near the corpse? Obviously. Okay, I just thought it was like talk to a ghost. Can I go ahead of them though? Like obviously like you'll spot all of us, but like can we just change? You have to ask her if she wants to do that first. Okay. Because you're not just gonna... I randomly throw her into a... Do I roll anything? Do I roll anything? You say what you want first, then you roll a persuasion trick. Okay. Lily, we have seemed to find a necklace that allows us to speak to the dead. And we know that this may be traumatizing for you, but you may not get another chance to speak to your mother. And we hope that you can get proper closure if you speak to her one last time. This is completely up to you. We do not want to force you. Just note that this opportunity is here. Okay. Roll a persuasion, Jeff. Alright, let's- wait, no, I shouldn't have said that. Oh, nice. That's perception. That's perception. I was gonna say, why is it so high? I don't see where persuasion is. My eyes, I see your- Oh, guard. She says that she is fine with not knowing. Like, she's fine with her mom's death. She doesn't want closure like that. Let's go to Valtor. I brought her on the head and said that's alright. Go ask Valtor. If he wants to talk to Astri. Where's Valtor? Okay. Only one of you can do the persuasion check and this will only count once and then not all of you can persuade him. Okay, who has the highest? Who's got the highest? Cause I shatter the way. No, no, no. Only one of you. Okay, not all of you. Yeah, but I was asking who's the highest. Yeah, but who has the highest one is the thing. I don't know how many. I can ask that. It's probably Kanjik. If I knew this, you wouldn't be the one to talk. Go talk to her then. Go talk to him. Ask him if he wants to talk to us too. We found an Echolus. You don't have to give him the necklace by the way. You can just talk to Astri. Actually, can we just talk to Astri regardless? Yeah, I guess so. I wanted to give him some heads up like we're gonna do this. In case, you know, drama. Also, this only lets you ask one question. Oh, come on! Ah, it's one of those. Okay, so don't say shit like, is this thing on? And then she says yes and she dies back there. you usually have to wait for a long run. Ask her what the note means. And you can't do it on the same corpse again. No. Can I mutilate the corpse like we're on a different head? That's new. Just ask her what the note means. Ask about what? Ask what the note means. Wait, ask what the note means? You can. You can. No no no, what the note means could be so cryptic. What if we just talked to us? Isn't that the better option? Wait one second, I need to make a giant question with 17 commas, hold up. Okay, with 17 commas. We're doing the genie trick. That won't work. So you can only answer exactly one thing. I was muted the whole time. How you doing bud? So I was saying that in that game we could ask like 5 questions. No, this is this specific necklace I will only let you have restrictions on. The patron for this necklace is quite stingy. She is the only option. The question is do we want to let him talk to Estrik? No, you can talk to the mother as well if you want to. After a separate long rest. I mean, I'm just giving you an option. You're being suspicious. You want to talk to the mother and ask if there's anything of importance for Lily or should we ask the promiscuous lady? No, I thought you were talking about... What's the actual priority here for you? That's your choice. I think you asked me because Lily has seemed to move down a bit. I want to ask you as well. But we have to decide on what to ask her. There's also the fact that you don't know why they were there, the mother and the daughter. Yeah. That's supposed to be... That specific area is the toll gate to Baldur's Gate. So they're entering Baldur's Gate, both of them. Yeah, it's like we don't know much about Lily. The mother probably knows more, right? Like, Lily's not going to know the entire plan or like where she's supposed to go. We can ask the mother if there's anyone to keep Lily safe. Or we can ask she, hey, you're cheating, huh? I feel like that shouldn't be the question we ask the mother. If you're gonna talk to the mother, we're gonna be like, why are you guys here in the first place? I don't think that matters. I don't think they can ask us questions. Isn't there a reason why they would be here, though? We have two options right we have two options of the icing is just giving us options so like it's a 50 50 let's say it's up to us four people are here we need to put it to a vote We need to do an entire long rest and Abdullah Are you going to allow us to do a long rest right after talking to one of them? No, obviously not. Exactly. And I doubt we are going to walk all the way back from this part of the city back again and back and forth just to do a long rest. By the way, in this area itself, there is more information about Astri. If you are concerned about Astri, You can just look around. I put it in the ward. I'm for the mother. Yeah, I'm kinda curious about the mother and Lily now. But there is no information about the girl in this area. Yeah. The Lily. Yeah, I'm kinda curious about her now. So, the Sevea and Kazek, what about you? Mother. I'll go for mother. Mother. Okay, Kazek, sorry. You're outvoted. I'm curious now, that's why. I will find out about her. Okay, so let's go to the mother. Yeah. So, what are we asking? Why were you and Lily here? Is that how we're gonna phrase the question? That's on you guys. I'm not gonna tell you. We need to phrase this question properly guys. Why are you and Lily here just to enter Baldur's Gate? We gotta think about this. Why were you and Lily trying to enter Baldur's Gate? Where did my character go? What was the purpose for both of you entering Baldur's Gate? Is that better? What's the purpose for both of you entering Baldur's Gate? The thing is they're gonna give like really cryptic and short answers. So like give like as like descriptive of a question as possible, right? Yeah. What is the purpose for your... One successful answer. Like what you want. What is the purpose for your... Just don't think about it too much. You will be lenient on us, yeah? Just ask what... What's the purpose of you coming to Baldur's Gate? Why are you coming to Baldur's Gate? Where is the dead body? It's in the other room. Where is my body? Where is my body too? Where is the dead body? I don't see them either. Where do you see them? I don't see them either. I don't see them either. Oh, I'm on top left of the map. Oh, why am I all the way up there? Oh, they're in the abyss. Oh my god, it's a miracle. Oh, my circle's gone. Wait, someone hide Lily. Someone keep her away, man. I don't want to do this in front of her. I'll stay with her, cause Nix is coming. When the... Yeah, okay. Lyra and Kieran, maybe we can go. I have the fucking skull thing there. What is the stream you're doing? Looking around, I guess. I'm staying with Deli. For the time then. Okay. Riven will stay. Niblet will stay with you. My HP is still gone. Hold up. Where is my character? Right here. Right there. Next to the guy. Right there. Right there. Oh. No, no, no. You guys wanna go talk to her mother? Where is she? Where is her body? Ah, sorry. Turning? Um, girl... I have right here. Yeah. It's right here. It's right here, right here, right here. It's here, in this room. In the reception. Yeah, where... the Nivir came from, but the door won't open. There it is. So she just somewhere there. Is there even a door where you guys came from? Okay. That's... That's not... Let's not do that. Okay, fine. Fine. Fine. Fine. Anyways. I was being respectful. I wanted to say wake up bitch and slap it. Okay. Oh my god. Yeah, she's a nice person. That's why I won't do that. You are the nice person. You are the fucking nice person. I know. I won't do it to this person, she's a nice person. Oh yes. Okay. She lifts up with like a green hue around her and her eyes are open and they're like emanating green light and she's just there, levitating. Ask your question. I'm tapping it out to ask if this is right. You're asking chat GBT. No, no, no, I'm writing it here. Why the fu- You and Lily. You should specify Lily. Yeah, but like that's fine, the question. Like if I just add Lily. What was your and Lily's purpose for visiting Baldur's Gate? That was not supposed to come out like that shit. I should have thought about this. Why did you and Lily come to Baldur's Gate? What was the purpose? Okay, we were here to meet Lily's uncle who lives in the upper city of Baldur's Gate. I'm asking Lily above the under. Rest in peace, Lily is safe. Yeah, Lily is safe, but that's why we'll look after her. Are you shouting through the other side of the hallway? No, I was talking to myself, there we go. And she's gone. Why am I the one getting closer? She's the one who mob died. I wonder why you guys didn't ask. I wonder why you guys didn't ask Lily herself Because she was in shock She was in shock We gave her some space We could have also asked her how did she die I mean Kanjakk Kanjakk Kanjakk Kanjakk Kanjakk Kanjakk we know Kanjakk's brain is expanded Oh my god, one flake checkers one flake is like 5d chest I'm so sorry I'm so sorry Jack, it's very obvious. Mustad, we had our first fight there. Yeah, but... It's okay. It's okay. I told her she died protecting you, so I wanted to know more about that. She died protecting... who? Lily, yeah. Lily, yeah, so I wanted to know more about her. Can Jack, are you projecting? I mean, Laura. Laura, are you projecting? Trying to get tips for being a mom. No, no, Leora was, when she was young, she was, her mother died at her young age as well. Yeah. Ahhhh. I'm sorry, now, here, have a hug. Right? Huh? She died to an illness. She died to an illness. A nameless? Illness. Illness. Oh, illness. Illness. Okay, I guess we can go back to the north. You guys wanna go back? Wake up! Wake up! Is everyone here and no one is in the void? Yeah I am here somehow already Where have you guys looked already? In this building there's like statues of gods and you can offer with them offerings. You can also take their money. Would you like to gamble? No. And if you take any offering you will have the divine... Judgment. What do I call it? Divine judgment. Yeah, divine judgment. What offering can we give? Anything valuable. But it has... to be extremely valuable. Oh my god, I'm just going to put a coin in there. What ring do I have? A ring that can charm. So basically, when you charm people, they have a disadvantage and they are friendly towards you specifically. Wait, has this been added to my stuff or should I add it? For now, we'll just consider you have it. I'll add it later. I forgot about the stuff I had. I can charm someone randomly got it. I will use this... I don't think I have it. Nicely. You can use it once per shortress. One charm. Once per shortress? Oh, that's