Session Summary

The party begins with chaotic gambling on a spin wheel using life essence and HP, with Kanjak sacrificing 5 HP for mediocre prizes including a magical paint bucket and extendable rod. They explore the crypt, discovering marbles trapping prehistoric animals, releasing a loyal blind Siamese cat named Dunder Dunder. They find more life essence, an unconscious swordsman amid ghoul corpses, stabilize him, and store him in a pocket dimension. A mysterious moving painting of Josephine reveals lies about her nature, linked to Sir St. George. They stealthily loot gold-plated warlock armor and a sword from a sleeping creature's lair, noting a connection to George. Emerging into Trolls' Claw, they encounter a dying village plagued by drought and ghouls. They revive dehydrated villagers, uncover notes about Sophia and Jeffrey, find fresh food hoarded in one house, and fall through a trapdoor in another, rescuing mute Madeline who signs that village chief Jeffrey is hoarding supplies. They breach his secret underground base, confronting him with suppliers as the session ends.

Session Transcript

I don't even see the character Disservia is hearting. It's Minerva. I don't know why I have pictures in Jordan for some reason. That is interesting. I'm not hiding the incubus in the other room, don't worry. Wait! Get your dirty ass away from it. Okay guys, it's time to reveal what you guys got from the spin the wheel. Oh, the jackpot. Yeah, the jackpot. Wait for the prize first. Okay, so the prize is A magical paint bucket. What? What? A magical paint bucket. Oh, did you draw something when it comes to life? Basically, yeah. So, it has seven uses. Just seven? I know what to make. The Serbian will agree. Hold on! Hold on, let me finish. Seven uses as in like if you're making something small, it can be like very small like a door or a window or a bucket or even a chaapi. You can... it will only be one use and if it's something like a boat, a bridge or something, then it's two uses. Something that's massive like a house then it's three uses. Something that's massive? Yes, you heard me. Something that's like 30 feet. 30 feet dildo would be... 30 feet dildo? Yeah, that would be fair. Okay. What did you say about the mess opinion? I think it should only be like 30 feet. That means like... That would be 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 blocks. 6 by 6 blocks. Then it's 3 uses. There. So... Does everyone understand? Kanjak wants to spin the wheel again. How much life essence did you guys use? I gave you 15 right? I wrote it down. We had 10 remaining. Can I give my stats like something as in skill? No no no no no HP HP and any other option? Memory Yeah you have to sacrifice your intelligence Memory loss is like uh... What are you gonna sacrifice? You have memory! You have to distribute! This is a secret to sacrifice other things, okay? Are you gonna sacrifice or hide? Okay. Yeah, sure. Okay, Kanjak, watch the stream. What the fuck is happening with the stream? It's Jekko time. What is he giving up? What's happening? You want to use the life essence or your HP or like whatever? If I use my life, how much life I will use? We have a jar that has 10 life inside. Like souls, I guess. They count as one hit point each. How much did you guys, like you guys do? We originally had 15. Disturbia initially used her hit point and then she got rid of Kerenin's memories and then... Kube was ready to sacrifice. Wait, what's happening? You were lagging. Oh, got down. No, no, Nugget wasn't Disturbia. Basically, Disturbia... Wait, I don't remember what Disturbia did, but I was ready to sacrifice myself and everything just to gamble. Bro, I literally have wild magic. Should I? It's so wild! It doesn't matter. I mean, gamble is your life, but you haven't won anything yet. At least I'm not a treat. True. Okay. So are you gonna use... How many times do you want to... Spin the win? One hit point is one spin. Yes. Yeah. Are you using your own or the life essence? At least five. Come on man, at least five. At least five. Let's do at least one for now and then I'll sink. No! Pussy. No, what the fuck? You're using your hit point or you're using the life essence? It's the same thing! Did you guys use your... ...points? Or you can even use any memories as well. Like you can save these life essences if you want. Memories that