quite nice, I see. That's not bad. I wanna look around this place. Wait, this guy is being mopey, right? Because he wasn't talking about Astri. Who's being mopey? Wait, did you guys even talk to... Yeah. One second, one second, one second. This guy was being mopey because every time he brought up Astri, he wasn't answering, right? Could I charm him enough that he starts telling us about her? Okay. Unfortunately, that does not work because anything that goes against their... What is it? Anything that goes against their beliefs will not work. I mean... The thing is... Let's say you charm someone and you order them to stab themselves or... something that's like against their nature then it will be a problem like let's say he does not want to talk about this then he will not talk about it because that's his firm belief okay so what else did you guys talk to them what was his name this guy yeah chain nips what did he say what did you guys talk about I'm sure we were just flirting with him but it wasn't really successful. It wasn't really successful. He's quite sad actually. Okay, pretty boredom. And I said, it was... He didn't mind it. It's just it wasn't the right time for him. Okay. Yes, he did not. You chose a warzone. Dishmish Dishmish Dishmish Dishmish This is huge What the hell? Oh it's an inn yes It's not an actual inn It's like a tavern Yeah we can look inside the tavern Where's the door? There's a door there That's closed That's what I'm saying That door is locked But the other side is open Yeah there we go Wait is there is there elf song? The devil Elf song? Yes Yes. Okay. Okay. Kanjak, what did he say? I mean... Lilly is blind, right? Blind? What? No, she's not. Who was blind? Someone was blind. Oh, where's that? There was some other NPC, no? No. There was no one blind. No one else blind. You blinded us, but that's a different story. That was a huge one, too. That's a different thing, bro. Okay, we are inside the tavern. Are you not able to go inside? Yeah we can't. Everyone go in. Oh. How do we go outside? You have to go through literally the- Where's the music? I'm trying my best. Ah yes, ah yes. There's no one in here by the way. It's empty. Oh my god. What is happening with my thing? It is actually depressing. Oh you meant where's the actual music at? What the fuck at? I mean, I'm- Oh you meant the tavern music? You want me to play that? Right here. Do you see her now? Yeah, I see her. Is Cairnon still here with us? Cairnon? Oh, it's Nix actually, hold it up with my card. I think he's with Lily. And Nix is still with Lily. Yeah. She's still pushed up on her shoulder. Yeah, just there for her. Since we're wandering off. Okay. Take a look around. Oh hi pretty. Hi, dog. I was gonna say pretty boy again. I keep forgetting that I can't fart. I want to go inside the kitchen and see if there's anything to do. Yeah, I was also gonna go inside the kitchen. Same brazen. Okay, so you can do an investigation. Not perception. Girl, why? Just because you have minus one intelligence doesn't mean you don't do it. I have minus one because it was the same. Just do both of them. Wait, wait, wait. Okay, so in this kitchen specifically there is a crumpled paper. I'll show you where it is. It's right here. Crumpled notes. It was supposed to be in the dustbin but it like flew off because the dustbin was full. Do you want to open this note? Yes. Of course. Okay, I will show you what's inside in just a second. Go on, you should type it out first. No, no, I'm not typing it out. Okay, here you go. To my dear- No! I knew this. There's nothing else. Oh, it's loading. oh my god you're kidding oh my god the ink keeps getting worse Oh my god. Damn, damn, DM. You outed yourself. Yes. Oh my god. Now the words are just dancing for me. And so can you. proclaim yet whispers tell me sharp and cold a wedding band a hand to hold no whispers reach me sharp and cold a wedding band a hand to hold you no what is it a man beside you vows to keep while I am left to grieve to me and still I and still I beg though what we were won't be erased that somehow you might turn you might that you might okay and it's gone oh my god astri what did you do i want to save this hold on i'm gonna save this picture that you might what And like at that point the quill she had in her hand you know? Yeah. It's like... She? Wait she? You said she? Wait not Astri, nevermind. No! Wait wait wait! Not Astri. That's fine. Not Astri. Not Astri, nevermind. I keep forgetting I'm not resting Astri. Yeah. Because the quill was placed on top of the... The quill was placed on top and it started leaking as they were crying. I thought you meant that a girl wrote this. Okay, whatever. Damn. I'm gonna make a note of that. I'll just write she in brackets. like what do we do with them i'm gonna keep it i still have the other two love letters on me by the way i'm just gonna start collecting these notes they're just all in my bag who is writing these letters i don't know that was the only major thing you can do a perception check have you shown it to have you shown it to alter the letters i mean or I don't know. I'm gonna have a mental breakdown. Just like two possibilities. Either these letters are from him and... No, no, no, no. These aren't from him. Because he... Did you read the letter? Did you read the letter? Listen, Valtor said that they were supposed to get married. But if this dude is writing in that perspective, This is someone else, this isn't water. Oh sorry I thought that... Oh okay, no. You see? Whoever was writing this... Minus one intelligence is working overtime. Do you wanna do a perception check? You guys can do that. We can do a perception check. Okay. This is from a lady for sure. Okay, I think you should do a perception check. Dunavir, I think you should do it. Okay, Dunavir. Dunavir, you should do it. You do your perception. If you somehow do worse than me, then I'll stop for allah.

Okay. It worked. Okay, so you notice that this letter is, like the ink on it is very new, as if it was written for a day ago. Oh! Like a day ago this happened. This specific letter. My assumption is that whoever this letter was from worked in this devour and they tried to write it but they... Yes. But like they were not satisfied with it so they tried to just throw it away. And Leora, what do you want to do? Where is Leora? Oh, hello. What do you mean nothing? You're in a room right there. That was the only way you think in the kitchen? You read that right? Yeah. Yeah that's the... And the other stuff is just food. Dad, don't ever take that. Just vegetables. Yes, give me my sweet potato. Like I'll let you have any fruit. I mean not fruit, I mean any food. I already have 3 apples and 2 bananas on me already. Can I put them in my backpack? Any kind of food. Okay so this I'm guessing counts as all one big room. What is this room back here? I have 10 sweet potatoes now. Hell yeah. Wait wait wait wait wait wait! Are there hot peppers in this kitchen? Um yes. I'm taking hot peppers. Yeah you remember. I remembered you... I almost forgot! You can take two fried hot peppers. Wait what are these four again? The hot peppers. You just need to have them in inventory by the very reach. You don't need to use them. Consume them. I'm just gonna yoink one. Okay, what does she have? What are these hot peppers for? She has, what was it? Dragon's breath. To use that, you need hot peppers. Oh. What do I add? Yeah, and Kandjalina. You can do stuff. You guys haven't done anything in this place except the kitchen. I was checking the Are you locked? This one and the one up? No no no, the one you're in, except the kitchen, you guys haven't explored. Yeah, one second, I'm still trying to... Do you think I can do... Arcana check here? Um... Sure... Or... In... That room. Okay... Arcana check... Oh, damn! Yeah, I'm also lost. Manage inventory. Inventory or backpack? Just put them in your backpack. You find... Okay. You find traces of magic in a book. And this book has names of people working at the tavern written on it. Oh wow. Yes. Wait, keep that list. Can I go to the book? Can I take it with me? Yeah. Okay, and you just want to have it. Can I read it? Yeah, can I read it? To read it, you need to... What is it? You need to unlock it. Unlock it? Yeah. To unlock it... Yes. You... Hmm... The thing is, it has a basic lock on it that you can use something to break it. Oh. What do you want to use? Let me see if I can try something. Can I just use the back of my dagger? Let him do it. Let her do it actually. I wanted to see what this room is at the back, what is locked. Can I like... Do I have... What if I use my dagger or something? It's like a normal lock right? A metallic lock. How many daggers do you have? I started with two. If you have two daggers you can use that as a... Lock pick? So lock pick yeah. I would like to use one. and you need to do a sleight of hand check. Sleight of hand? What is that? Wait, let me see. It's in your... Oh, actually, this one. Oh my god. Oh. Hell yeah. It breaks open and your daggers are fine and they don't break. Oh, nice. Yes. Okay, where book? Gibb? How is he? And you open the book. Inside you see names, so the waiter is Alex and there's a waitress named Jennifer. There is a bartender named Louise and there is a sh... I'm writing it. I don't see it on the screen if you're showing it. She's writing it down. There is a chef, three chefs. Three, no. Three chefs. One's name is Warren, the other's name is Christopher. And the other one's name is Emily. And there is... The owner's name is... What the fuck was it? Let me go back. Genevieve. Genevieve? Yes. Okay. Genevieve. I don't know how to... Genevieve. How do you write Genevieve? Hold on. Just do whatever, I guess. Wait, no. Hold on. There we go. So, Like highly likely it could be either three of those chefs or it could be someone else that came to the kitchen and threw in the bin. I have a bet on either. It won't be a bartender. I'm guessing it's either one of the chefs or like the waitress. Maybe. Because waitress is... There's also another list after the... to that page of the people. It's like a VIP list of people that are always welcome to eat for free. So yeah. I missed that one. Okay. So in the VIP list, there's a VIP list in the book. It has different names. One of them is Azuriel and the other one is Valtor. Yeah, and there is... Yeah, Astri's name is there, but it's a bit down. It's like a lot of the flaming fists are there. Ah, so she does come here. And meets that guy. And there is someone named Lucas. Lucas. And there is someone named Erendor. Oh my god, Erendor. And there is someone named Augusta. Augusta. It has to be Augusta. Oh yes. Okay, so this is a book found in the tower. So we got... Alex as the waiter, Jennifer as the waitress, Louis as the bartender, Warren, Christopher, Emily as chefs, Genuvia as the owner, and then the VIP list has a bunch of the flaming fist ranks on them, Azuriel, Valtor, Astri, Lucas, Arundor, and Agasta. Oh my god, there's so many names. There's a lot of names. But we ignore the VIPs now. We only look at the staff. I'm... I have the names of the VIPs in case, because these are still some new names. Yeah, yeah. You're gonna have it, have it. I'm just saying, I'm just... so Louis is a bit sad no you just said the name? who is Louis? Louis is the bartender whoever it is works in the kitchen yeah whoever it is works in the kitchen my bets on Emily okay wait can I not go in this back room You can break that if you want. That lock there. How do I break it? I think I lock the thing. Yeah, if anyone has daggers, they can use two of them to use as a... I have two daggers. Generally, this isn't a thing, but I'm letting it be a thing because it is possible. So, yeah. We don't have lockpicks. Yeah, yeah, that's the thing. You guys don't have lockpicks, so you can... Rockpicks are usually with the rogues. What about thieves tools? Thieves tools is lockpicks. I think I have white. Never mind. My sleight of hand is plus one but I have two daggers. Mine is zero. Mine is plus three. Do you have two daggers? Yes. I have two daggers. No, I'm talking to the struggle. Do Nivir. Okay, I'll step out of your way. You go ahead. Hold on, let me cut form. Let me double check. Where is my inventory? Yeah, I do have two daggers. I like how this turned into a side quest of finding about Astri's love affairs. You guys are, you guys love drama. I don't think he was going around. Maybe she didn't. Okay, everyone state their assumptions. I think there was just an admire. I don't think she, wait, no, but she wrote that. No. Okay, so my assumption is that her marriage with Valtor was like an arranged marriage. Yeah. And she's actually like a lesbian. And she had something going on with the cook. I also think it was an arranged marriage. And Leora, what do you think? But Walker seems so devastated. I think they're still used to, makes sense. And men are desperate. What was your thought first, before they said anything? The bartender. Louis. Yeah, but Nicky. Bartender. WTF, Leora just rolled a natural 20 or sleight of hand. You just noticed that? Yeah, that was a while ago. That's how we got the book. Oh. Yeah, then book was locked. I don't know. Pro's 80 entities kicking in. Minus 1 intelligence. Come on. Minus 2 now. It's gonna be minus 2. Anyways, you were unlocking the door. Yeah, yeah, yeah, Leora, Leora, go on. So I'm thinking that, you know, when Astri comes to the bar and she always meets the bartender, like, they have something going on. So that's what I think. I think, I think that one of the chefs, Emily, was like, those two were like friends. Friends, quote-unquote. They were just platonic roommates. Could be friends with benefits. Is there a thing in Shadowfell, Neura? I haven't experienced such things there. I was really young. You're missing out. Personally, I... I want to not think of her You never know. That's what I think. And Louis is the bartender. He got raised most likely. How do you know who Louis is? Did we meet a Louis? You know where I'm going? Bartenders are very attractive mostly. And they have this charisma. Are you into bartenders? Thank you. I also worked as a bartender back in vulnerability. Thank you. Can I talk? Can the door be unlocked? Okay, I just put the pointy side of my daggers into the lock and then I just move them with precision and then I hear a click. I hear a click and then I'm like hooray! And this takes you upstairs, but I don't have the map area for upstairs, but we just pretend we're upstairs. Okay, we're upstairs. I want to investigate again. Okay, so you're upstairs. You see there's a hallway straight. Let me just draw it for you. Okay. So this is the hallway. Like as you enter above and these are This and this are rooms And One door is open and the other one is locked and the door that's open is the first one you see Okay, as you enter that room I look up deep from the beyond. There is a bed. A king size bed. And there is a drawer. There is a chest. on it like you know the the front side of the bed there's a chest and there is a closet and there is what else yeah that's it open the chest the chest is locked time to unlock it time to use the daggers again nice okay there goes nothing are able to unlock the chest. Oh, okay. And the chest unlocks. And you notice it's filled with like notes. Oh my god. It's like a pile of notes. Wait a second, this is where they live? The workers, the staff, right? Most likely. Only some of them. Wait, check through the notes. Are they all addressed to Astri again? No way. These notes are just hobby poems. Like, as this person writes poems. Like, this is their hobby. Wait a second. But all the other letters are also poetry. Yeah. It probably must be this person that lives in this world. What does the poem say? I'll just say that since it's like filled with poems, it's like they're all very random. Some of them are about romance, some of them are about trees, some of them are about random people, that's it. Some of them are about trees, I know. Very specific. Okay. It was a wardrobe. Yeah. There was a wardrobe there. In the wardrobe, it's filled with women's clothing. Oh my god. No. Take them. Take them. Take them. I think you can collect the dots now, guys. Women's clothing. Okay. Check the dots. Yeah, it was... They were lesbians. Do you get it? Okay. Are we just looting? Can we check the dressers then? Oh. Can... The dressers? Oh yeah, the dressers. The dressers. You can. You can. What do they have? It has perfume bottles, lotion, cream, and a lot of quills. Okay. Yeah. And all of them are broken. Broken quills? Detect magic. Of course you want to... Okay. I have to go to Advar Khanhazek. Okay. We never knew how... Okay. Unfortunately, she does not have anything magical in her room. Okay. At all. Is that everything in the room? Yes. She's a normal human. Is there anything here that connects to a tree? Maybe? Perception! Okay, you can do a perception check. Yeah, pull out my magnifying glass. Then I start looking around. Damn. Can I do a perception check? I did. I did. Okay. Okay, so... In one of those notes... Oh no. ...you notice one peculiar note... Astri. ...that is to Astri. Oh my god. ...that she never sent. Oh my god. Because it was... It seemed to have... Yeah, maybe... I'm not gonna say anything. Is it an SMW? Is that a portrait? Like one of those French girls portrait? I wanted to ask if a history check would make any sense but I don't know. No, right now you're currently reading. Yeah. So... One of the notes is addressed to Ashi. So whoever was in this room was her admirer. And it was a woman. So lesbian. Let's go. Question mark. Okay. We need to break into Valtor. Come on. Valtor, I'm sorry. You want to read what it says? Yes! Yes! Okay, so it reads... I never sent the words I bled. They'll wither silent, left unread. You'll choose a life where I can't stay, and love will rot, erased away. Yes. Yes! Yes! Arrange marriage, arranged marriage, lesbians, yes. Love will rot where... I forgot the last word. Erased away. Yes. So it's none of the people listed. Okay, there's also one of them listed to Arendor. Oh! Yes. And what does the dad say? Aaron Doerr was one of the people in the real list. What does that say? Okay, so this one... Let me think, hold on. Aaron Doerr would be... I wonder if he's one of the gaming... He was in the VIP... VIPs, right? I'm just wondering if he's also part of the Flaming Quest. Same with like Lucas and Lucas. Okay, so this one reads, You placed a pen into my hand, and you showed me how a heart can stand inside of ink in fragile lines where every wound and wonder shines. Your voice became my guiding flame. Each verse I wrote still bears your name. Without your light, I lose my way. You made me a poet, come what may. So this is like a mentor and apprentice kind of relationship. So whoever this Erindor is, we have to find him. Ask Valtor, if you know, because it's part of the way I feel. But then he will be suspicious and he will be like why are you asking and then what do we tell him? It's a nabok! Yeah? Yes? Yes? These are houses above the bartender. One of these rooms could be the owners room. Probably not. Because the owner would be rich and they wouldn't be living on top of the... But I want to say since the letters are addressed by someone, you said S. Right? What? You said it was signed by S or was I just mishearing? Signed by S? I was mishearing, I guess. This... Okay, which... Which letter? The one I just read? No, no, the one Oh, the one before the... Yeah. I did not say it's signed by. Okay, then I was just mishearing things. We still have another room to investigate. Yeah, we do. Let's go. But that one is locked, so I want you to slide your hand again. Yeah, of course. Just slide my attackers into the building. Oh god, I'm outside. I'm outside the building. What the fuck? Get out. How do I get out? There you are, you are, you are. Oh shit, guys. Your daggers. They're your daggers. Unfortunately break and you have to delete them from your inventory. What? No. Yeah. What? You cannot do this to be DM. I warned you. I warned you guys. You were not paying attention. I Laura won, she got a critical success. Is it like a regular lock? Okay, you can fix this using mending. If anyone has mending. Okay. Laura, be a buddy. Let's fix my daggers for me. Ignore that in another life you guys are at each other's throats. that was a different universe. Ashley and Dunder. If it's just a regular lock, can't I just blast it off? You can do that as well. Can I just firebolt it? Yes, you can. Yes. Okay, I'm gonna firebolt. Bro has a firebolt. Halat. Halat. Yeah, this is firebolt. You can just blast the power power. Yeah, I don't have ray of frost in this world, don't worry. Ray of frost now, bro you still only use that. I didn't have it at all, it's okay. By the way, this does not matter how much damage it does. Yeah, no, I only hit the hit dice. Okay. No, even the hit doesn't matter. You're just... Because like, hit dice only works on enemies. On my glass, okay. This level does not have armor class, it has HP, but it's like enough low HP that you don't need to roll damage. I can just imagine, Denevere was like kneeling down, daggers broken, then Vale from behind just belongs to nothing. So basically this door combusts open and the door is like flung outward towards the other side. Not towards your side, it's on the other side, to the room side. But still I was like literally kneeling down. I wasn't aiming for you. I wasn't aiming for you. Yeah, but I was... Well, it's open now. We can go inside. Okay, I also met my daggers, please. Fleora. Met my daggers. Uh-huh. Okay, what's inside the room? Hold them. Do a perception check. Oh goddammit! One second, my sheet needs to be opened. Where's my cursor? Leora Asheville catches both of the daggers and uses mending and repairs them. Yippee. Okay, my perception didn't perceive that well. First, I'll just say what you guys actually see, because I forgot about that part. You guys see, it's like the same layout as the other room, but it feels a bit messy. Like everything is thrown around. Ignore the broken door. Yeah, that too. There's a broken door and the sheets are scattered. The bed sheets are scattered. The wardrobe is open and some of the clothes are outward. And the dresser