have happened during the campaign. Like Disturbia removed memories of Klock's character. Should I do that? That would be rude. Rude? To who? I mean, is Kloch gonna come back? No, he's not. Okay, then I'll do it. Okay, he's gonna get up Kedon's families. You'll have to recite. Oh my god, no hesitation. Okay, so... That'll be just arranged Kedon's families. That's depressing. Okay, so let's remove Kloch. Spin the wheel. Just remove clock. I mean from memory. What is that, boo? That means nothing. It means it's ass. You got a winner. You got nothing. You know, I will sell... I guess my coins. If you can remember anything specifically about Klock's character We'll count that as another role. Like anything, any moment, I don't know. I mean I just deleted him from my life now, what would I remember? You used your life right now or did you? No, he said he deleted his own existence. No, it's more so like memory as an event basically not like an event a memory that we all have playing with Karen basically. I mean unless you want it to be there. You just delete Karen's existence entirely. Didn't we do that? Actually, actually I kind of I didn't say that properly. My bad. So it's basically if you have any recollection of what happened between you and... I don't remember the thing right now. It's been a while. Yeah, looks the spindle wheel worked, guys. Okay. You can use one life essence if you want for now. Kanjak, we found a jar that had 15 life essence that count as one hit point each. That's not gonna count as your specific hit points. We used 5 of them so there's 10 remaining in the jar. So you can use one of those if you want. Let's use 5 more! Fuck you! He got the Khabib mentality. Kanjak, Kanjak, Kanjak, look. 5 of the life essence. We already got the Jekport, huh? We could get it! Also, you never know if you're ever gonna get more life essence. Inchallah we'll get some more. 5 life essence and 5 of your HP. Yoda can seduce the incubus to get the life essence. Okay, yeah. So, 5 life essence. He's using 5 life essence and 5 of his HP. Really? Okay. Ten pulls? First you were ten pulls. What? Okay. No going back! I'm losing my hit points forever? Forever? Yes, forever, forever. That was permanent. Yes! So I will have 33 HP, right? Fuck it. Alright? Hell yeah! My gold. My gold, Leo, Asheville. Oh no! It has to be 1 out of 10. Just to confirm, he used his own HP, right? Yeah, I used Kubev's HP. No, I used mine. No, what is this? Wait, is he doing a 10-4? Yeah. Okay. You're never gonna get that HP back! We're doing 5 life lessons and 5 of your own HP now. You've started to go to- You don't get anything even after that. Oh no! Stop, stop! Stop! Fuck you! Oh no! Bro, I got excited. The start of our session with a gamble is just insane by the way. At least one or two. That's 5. That's all the essences. Hold on, I love anything. Keep going, really. Keep going, I love that. Let's do like one by one. We are going one by one, we don't have a choice. I mean there is one by one. We're not doing a major time pool here. Okay, so this is going to be six. This is your first hit point. It's literally edging you know. Not even the mid tier. I love how you got the jackpot before the mid tier. Which was funny. That's minus 2. That's minus 2. Okay, one more. What? What is my luck? Okay, last. Last? Okay. Last. That's what I tried again. and then 10 more. One more. One more. One more. One more. Oh my god, Kanjak. I'm gonna be putting a stop to this. This is the last. Wait, is that a mid tier? No. Wait, no. Oh my god. That's minus 4? That's minus 5. No, that's minus 5. You are never getting this HP back. Just saying. Get him to 38 points. Get him to 38 points. You want to Kanjak? I'm hitting this one. One last? That's six. I'm hitting three more. Okay. Consummit. Canjaga, at least that's something. You're not here really. Yeah, that's something. Okay. One more. No! I'm stopping you here. I don't know. 99% of the game is down to 32 HP. Yeah, I should have 32 HP now. Are you gonna delete it from there or just do the damage? Whenever you're in the barrel, we'll just assume you have 6 HP. Yeah. I already did that. Yeah. I have my sickles so you don't have to think of my mind. By the way you can never heal this bad. Why are you on top of the game? Ok, what were we doing? That wasn't gambling. Yeah, you were in the crypt and then you