is... They're all open and all the supplies in the dresser are going out. Someone already looted the space. Why would my firebolt open the wardrobes and the drawers? I don't know, it's just the wizard stuff. I don't know what the wizards do. You want to perceive. I want to look around. Not you, anyone else do a perception. I still want to look around. I have plus zero perception. I'm gonna persuade the wardrobe. Yeah, plus seven there bro. Open, open, open. It's already open. Why are you doing it? Bro, let me touch the closet a bit. Negative infinity. Why are you dying? Yes, you can. Please! Oh my god, please. Oh my god, we suck. Because I don't have any poison perception. Unfortunately, you're not able to see anything peculiar in your sight. Yeah. Can I do an investigation? I have pressed 8 on Arcana, can I? I am... Who has more arcana? I have blessed. Both of you can do it actually. Minus one. Minus one. Minus one. Okay so. It doesn't matter if Vale got it or not. Basically. That wardrobe that's open. Was blasted with magic. That's how it was open. But it and like there's like marks of a Fire bolt that was cast to that boardroom. It's not it's not it's it's an old one. It's not from well It's from something that happened here. Oh fight I See what's inside the wardrobe yeah do an investigation check oh who was the last? I don't know I'll just do it everyone I have minus one in investigation? I have minus one in so many things why? why? okay we just suck we just suck I'm sorry my role also took Myron is 7, by the way. Oh my god, guys. I got up 2. Oh my god. Coming in clutch. Minus 1, 2 only. Coming in clutch. Okay, so... Turn of your notices. That on top of the dresser, there's a specific page that's open on a diary. Oh no. And... this diary is signed by it has a name on it by yeah drumrolls just kidding yeah it's by alex alex who was alex the waiter the waiter yes okay what does the page read this specific page that's open It says... It's like a very emotional... Like someone is like venting their emotions onto this. It says... I think Emily and Louis are having an affair, but I just can't prove it. I will find out... And I will, and if anything happens to Emily, I will kill Nois. Oh, so the lesbian and the bartender are... We don't know if she was... Okay. This is not in a love triangle, this is a love quadruple or something, love pentagon. There is a lot happening. Okay, so wait. You were right about the bartender or something, was it? Yeah, the name, the name. And bartender job itself. So Emily and Louis might be having an affair. That means... Wait, so was... Were Alex and Emily together? Is that what's happening? No, Alex... No, no, no. They say they're having an affair. But he can't prove it. He can't prove it. But Alex and Emily were together. No, no, no, no, no. He can't prove it. Emily and Louis is fine Alex is worried about Emily for a reason Alex is worried about Louis and Emily no no no no no and Louis and Emily Louis and Emily that if if Louis does anything to Emily he will kill Louis yeah so he's worried about Emily Yeah, yeah, so why is he worried about I'm that's what I'm asking. Are they dating? They could be related. They could be siblings, not dating. Siblings, they're dating. But then why the FM? No, no, no, Alex and Emily, maybe. That's what I was asking. I'll tell you they have different last names. It was probably Alex's room right? So whoever came into this room did not like Alex at all. I mean Alex. We were meant to be fighting some sort of war and here we are finding out relationships. Are we gonna fight now after this? Nooo I don't know. Who are you gonna fight? Bro we don't have a front liner we shouldn't fight. I missed the action. You can try and get a party and peace. There is so much. You guys are literally stuck in one building, by the way. Yeah, I know. No, listen, we are learning. It's useful. You are giving us so many things. You are the one who has done that to me. I am just there to narrate the story. You are moving around. I am just a girl. I am just a girl. She's just a DM. Okay, listen. Is there anything else in the room or should we leave? Is it 100% sure? There are footprints. Charred footprints. Wait, wait, wait. Let me see if I can do something. Hold on. I should have something I can do, bro. I took so much stuff. Detect thoughts isn't gonna work here. I was just looking for something that was like... I will detect thoughts on these footprints. What were they thinking? Speak with animals, baby. Speak with animals, yeah. Oh god, I want to check. I don't know if I'm like reaching too far, but the thing is, what if it was... Are you guys invested on anything? We are, I don't know. What if it was Louis and he found out that Alex was trying to kill him or something and he did it to Alex? Is there any way we can figure out something from the footprints? Let's go ask Vuelto! Why would Vuelto know anything about what's happening in the tavern? Maybe I feel like Azuriel might indulge us. Azuriel seems like a playboy bro, I don't know. Did you see his piercings? I'm sorry. Did you see his piercings? Nip sings. The nipples are weird. The nipples are weird. Not the nipsings. I can remove this top floor right? It's already exploded. Yeah, I don't know what we do with the footprints. Someone who is a wizard apparently. Who can use magic I guess, not wizard specific. We go back. Robert, we follow the footprints. Girl, what the fuck? They're just in the room, it's fine. Did we investigate this? They're only in the room. and they just vanish through the hole. Bro, Louis is out to something. Did we investigate this big room? Which building? The big room, I mean the one in the middle. The main area of the tavern. You did not. Okay, we're gonna investigate this, hopefully. I remember this room. This is where they were... This is where the annoying guy was doing the comedy. Bro's been here before. I feel like I've been in this place before. Okay! Also my pluses aren't working again. I don't know what's wrong with this. It's supposed to be 24. Okay, so there are... What is it? What's it called? You notice that the footprints here that were... on match the charred footprints from the upper floor. Yes. Like, as you, like, look at the floor, you notice that the actual footprint from the dust that's collected is the same footprint as the charred footprints. Wait, whose footprints are there, though? Charred one. My pets are almost... They're not here, though. Imagine they're just dead and we're just following a... I mean... We have to explore every possibility. I'm just gonna refresh the page, okay? Because there are plus stuff that I'm working on. Okay, is there any way we can find anything from the footprints? You can do a perception check. Oh my god. I'm very bad at perceiving. I don't know how to tell you this. Anyone else can do it too. I can try. This is like some next level series going on. Side quest series. This is a whole side quest. You're gonna give me the name of this later and I'm just gonna write out it. I love how there's people dying on the other side and we're on some romance drama already. Yep. This is what happens. This is what happens, okay? We were prisoners anyway. We don't really care. I mean... What else did you expect? We literally wasted like an hour on the baby. Oh my god, that's bad. It's like I'm feeding candy to kids right now. Give me more drama. More drama give. You started this with a love letter, so. That love letter though, damn. Damn it very. Perception, do something! Oh! Oh that, okay. Okay, so you notice that these footprints come out of that specific room that you investigated. And they go outside! Oh! Yes. So there was only someone inside before. And these footprints go all the way... Let me just do it. Oh! Reduce the weight. lead you here. That's where they stopped. I need to zoom out. Where? Can you do it? I literally did the arrow. It's right there. They stopped right there. Stop right there, criminal scum. Ah, yes. It's more like there's like dust that went over it. And these footprints were from two hours ago and these are and like the footprints that are gonna go straight have dissipated okay so they they are like the dust dust came over them there are chart markings on the ground so You can't see in front of you right? There's like a wall. I'm so worried. This one? This one? Yeah, there is... Wall? Um... You guys are streaming right? Let me just watch it. Yeah, you understand. I'll just see. I'll see. Okay. Oh yeah, you do see it. You see like... Like how fucked up it looks. You see how fucked up... no, no, like when you look up, well, fucked up that, no, no, the street, the street on the left. Oh, oh, yeah, yeah, yeah. That's cause, that's cause like, that's cause this was generated, like I use a lot of screenshots to combine them and it kind of, some of them kind of fucked up. Oh, that's what happened. I'm taking a lot of time. I'm taking a lot of time. Yes. I glitched it into the back rooms. You tried to walk through I'm guessing we're done with the tavern. Yeah, you're done with the tavern. Who appears in it? What do you mean they appear again? No, no, they disappear here. Like we lose the trail over here. So what if we look around and we might find the connecting trail or something? Can we just look around to see if there are people around? Or is it like completely different? I recommend you guys talk to your NPCs for that. Oh yeah, hold on. Pretty boy come here. Can we like tell Valtor what's going on or is it gonna be two months for him? Oh, they're outside now. That's your choice. Listen, I don't think we should... Bro's traumatized, bro. He already... Just because I'm saying that's your choice doesn't mean it has to be your choice. So that's like on you. Doesn't mean it has to be your choice. Don't be like, oh my god, the DM is saying this could be a choice. Doesn't mean we do it. I don't want to do it yet because we don't have enough information. How about we talk to the pretty boy and ask him if he knows anything. I mean, I... We can get him but we can get him back in the city. Right now I want to know if there's possible survivors around. You want to ask him? Yeah, we can ask. Because he was already in the city. What the hell was his name again? Azuriel. What was your name again? Azuriel. So I want to ask Azuriel. Since he was already in the city, if he knows if there's any survivors around. Why can I not say hello? So he says, uh, well, fortunately, we have moved them to the upper city by the help of a portal. Okay, so everyone's in the upper city now. Uh, unfortunately, the rest were murdered. The survivors are in the upper city, okay. Yeah. What's the situation in the upper city? I... I am not aware. Okay. Bromata sent them to their deaths for his time. Okay, what else can we ask? Why am I all the way to the s- Hello? ask him about the tavern people maybe he knows something did you know the people in the tavern? or the workers of the tavern? they all must have left through the portal actually they're alive I usually at this time the tavern is Closed! Now it's permanently closed. Okay. Well right you are! What happened to his British accent? Do you know about any... Alex? I can't move for some reason. Well he was my waiter. No, no, wait, wait, hold on. I forgot the accent. He was my- He was my waiter. Yeah. Oh. When I used to come here. They used to frequent the Devon. Why, of course. Yeah, you do look like the type. The nipple beard. And... Okay. Okay. Are you perhaps charmed? Um... Um... I was not expecting that kind of answer. I thought you'd have some humiliation. Humiliation? They're very shameless. Some sort of embarrassment perhaps? thing I know of. What even is that? Well, that's quite clear now. So... Maybe we can... Maybe the thing I tried with you before, maybe it was, like, not the right time, but maybe we can start over. How about we start over? When all of this is... Oh, I forgot the British accent. How about... I recommend we progress further. How about we let Leora speak? Leora, you wanna join in the conversation with a pretty boy? I finally managed to move into the spot near him. I've been trying for the last 10 minutes. By the way, there is more combat if you would move further along. We don't have a front line, I don't think. I think you can manage this one. Bro went flying already. We are up. Slow down. I would not recommend that side, I would recommend the bottom side because that one is blocked. Okay, let's go. Let's go, Ichai. And Azuriel is very excited that he can finally run away from Denevere. Yeah, bruh. Azuriel, do you need some protection, bro? Where did Nyx go? I completely forgot about her. Oh, she's with Lily! Where's Lily? Oh my god, I deleted you. Oh no, I deleted you. Wait, did I? I don't know, I think... Oh, she's with her, uh, uh, Valtor. Oh, no. Oh, there she is. Why is Valtor talking to me? Alright, guys, you wanna proceed further? I was trying to bring my cat and my cat disappeared. Where, Nyx, where did you go? There she is. Keep going, just keep going. The way it splits from here, what do you suggest? Hold on, my cat is... My cat is running around. We can ignore the cat for now, once you're in combat we can use it. You can bring her because I'm for some reason can't click. Anyways, we can... Let's go to the open space, maybe in the middle. In the middle? Yeah. Can we go to the bottom side? Yeah, that's where I went. Okay, okay, we can go there. Bottom side? This side, right? So how long do you guys think you can stay? I can stay. I can stay. I want to have a bag. Durnehviir, can you stay? Durnehviir, suburbia. Okay. Okay. What do you do? Where do you go? We are... How much further do we go? There's actually a door here as well. This door? Oh, up there. This door? Yeah, there's a door up there. No, no, no, up here. Not that, not that. Up here, up here. That place is closed. Can't really tell. Oh, it's the one up. Someone close the door again. Open it. inside. If I- if it will let me. Nope, the door closed again. W-w-w-w- It's- it's open for me. By the way, there's a sign on this door. Uh, like, uh, uh, what is it? Not on the door, it's like on- on the side of the wall. It's like named after- where is Durnavir, the fuck? Prospectating. Durnavir? Oh, is he even here? Here, art thou there? Oh she's... They are muted. They are right there. You can't see them. Yeah, they're... I guess. Because they're not in your region. Okay, so it says the name of the person that lives here and it is Erendor. Oh! Yes. Oh, this is a home? People just have names on their homes. Yeah, this is a house. It has a... It's a house. So we're just gonna break into this dude's home real quick. Unfortunately, you are. He's not even there. Who cares? He's not even there. I mean, I guess so. It's a desolate city, so everything's up for grabs. Oh, guys. Yeah. Yeah. I wanna go upstairs. Did you see that? Or was it just me? See what? What do you see? That what? Up there. Above. Outside. Oh! I have to scroll up for now. Yes, you are correct. Through that wall, there is a slight gap. That is a... like someone shot through in the middle and from there you can see there are monsters ahead. Oh no. This is likely caused from this hole was caused from outside not from inside. Oh. Did you just put me on the side and put yourself at my spot? No. What about doing here? Those monsters are like slowly walking towards another building. Not you, a different building. That's another building. Oh, into that big one. Oh my god, they're walking into sorcerer sundries, whatever. That's not sorcerer sundries. I'm sure we can give them a few minutes. That is the devil's fee. Can we go to House of Hope? No. Dumbass. Do you guys want to go straight to the enemies or do you want to look around the house? We should spy on them. We should see what they're doing. I'm already staring through the hole. Yeah, they're going inside the house. They're going inside the building. Are you able to see them properly? Yeah, I can see them. Right now, yes. Okay, so... Oh my god, what the fuck? Okay, so you notice they walk in and the door opens. Oh no, what the fuck? There's a door. There you go. Oh, they disappeared. And both of them walk in. And... They're gone. You hear noises in that house of fighting. Ooh. Oh, they're fighting. Yeah. That's it, you can't do anything else. You don't know what else is happening. So do you guys wanna go and check? I'm sure they'll survive for a few minutes. I wanna investigate the house. There's a what? I want to investigate the house. Okay, we can investigate and then go. And then enjoy the fight after. Yup, just a quick... Where is it? Just tell me. You guys can... If you guys can investigate, I'll just- I'm gonna take a quick break. I'll just sit in a corner and like start playing my guitar. Damn. Do you mean like literally take a break? Yeah. You need a break? Okay. When do you think you'll come back? Give me like- Give me like five minutes. Oh, I'm gonna investigate. Cause the next scene- next scene is important. Because you like the drama. Why won't it add, bro? How much is it adding? It should add 4. What are you... How is that even possible? I don't know, I'm clicking on the plus thing. Can I watch your stream for a second? I did try to stream but it exploded everything. When I do it for you... It works. It works. What exactly are you clicking? The plus eight or the... The plus four, like for investigation, I would click the plus four in front of it. Yeah. Yeah. That's what I'm doing. See, it works for me. I... That is weird. This thing hates me. That is weird. Okay, so Leora, you find there is a lot of parchment laying around and a lot of quills and you notice that there is one of these parchments has the flaming fist insignia on it Like this is it writes the ranking of Arendore for the flaming fist Okay, let me hold on I forgot the flaming fist rankings. Let me just see it for a second Okay, so he is The flame of the flaming fist so that means he's the lieutenant which is the fourth lowest rank. Fourth lowest rank, okay. So that, wait, actually the third highest rank in that case. I've been looking from the bottom. Oops. Damn, he's kind of high up then. Yeah. And we're just in his house, okay. The thing is, he likes to live very simple. He's not fond of... From his, like, his rooms, you can tell that He is a very simple basic life. He is like a humble... okay. Yeah. Okay, so we know that. What else do you want to do? I don't think there's anything else we can do. I mean we should probably kill time since the Nivir is gonna come back soon. Yeah, she's just playing her guitar for now, so we just wait till she finishes her performance. Okay, what else can we do? We can investigate the rest of the room, like the rest of the house or... You can if you want. Okay, we can do that. Okay, so that was the ops. I can investigate downstairs. I could try to, it's not gonna add again. Or maybe it will. Let me see. Uh, this one. Can you add? It says roll not check. Why are you doing this to me? What are you... I am clicking the plus 4. I am clicking the plus 4. Yeah, you have 15. Yeah, I have 15. Okay, so you find a journal. Oh no. And this has... Don't worry. This has names of the... he has taught and one of them is Emily. And... It also has, like, the best... It's a journal that has a list of names of his students that he has taught. And one of them is Emily? Yeah. The rest are not important. There was something else you were going to say. And... And... I was saying... Like, within this journal, there's, like, uh... Uh... poems that these students have written and his favorite ones are there. Aww. Love those students. Aww. Yeah. And one of them is Astri's. Oh. Do you want to read it? Yes. Yes. Okay. Let me think of something. Astri was also a student. That's interesting. Oh. Bro's gonna be hard for me. I need a wide board for all these relationships We found a journal that has the names of all the students Arindor has taught. One of them is Emily and the journal also has like a collection of his favorite poems written from his students and one of them is from Astri. So Astri was also his student. Yeah, and right now I'm having trouble reading because I'm trying to figure out what Astri-Poom says. What does the poem say again? Hold on, I'm having trouble reading. Give her a second. She'll figure out. Is it from the previous mission? No, no, no. I have the last thinking of it. Oh, okay. Okay, so... I'll just make it a fortniteer because I can't think of more. You taught my heart to speak in rhyme, to carve its truths through fragile time. Now every verse I try to start still carries pieces of your heart. And this is like a... Like on it is written like signed by her Astri and it's written nine. Like you can tell that this is like written by a child. Not Astri. Wait what? Oh my god. Oh my god. Bro, we were thinking Astri. It's Emily. I'm so sorry. I keep confusing. I was so into it. We thought Astri was also a nervous student. No. Okay. I did not realize that. She was just a slip of her tongue. Astri is a flaming face. But uh, okay, that's fine. Yes. Okay, now I guess you can go follow the enemies. I don't think there's anything else left. She writes better than most people as a nine-year-old. There were consequences to your actions. Okay, I'm just gonna I'm just gonna write that in bold real