found the jars. Yeah, the jars. Now what do we do? Can we find more jars like that? I don't know. I have no idea. That means yes. Maybe. Who knows? Oh, that means yes. What are we doing? Oh wow, guys, pause. How do we get out of here? What were we doing? I forgot completely. The exit is the other way. Always remember. Oh yeah, we came down here What's here? We came in from this door, right? What the fuck is going on? What happened? What were those things? What things? Oh, the circles? This? Like this? Yeah! If you double click the map, it just shows up. There we go. You can easily ping shit then. Like, they didn't have this before. Did it? Yeah, we just found it. We used to do this. Should we leave them? If you're done with this? Oh, you can see mine? Yeah, I'm getting teleported out of here. Who's using my fucking... Okay? Someone was moving my camera around, what the fuck? Yeah, no, I think you were following the ping. Whoa, who's doing that? What is the fireball? Wait, what is that? Is that a tornado? Ignore that, what the fuck? What is that? Wait, what is that spell? Wait, what is that spell? What is that spell? How do I get rid of it? It's fine, we can ignore it probably. This is where we came from I think. No. No. I think it's... Yeah, this is not where we came from. We came from up here. They're here! No! Yeah, we came from here. Is the enceiver still there? Oh, Nyx! No! Oh, where is my... Toto? My niblet? Toto? Oh my god, I need to give you guys the mid-tier reward. Yeah. Go! I just sacrificed for it. What is happening? What is happening? You know those rods? that when you press a button on top it extends. Yeah, that I need to lift up a fugitive stick. You got that? It can hold any weight and it can defy gravity. Ooh! Ooh! Like, if you put something on the rod, it will stay on it. Like, magnetically, kind of. And you can use it maybe as a ladder, a bridge, How long is it? It can be as long as you want. What? That's so good. Yeah. What are you guys doing now? What about this room? We haven't been to this room bro. What is happening? They have not explored that area yet. What is the circle by the way? Hello? Let me just delete that. Whoever disturbed you. Okay. It was a mistake. We can look in here, I guess. What about... Oh, this is the... Oh, this is where the guy was... Yeah, so... Do... Do an investigation check, guys. If you want to explore that. Where is... Where is investigation? There it is. Boom! Yes, investigation! Whoever gets a D20... Gets a date with... Boris. Okay, fuck off! You said that after that. I already lost it. Minus one. Okay, I'll give you a date with an end. Oh, look, shark! An end. Girl, girl, get me out. Oh, Oh wait, that's not... Wait, that's the second one. That's not a 20, that's a 18. That's a second one too. I don't read the line. Okay, so you guys find in this area there is... What is it? It's a bag that has marbles in it. Marbles? Yes, very suspicious looking marbles. No, no, no, no, no. Can you use the marbles to gamble? Suspicious. No. You can do a perception check to see what they are. Who has the perception? I am 0. I am like plus 10 arcana. Can I use that? You can. Plus 10? What a heal. I wrote a perception. Oh 18 okay. Okay so like if you take a closer look inside the marbles you see miniatures of animals inside. Yeah these animals are not like ordinary animals it's like wild threatening animals like lion like not lions actually Let's think of it as the Ice Age kind of like there's a saber-toothed tiger there, there's a mammoth in there, there's a fucking... What else is... I mean there are other things but I'll leave it up in the store. What if we break them? You can try. What about my 27? Your Kana check? Oh. What about my sixes? What about Scrat bro? Scrat in Red Jar? Can we throw a marble? You can throw a marble, yes. At whom? At whom? Go ahead, take it. Whoever wants to throw a marble. Why are they all distinct? They are distinct. Each marble has an animal inside. Can we choose a miniature? Just pick a marble. I'll just pick one for you. You guys wanna throw a marble? No. Throw it at the mummy. Alright, let's do it. Oh no. You threw the marble, I assume? Yes. Yes. Okay, you have to say it. So basically nothing happened. Oh, so we just wasted the marble. No, no, no. Nothing happened as if the marble is still there. Oh. Yeah, you throw the marble, but