quick. And then at the top right it says, Erindol will rub up. Erindol He is... He is cctv's This is not a cctv world bro Okay let's go... after the enemies You know that eye... the eye... the prying eye... in the... in the game in Baldur's Gate like the eye that spires you Yeah he has that... he has that in his eyes Girls, where are you going? I'm down now. Yeah, there is the right way. Don't open the door without them. No, no, I'm not opening the door. Oh my god, girls, it's right here. There we go. And I'll bring the boys and the Lily. She'll just be behind. She's not coming in with you for obvious reasons. I should not be at the very front again, I do not have as much HP as HP. I can't frontline this time. We both have the same HP? Yeah, we both have the same HP. I think the person frontlining should be Dernavia. Dernavia goes front and we have our boys. We don't want to frontline us. You can open the door for us. I was willing to because Gideon has faced a lot. Gideon doesn't exist in this world. God imagine Gideon is his dad or something. Guys... Wait no his mother is human that's not possible nevermind. Oh what do we see here? Oh who is that? Okay. Currently, because you watched this happen and you let them fight it out while you were investigating, they have taken severe amount of damage and are at critical health. Oh, that's why there were consequences on my actions. Okay, sorry, that's not... More so, half of their HP is gone. Like, what is their health again? Like, how much health is their health? There's no point in telling you that. Why not? Just think it's close to yours, but half now. Okay, so we should draw the initiator. Yes, you do. We're gonna attack everything. Are we gonna fight from the outside? Can I break the wall open or something? I swear to god if this isn't ADMA initiated I'm gonna be upset. Are you able to see the name of the enemy? No. No? No. Okay. I should show you the enemy okay let me show you I've already seen the dancer lady but this guy is at home. Oh my god. Slow repeal. Slow repeal. Literally. Monarchy. Oh my god. What is that little crack? He has three fingers. He's an insect, so... He's a three-way over-heat! This is what you care about! Look at his pants! I don't... Those are not pants. That is his skin. So he's just... open. Okay. Yeah. Yeah, it's just... Monarch Guardian. Okay. Okay. Dang. Okay, so the dance... The dancer is going first. Can Nix's thing roll or am I just sliding again? Also this should be like this. Oh no. Oh we should roll our pets too, no? Yeah! Okay, so we didn't roll. Hold on, let me give you access. I should have access already. Why don't you have access? Oh, cause we moved around. Baby. Ah, we changed the... It's loading. Start. Loading. oh it's up there i like how as more the recording just continues you guys just see my deteriorating like okay what is happening oh no stop this Can you roll for next because it is not loading? It's not loading as it's not giving you access? No, no, I have access. It's loading. It lets me roll for next for some reason. You know what? Sure. Oh, my god, this is finally slow. Oh my god. Where is she? But the guy is still at the very bottom. The enemy guy. One at the end. I rolled a three. Okay so the Feyblade is gonna hit the woman. Nooo! Okay, let's not kill them right away. Let's not kill the woman. We are gonna see her death. It does not hit. Okay. That is her. That is her turn. Leora, Vale, Ash. I don't wanna save the lady, can I misty step like more than 40? You can. You can. And then I can... Oh yeah, Abdullah, we didn't go through the table. Search table. What? What? You didn't fight anything. No, no, no, no. As in... Clarifying everything. So, the thing is... You can only use Tides of Chaos once for free. And when you use Tides of Chaos for free... have to I mean even when whenever you use tides of chaos you have to follow it up with a spell so it gives you advantage on a level spell so if it's like a fireball you use tides of chaos on it and when you use tides of chaos you get access to your table and when you use fireball like any level spell even without tides of chaos you can do your 1d20 to if you get 20 and you win yeah what are you confused about? I think it's clear now so let me just say it again one free Tides of Chaos always has like Tides of Chaos has always followed up with the leveled spell and Tides of Chaos Tides of Fate for you, sorry uh... hold on what the fuck was it? yeah to use it again you need to use a spell use up a spell slot without doing a spell and for a capture I get uh... 3d6 plus 30 I mean 20 what what 3d3 3d20 3d20 okay okay let's continue okay I'll do misty step I'll go next to her from here okay That... And now I can roll on the table? You can roll on 1d20. Guys, you did not use Tides of Chaos. Like, Tides of Chaos wouldn't work on something like Misty's tab, because it does not have a... Yeah, it's like an attack spell. Yeah, attack spell. Yeah, it doesn't work. So, I'm out of action now, right? Does your mystery stuff say A or B? Like next to it. So, you can use an action. I can use an action, okay. Um, guys... Yeah? Yes? There is a problem, so I have... I got a B-A-F-K for a bit. Oh. Okay. So, if my... If my... and if I'm not here then you can just skip it. Okay? You can just do something for me. Just use cantrips. Or yeah. Or cantrips. Yeah. I was thinking that maybe I can misty soothing step towards the guy. Like soothing step and then also heal him in the process. If like anybody's controlling me then do that. Okay. Okay. I'll be right check. Okay. Okay then I'll use firebolt. Okay. Yes, it does. High damage. Oh, I need to show the HP for one. They're also kind of damaged, not too much though. Yes, can you go? I learned my turn. Yeah, Niblet. Niblet. I was gonna say the Niblet. Of course. Yes. 20... Well, you fly here. Actually, he needs to be close to it, right? Yeah. Right here, I'll use my attack. Which one was the attack? I don't see the attack. Go down, scroll down. The first one and then the second one, right? Yeah. Oh. It's not hit. Unfortunately.

Well, it's over. Okay. Unfortunately, Valtor cannot enter because of Drenofine's presence. And he does not have Misty Step. So, but I think he can cast a spell towards the Monarch Guardian. So, that would be Eldritch Blush. That hits. Barely. Barely? Okay. Yes. To hit him. Oh, damn. 11 damage. Yes, yes, yes. Okay, that should be it. Veliosos Malusolevasa. Yes, yes, yes. Okay, chill out. I keep forgetting I have a staff of flowers. That's a close race thing. So I haven't gotten the chance either so we'll just ignore it for now. Intake emergencies. I thought Misty stuff was a bonus option for me but it is not. I can't go inside because of her. Is it fine? Not bloody right? Yeah it's a whole lot better. Oh my god! My poor laptop bro. Different experience. My poor laptop bro. But you know the thing was with my laptop I had like two monitors and now I have to fit everything in one but it's fine. Yes. Okay it's recording. We are good. Just worried this is just gonna have everything shown instead of just the window but it's fine. Whatever. Why can you see him? In the combat list. Oh that should not be there. If that is there. Yeah, okay wait wait wait. It's not for me. It's for me but it's fine. I did my turn already right? Yes. Wait did you? Yeah I did fireball. I did, yeah. I'm realizing I can use dragon's breath. You can? Oh yes. Yes you can. Yes I can. Luckily if you do use her on Nyx, she can walk through Denefear's Linux. I have to touch her before she moves. Yes. I think nothing has happened. Nothing has happened here. So I'll have to do this on Vale's turn first and then Nyx on her turn can use it? Yes. That means I need to keep Nyx close or I can just let her in. I guess she has a thingy. Oh well Donaverse turn is first anyway. Okay. Hello. Oh my god. Literally nothing happened because I had to switch to my PC so... Oh. Next is the guy's turn. Perfect timing. Why does he clock there? And he's gone. For me he isn't there. He's gone, he's gone. He's gone now. Okay. Okay so... He uses... Vicious mockery. So one creature, like, it's like one creature must succeed on a saving throw of 14 wisdom or take 1d4 plus 3 psychic damage and have a disadvantage on their next turn. Let's see if it works. Damn, that's a whole lot of damage. Yep. They would have been fine without do it on the big guy and let's see their wisdom please don't um wait is that let me confirm oh yeah that's yeah yeah it's more than so you dodged it uh can I do anything else let me see He has like a snake familiar Which he can command as a bonus action but I unfortunately don't have a icon for the constrictor snake So let's just imagine it's there and its turn is always gonna be with Erendor Okay, let's just skip. Okay, now it's Azuriel's turn. And... By the way, this is Rumiha. What are you gonna do? I'm blocking the door. Yeah, exactly. You have to move. So... Okay, so... He does his charm ability. Wait, actually... Let me see if he is... In the new to Chone. Okay. Okay, so he whispers into the Guardian's ears and he has to succeed on another wisdom throw. Okay, let's see. I think this one is a bit too wise, guys. Um... So our poor Azuriel could not do anything but for a Misty Step... I mean for a bonus action he can Misty Step. For a Misty Step he can bonus action. For a Misty Step 30 feet he'll do it. Okay that's his turn. It's the woman's turn. Did you show them the picture? Oh no, we didn't see their pictures. And let's just do this first. Because they're almost dead anyway. Huh? No, no, no, no, not them. The enemies are almost dead anyway. Girl, girl, girl, girl. Stop. Stop it. Okay. So... She uses her crossbow. The fuck is that? Okay. Poor girl, she didn't get to do anything anyways. Then we move out of the way please. Yeah, I am gonna do that. So I want a misty step towards the guy. Of course it's the guy. No, I mean, Lyora is there with the girl. Okay, okay, okay. Okay. Luckily for you, both of the cute guys are on the left side. Oh my god. Don't do this to me right now. You just make me here to be a creep or perfect. You mean you are? I mean. You are? What do you mean? You had no shame, but it's fine. Anyway. Fine. Okay, okay, okay, okay. Okay, so... I'm... She literally put me in the... Okay. So... Back in my original place, I close my eyes. And then... I channel the power of my patron. And you see this pool of black water form underneath me. Like... Underneath my... Anyways, underneath me, and then you see these shadowy tendrils come out and then they just wrap around me and then they drag me inside the pool and then I'm teleported to the other, teleported to the other place, like 30 feet towards the guy and I, after I'm teleported, I just like, tap the guy a little bit and yeah, I heal him for like 1d8 plus my charisma modifier. Click that. 4 plus 4 plus 4 plus 4 4 plus 4 ok so you heal him by 8 so that is there we go okay Nixie's turn Nixie boy I mean Nixie girl Nixie girl she has oh wait hold up oh my god why can't I measure hold up Hello, what is happening by the way by the way Dronevir you have an ability in your missy step that I added extra it lets you cast So when you misty step next to an enemy, you can, if they're near you, you can... Yeah, it damages them with eyes. Anyways, continue. I don't see it. It should be in your features and traits. I kind of want to do Mirage Vail. Okay. But I don't know how to show her duplicate. Who's duplicate? Nyx's. Nyx has an ability called Mirage Vail. she creates an illusionary duplicate of herself within 20 feet and it lasts a minute. Oh yeah yeah yeah. Enemies have a disadvantage against it. Yeah. Creature... Where is it? When a creature targets whale with an attack, roll a d6. Yeah. Okay, there is no disadvantage against it. It's just to protect whale. So if they try to attack whales, they have to roll a d6. But on a 4 to 6, the illusion is targeted instead. Okay, okay. see through the illusion with a successful intelligence investigation check against real spell safety see. So I want to do that but I don't know how to show a duplicate. But I want it near the dude. Okay. Okay. It's tiny. The reason it's not in your thing Durnehviir is because to add the specific damage for it so it's not showing but it's there so if you want to do it I will do the roll for you I mean I don't want to miss this step again so not in this context okay continue so you what did you do Arige you did the thing I did the mirage well she's just gonna create a duplicate of herself near the... does she have a bonus action? She does not. This is just one that she does. Okay. That's just her action. Okay, go, go, go. Let's continue. I'm just gonna assume that he has an illusion. Oh my god, this is gonna be a bit painful, guys. Does it hurt? Oh god, he's gonna hurt? Does it hurt? Yes, he will. Because Pink Whale and I are outside. Valtor are literally stuck outside for now. I mean, you say that doesn't mean he can... Oh shit, fuck off. He can come out. Aham, hello there. What? Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, luckily that hits. Luckily? For me, yes. Aham, aham, I love torturing people. Nine hit points. Nine damage. Nine damage. I'm sorry what? He has another. Does he have another ability? You're gonna kill my boy. Wait no he has to run a d6. Yes he does. Do that first piece of shit. Okay. D6. Okay, he takes the hit anyways. Fuuuck you. Bro, bro healed herself. She thought she was gonna hit her. No, no, in case, in case. In case, it should be like you should wait if it hits her. Okay. Anyways, for a bonus action, you can target one creature in 30 feet. And you and I will make it a veil Yes, you have to do a wisdom saving throw. Fuck. Luckily for you. That's not lucky. That's not lucky. On your next attack you have a disadvantage. That was a very fast roll though. Yeah, now you're feeling the smoothness of the rolls. Yeah. Hell yeah Duncan it's time for the dancer! It's time to fuck Kanjak! In the ass! Oh... Um... Where does more? So 12 damage 12 damage highest one so far. Nope. Anyways. Continue your way dash. Okay let's do uh... Let's do poisons. Poisons play. Oh yeah I forgot yours. But... Is it a single target spell or is it a red cone spell? Uh... It is a... 30 feet... I covered it. It's dead. It's tedious. Uh, okay. A single target. Okay, sir. Yeah, it's a single target. 12 does not hit. Does not hit? No. Ow, right. Do you have any bonus action? Anything? How close is this to? I feel bad for Lely, she's already there. Oh my god! No, don't worry, she's not gonna get her turn. Can I use another spell? Do you have a bonus action? I don't think so. And... No. Wait, did you use your Tides of Fate? Tides of Fate? No. Oh, wait a second. Wait, was this a... Was this a... Was poison spray you leveled, Smeth? Or was it a... Cut trip. Cut trip. Oh, okay, okay. Hold on. 60. Let me see. Okay, so... You can do a 60. Yeah. It's between 50 and 60. What's an opportunity attack? If you're five feet near an enemy, they can hit you with their basic attack. Oh, that thing. I'll just end my turn, cause what the hell? Yeah, you can't do anything. I'll take 12 damage from them. Oh, wait, I could've done a hellish tribute. I keep forgetting I have. You need to take 12 damage? Yeah, cause I took 12 damage now. Oh yeah, yeah, yeah. I thought you didn't take that. I thought you already took that. I took it now. You skipped niblet. What? Yeah, there you go. Do that. Someone did. Anyway. I can't open a street, other than you never mind. Technical difficulties? The place will be hit. Yes. It helps. Always the pets. Always the pets. Always the pets. Nine dollars. God. Damn. Nyx needs another attack upgrade. 14 HP. Where is Valtor? Where is Valtor? Eldritch's booby. Let's see. Oh my god Valtor. Valtor you piece of shit. Hey what up do you pretty boy? Oh my god it's my turn. Well no. I'm so close to him so I'm gonna be at a disadvantage. I'm at a disadvantage anyways. Do you have Misty Stab by any chance? I do have Misty Stab. You could evade it. Evade opportunity attack with Misty Stab. Or you could de- Wait actually, for your bonus action- Wait, do I have Misty Stab? I don't have Misty Stab, hold on. I don't, I don't, I have minor illusions, nevermind. Uhhh... There was something I wanted to do- I can finally use the staff of flowers. See, that's true. is gonna get me. I can bunk him. By the way, this staff of flowers is related to... Yeah. Related to? Did you forget how you got it? Oh the... Yeah, I actually did forget. How did I get it? I... Was it... Which room was it? You found it in the secret room that you found. Yeah, yeah, okay, okay. Yeah. Oh, yeah, okay. I'm not gonna do a magic thing. This is gonna be counted as an action right? This is an action, it's not a bonus action. I don't have a bonus action. Yeah. I technically have a bonus action but whatever. Okay for the staff of flowers I wanna do Blooming Strike. Okay. Which is... target must succeed on a DC 13 constitution throw or be distracted by the sudden blooms granting advantage to the next attack made against it. What did you say wisdom? This is constitution. Okay. This is just going to grant me an advantage. Okay you got an advantage. God. Thank God. Wait. In the time thingy, there is R too. What does R mean? Ritual. Ritual. Yeah, Ritual. So action, bonus action, okay. In bonus action it says I can do a two weapon fighting. Is it because of my two daggers? What? In my bonus action it says two action fighting. Two weapon fighting. I think that's dual wielding. Your... Hold on, let me just let me see let me see let me see. But I don't know what to do with it. I mean I want to do some damage. What the fuck? Where are you looking at? Actions? Bonus actions. Second bonus actions. Okay. As a bonus action you can switch to You can use your bonus icon to switch to two handed weapon. Oh well we are not doing that. Did you cast your dragonsmith yet? No because I was planning on moving inside with Nyx but that turned out very well did it. Okay hold on one second let me just check something. If I move back he's gonna do an opportunity check. I don't understand why you're not using actual attacks. I'm gonna explode. I mean I did my action already. By the way, if you have disadvantage and advantage at the same time, then it cancels out. That works for me. Do we have a healer? We don't. Only disturbiers can heal with her, Misty'sa. And she has healing word, I think. She has healing word. I'll survive. You see, even here in the room with us. Also, next time, just remind me I want to cast Hellish Rebuke as a reaction. I forgot I had that. Yes. Oh my god. Baby girl's turn. Baby girl. Okay. You cast... The Day of the Sickness. That's Heats. It's a 19. And... And... Six damage. That's those... damage and he has to do a what is the constitution saving throw and if he fails it, which he did, he will keep taking poison damage every turn and he has to keep doing the wizard. Let me... So that was six damage and then how much poison damage? Uh... poison... He won't take poison right now, on the next turn he'll take the same amount. Yeah. Okay so... Same amount? No, no, no, by like 2d8 damage. Okay. Oh, I'm scared. Here we go. Here we go. Thank you for doing that. And let me see... His snake that was with him. Let's pretend he's there. And... Snake does... 2D damage to the... Dancer Lady. Okay. This attack is like, unawarded. It's like a... It like wraps around and bites basically. It's a constructor snake. One. There you go. It's her. Other lady. Yes, yes. She has almost died. Yeah, there you go. Azorio. Let's just target the lady. Let's remove her. Okay. Here he whispers into both of them ears. And they must succeed, I'm saving through in order to pass. Hey. Oh my fucking god. What the fuck is wrong with them? They need to check out. So luckily the red lady takes damage. But let's see how much. Oh she dies. Thank god. Someone helped me. There we go. One person remaining. It's time for the lady Please do something Please do something, god She's gonna fail Oh my god Fails miserably I'm just destined to die Okay Dunivir, your turn Is she here with us? She probably is Dunivir Let me see Yeah, she is here with us But she's not talking. Let's see what she does. Eldritch boobs. It hits. Sex damage. Sex. Sex damage. I need to stop. You do. It's my boy. It's my girl's turn. Oh wait what happened? Wait wait wait stop. Let's ignore that. Let's ignore that. Okay. Next move. Hello. Hello next. Can you... There it is. I can't move more for some reason. It's fine. I want her to move a little closer to him. Hello. Oops. I mean that works okay. Yeah whatever I wanted just to do the shadow claw attack. Let's see how this goes. Oh my god. Don't need to say anything. Let's go for damage. Good job, Mix. Oh my god, he's like... Oh no... It's the guy's turn. Yeah... Oh no... What could possibly happen? I... I hope he fails the 1d6 roll. Okay... As a bonus actions... This is the wrong person, what the fuck? Yeah, that's the dead person. He's a dead person in the middle of the... Okay. Okay, there we go. Okay. So... He lifts up... He lifts up a bit in the sky with like... He's like slapping his wings. And he's... Let's see what he tells us. I'm going slam. Okay. Um... That doesn't hurt. Anyways, that was a bonus action. Let's do his. Why does he have a bonus action? Why does he have a bonus action? No. Okay. What? What the fuck? Okay, I'm gonna remember the wrong place that's here. Wrong place. No, you're just trying to kill me. So in this radius, I mean no in this cone, you and Nyx have to do a constitution saving throw. Okay, I'll do one for you. Okay, I fail at that. Nyx, where did Nyx's thing go hold up? Constitution saving throw. Can it be better than mine? Okay. Both of you are unconscious for one minute which basically means for a lot of turns. One minute, one entire turn is six seconds. Yeah, one turn is six seconds. The only way you can be awakened is if someone helps you, uses their action to help you. Like Valtor for example. Or someone damages you. If someone damages you, you are awake. Okay. Yeah, those are the only ways. Okay. Okay, so it's Leo's restaurant. Okay, wait, wait, wait. Loda, oh, anyway. Mada. Okay, Mada, we could have just... What does it say? It hits. It does hit. So this hits three times by the way. Yes. So you have to do it three times, the damage roll. 10, 15, 19 damage. 