nothing happens. I like how you make it so suspenseful and then say, oh nothing happens. I'm not the one making it suspenseful. Yeah, your arcana check. You notice that there is a spell on the marble. Like someone cast spells on the marble. Yeah, that's it. These animals are basically trapped with a spell. Would you like to try that? What if that unbinds the spell? Firebolt is gonna unbind the spell. Are you going to firebolt a specific marble or the whole thing? A specific marble. I want to do it. I want some action. Okay. The ball... Are you picking a marble now? I think you guys should back off a little bit. You guys are leaving Leora all alone with the marbles. Her decision to be blasted. Dinda is on their left bro. There's no Dungeons & Dragons anymore. I'm leaving. I'm leaving. There's no they, them, she's. Okay. I'll stand here. I'll fight Marble them. So... Okay, so you pick a marble and inside is a cat. No, you will! Oh no. So what Leora does, she throws the marble at the wall, the corner, the idiot. Yeah. And then she picks up... And it bounces back. I want you to do a performance check so you can actually hit that one. Oh shit, I think I'm gonna miss that. Performance check? Yeah. Okay. You hit the fireball. But it bounces right back at you. As if it deflects the marble. But It's twice the damage. Roll a 1d6. Bro, can I? Bro, what is this? What's happening? Luckily for you, you take 4 damage. Old habits know already I'm not like. While that's happening, can I look through my grimoire to see if there's like a spell that does this? By the way, is this a door where I am? There's not a door but you can investigate that area. Can I use... nevermind. No more fireballs. No, someone come investigate this, please. Oh, balls. Well, unfortunately. Uh, DM, can I look through my grammar to see if I can find a spell that does whatever the animals have gone through? Yes, you can. I would like you to do... What was the check? Hold on. Was it history? Anyways. Uhhh hold on let me see... I'll do an investigation check in the meantime! Bro where's my date with Boris? It's not it's not it's... Oh 20? No... Where's my date with Boris? The date with Boris unfortunately was only for the first role. You don't want me to be happy. Unfortunately for you, if you did that before, you would have gotten it. But yeah. But... They have to put suddenly a foot out of nowhere. It is naked glory. You get a whisper from Boris. A whisper? What? A what for Boris? A whisper. This is a whisper. Oh my god, let me... Slash W. Let me see if it even works. Hold on. Does it even work? I don't know. I didn't get anything. I can't believe I don't want a day 20 on that. Where were we? I was doing something, right? You were trying to give me a whisper from Boris, apparently. Before that... Before that, I wanted to look through my Grim War for a whisper. The Grim War. Oh yeah, the Grim War. I was checking which check you would do for that. It was a history check, wasn't it? Just do a history check. Where's my history? What are we investigating here by the way? She ordered a 21. Oh yeah, 21. There is... What should I give you guys that is worth your time? Where's my best friend from? Another Camelot. Another Camelot. Sure. Two more life essence. Wait, you have two life essence? Wait, plus two? I'm keeping that. Yes sir. Okay. And you find that there is a spell that lets you trap animals inside objects. And in order to Break the spell... You have to dip the water... Not dip the water... Dip the marble in water. Where's water? You have a waterbender right here. Do you have a waterbender? Yeah, Suburbia is a water vendor. Oh damn, Suburbia. When did this happen? Even he forgot. I forgot to have a water spirit. You have a water spirit. Yes, that's my patron. Anyways. Okay, what the fuck should I do? You can dip it in water. Yeah. Or you can generate water. Oh yeah. I mean, I know I have a spill for that. The thing is, if we just dump all the marbles, they're just gonna go back to their original size, the animals. So I'd rather we not do that. Yeah, and then we... Yeah, we're not sure if they're gonna be friendly. Down here. Down here, essentially. Yep. We'll find a place. I mean we can we can dump the water like we can do it on the cat marble. There was a cat marble, no? Oh yeah. It's gonna be. Yeah. Okay. Okay. So you want to take the cat marble