19. Is he dead? Might be. No. Fuck. Yeah, yeah, yeah. Let me do some math. Fuck. Yeah. That way. There we go. You know, since I used that, do I get to roll? Yeah, on 1d20. Wait. Anyway. You could've just used your Tides of Chaos, they're still free. So, events. not anymore cause you already did damage alright skip this boy is gonna fly here imagine it's the pets that are under the gun next to the sleeping that's the wrong one ohhhh does he hit? I would death I would death oh shit oh shit thank you guys for deleting the enemy anyways we love them then force your crypts again wait Who's waking up? Me, Nyx. Oh yeah. Valtor you piece of shit. Anyways. Okay, at least the NPCs didn't die. I'm on life support. Yep. So am I. Okay, so this dude can move out of the way so I can climb over. Actually, can I? I wanna do a check on him. On to do what? He would also have the like the back symbol or just say that he isn't made of real stuff. What check are you doing? What check would it be? Let's go Arkana, that's my idea. You got Disturbies and Mutants? Okay, Arkana too. I love the quick rolls bro. Okay so... You notice the same situation as the Nightwing and the other twins. Devil's back. Yeah. Where's my notes? I love how we still haven't reached the point where we find out what the Devil's back is actually. We could have found that out. No, no, no. It's like it will take some time to find that out. Okay, okay. Okay, okay. Can I go outside now? Thank god. Okay, we can check on the two NPCs. Can you see their faces now? Uhh... Hold on. I have to put them in. That was the problem I forgot to put them in. First, they should have a reaction to defeating the fucking guys. Oh yeah, that's your job, Liam. Hello? Yeah, exactly. Hold on. Okay. Let me think of the perfect accents for this guy. Okay So okay, so everyone that the NPCs like Azuriel and Valtor reckon like they know the guy and he is part of the Flaming Fist. Okay, so... So, he says that... Oh my god. What should he say? Let me just say... Okay. Okay. Okay, so he... I don't know how to say his voice line, so I'm just going to describe it for now. Okay. Because I want to make it perfect. Okay, so he says in like a very fashionable accent. Oh, no, he's a diva. It's like an American accent, but it's like very, you know. Zesty? Yeah, not zesty, but like very, very, like the words are very well-written. It's hard to explain. Smooth. No, it's like the way he says things is very stylish. Okay. So, like, he tells you that he is grateful for your help, assistance, otherwise he would have died. Yeah, my bad. Yes. And Azuria is like, Luckily we made it in time, otherwise I don't know what would have happened to you, sir. And Valtor is like... Who is this girl that you have with you, sir? And he is... at her, waiting for her to answer, and she's, and he's like, she is my prodigy. Oh. Oh. Yes. And Valtor is, is like looking at her as if he has seen her before, but he has not. Anyways, you guys can talk. Names? Uh, you'd ask. Okay, okay. Too fair as everyone else. Meanwhile, I'll add them in. Lyora, you can start. You're next to the garden. Hello there. that's literally what I would do. Hello miss, are you okay? I suppose so. Just a few bruises here and there. It's okay, you can calm down now. We have defeated them. I'd never tell everyone to calm down. Okay. I just wanna leave. When can I leave? Okay. I mean, you can leave whenever. It's your call. No one's stopping you. But I'm sure... I heard the rest of them were leaving through portals. I wanna go back. I don't wanna stay here. But I think the portals have closed. I'm not sure if it's... to go and look for portals alone. The guy is like, there is another portal, but it's open on the other side of the wall. So currently, there is a wall that is blocking your way, and on the other side is the other half of the lower city. There's another portal then. Another half? Is it far away? No. It's literally right next door. Okay then. We have to figure it out. Okay. We have no maps but I guess we can figure it out. Who are these two? What? I'm just gonna walk up to the man and ask who you are. Okay. Well kind sir, I would be Erendel. Oh shit. A humble flame at your service. Okay. Yes. We're not gonna mention that sacking his house. And what about the kind lady here? What's her name? Is your name by any chance Emily? Wait, how do you know that? Oh no! I've never- Yeah, we got our culprit. We have our culprit right here, guys. Durenvir, shut up. What? Er- Erindor, these people are creeping me out. What do I do? We're sorry about them. I'm sorry about this Dundamir. They're a little... you know. Oh yeah, I forgot to show what they look like. Is that Torian? Is that Torian from Dragon Age? Ahom! Anyways! Why are you messing with the old god friend? Oh my god! It's the game man! It's the gamer from Dragon Age! Emily! Ahom! Oh damn! Emily! Nice necklace Emily! I don't know! That's not a necklace! Oh that's not! What is she reading? Notes. I don't know her poetry. Notes. Okay. We should probably heal first of all. Yo, can you heal me? You guys can do a short verse. Basically just heal to max. My healing does not come for free. What, you have to give your blood. Yeah, give me your firstborn and then I'll consider it. I repaired your Tigers for free. Did I ask you to go? That was your own kindness. Why do you expect me to do a save? Just take a shot for us for a while. I'll just take a shot first. Who is not helping. Who is not helping. Okay. I only have like two spell slots. Okay, wait. I want to talk to Arindremor asking if he knows about what all this fighting is going on. Like, if he knows what all of this is about. if he knows where these creatures come from. Okay. Ask him. That was me asking but okay. Okay. Fine. Fine. No roleplay. Okay. Okay. So. I'll do the same then. He replies saying that. Okay. Okay. Well. I'm not sure either. It appears that. creatures suddenly flew down from the side where the worm crossing is basically like I'm just describing it in my way to like where you guys were the fortress side so they like flew in exactly from that side like all of them like and they're and okay then he continues to me it appears they're looking for something something precious and peculiar because they're they're looking they're like most of them are looking for fights they're looking for chaos uh no no they're looking for something in particular they're not here to kill kill us but if if if we get in their way they will made by something because they're not made of magic and half of them have I have noticed they do have a devil packed insignia on them do you know which devil? uh none I've never read on a devil like this before okay so we still don't know about that hmm we should probably get a move on them Let's investigate the room. We're not interrogating Emily. Not yet. Durnehviir is so eager to know the deeps. If you directly asked a person, they're not going to answer. That's what persuasion and deception checks are for. You do realize that it will come off like you're invading her privacy and you found out stuff about her. Through her notes. And you know a lot. Yeah. So we're not going to do that yet. Hide your notes. Yeah, so be cautious of how you pursue the conversation. Again, this is a side thing. Okay. This... I still wanna investigate. I wanna take a quick look around the room. Inside this room, you do an investigation check. I mean, perception. You do investigation and Ternovir you do perception. Okay, fuck off. Do it girls. Why is it not showing? I got a 13, she got an 11. I don't see it. Why don't you see it? I don't know. 13 and 11. Okay, so... Danivier notices that there is a portrait of the same insignia she has on her The antlers the antlers and you do as well. Yes I wonder why they're in the devil's feet It is of the antlers your insignia on your what what was it called? The heirloom? What? Heirloom yeah. The heirloom. Yeah. Um but I I have to process this. Hold on. I need to process this. Vale is also just staring at the portrait. Also I also need to process this because I just came up and said. Oh damn okay. Literally just drop that on me. What the fuck? I was not expecting that. I feel like in like down times when they're moving, it's always like looking at Juna, we're trying to figure out who the fuck she is. Cause I don't think Shodom is Grimpa. I'm just, I'm just, I'm literally just, whenever I catch up looking, I just sighed, I What the fuck is going on? You know, Will kinda scares me. She's a bit scary. I hope you do. Also... Also... There's a portrait on the right side of the Devil's Fee of Leora's father. Inside is one of his concubines. EW! Break it, break the portrait. Set it on fire. Do something, Niora. Damn! Why are our fam- What is this? What is their family's link to this? But why in the devil's pee? What is going on? Why in the devil's pee? Devil's pee? Since, like, for context, this is not like I'm telling you this as not your character. So your character should know this. It's like this place, Devil's Fee, has changed from your original Baldur's Gate, so it's not the same Durnehviir, so it's a bit different after a few weeks. Oh. I don't know much about it anyway, so... It has these new portraits and they are irrelevant to each other except the concubine and father. Someone put them here deliberately. But they do have something in common why they're in the same building. portrait of the emblem like the heirloom and I try to sense if there's something else going on what do I what do I do for that? You can do an arcana check if you want or you can do... Oh my god, minus one. I can do an arcana check it's plus eight for me. Okay. So is Leora even here? Yeah. There was no What are you processing all that? What are you processing it on? No, my heart's hurting. Oh, okay, okay. We can only see it. We can sleep. We can leave on a... Yeah, on this note we can leave it. At least tell me something happened. 6 hours down. Yeah. Wait, does this Arcana check lead anywhere or should she try? Um... This leads upstairs, that's it. We can end the session. So there's like a... There's like... Yeah, as you do the Arcana check, there's like sparkles... Like, going from the painting. From the painting... Towards... Upstairs. I would love a recap on the portraits. So it's your father and your concubine. Next time. So it's an Android.