out? Yeah, we'll take the cat marble out. Yes. Where's next? Okay. Do what you shall. Say what you shall. Hold on, what is that spell? Create water? Literally called create water. I was talking about Prestid... Prestid... Oh my god. Prestid... Yeah, whatever that is. No, it just cleans everything. It doesn't... Yeah, that doesn't create water. You can just create water. Alright, let me see. Oh yeah, I have create water. I'll just do that. Alright, time to shower. Shower, I'm just holding the cat marble in my hand. Okay, you are holding the cat marble? Yeah. Okay. So the water comes out of your hands and the marble materializes into a cat and This cat is a Siamese cat and it has eyes that are completely black as if it's blind or something but it seems to be very loyal to Dernovir and as it clings to their leg and jumps on their antlers I have my own Nixie! I have my own Nixie! What should I name her? I'll just name her Dunder Dunder. Why not? Dunder Dunder the cat. Then what do I call you? Anyways... Yeah, call me by my real name. Well, not real name but my character's real name. Iman Abasi. You're real name. Abdullima Abasi. Abdullima Abasi. You just broke my immersion, you piece of shit. Broker out of cash. Anyways, what about the two life lessons? Did you guys use it? This whale guy is lame as fk. You can fight whale for it if you wanted to, but let's not. My god, it's fine. I'll forgive whale for having a cute cat. Okay, so all of you want to leave or does anyone want to do anything else here? DM, where's my whisper from Boris? There was a room. Where? Oh yeah, where's the whisper by the way? Oh yeah, the whisper. I don't know how the DM works. You can just DM it to me. Yeah, true. I just wanted it to be, you know, nice. It's okay. Listen, no one's gonna know. If you do it, he's gonna show up in the session. I don't know if I'm ready for it. Oh, how did you do that? How can you show that? Oh, I did that. What? Wait, why did I say hi to you as Durnavir? Astri can you see the message? No I can't! Okay okay okay, it's fine man, it's fine. That works. What the fuck? There was another room, was there not? Bro, I'm minus 10 HP already. I didn't even start a fight. Bro, I broke a belt. Hey, not my fault. Anyway... Oh my god, fuck off. Oh, hey, boy, she's doing it. Morena. Hey, tell me what he wants to tell you guys. You seem very fleshed. It's not even anything that big. It says, I hope to see you again. Maybe when things settle down. Oh damn. This is a marriage invitation. Not invitation. This is a marriage concession. Okay, so... Durnevere will be in charge of the Duhlki. Rael will be in charge of the Duhlki. Rael will be the Duhlki. Valeema is the engagement ceremony. Valeema is the engagement ceremony. Valeema is the engagement ceremony. I know that Valima is a girl but it's like where the girl's family comes to see them. No? No. I thought Valima was a girl. Valima happens after Shadi. I know, I know. What do you mean? Why would they look after Shadi? No, no. The girls are like a girl. What is happening? We are not having a wedding. Let's move on. He started arguing over my- Oh, I think I disconnected. Yeah, I disconnected. Oh my god. Enjoy! I should reconnect. Hello? Hello? Hello? Hello? Hi! Yeah, anyways, let's continue with the session. Yes, please. Oh, I didn't even realize I was using this entire time. Are you guys leaving? Yeah. Okay, just confirming. Okay, where was... What is this? What is this? What is the middle thing? Bah! Yes. Run T for history or investigation? No, no. Yeah, here it is. Nibbler. Yeah, I don't know. My nibbler. Oh, you probably left it with Lily. The Nibbler. No, no, no. Nibbler is... What is this Z and V? The letters, the letters! The letters! Are they supposed to be dead? Yeah, yeah, they've... It was part of the puzzle. Where is Kanjook's character? They're right, they're right in front of me. There you go. I have an idea. If we are ever in a fight, like a difficult fight, we can summon one of the animals from the marbles. I think. Yeah, you can. By the way, there's only five marbles left. No, six marbles. You said there were seven marbles, no? No, that was 7 uses of paint. No, that was way far. You said 7 marbles, no? That was the paint, Mr. Birr. No, but you said that like... Oh no, other hand up and left. Other hand up and left. You remember the paint? Like I was talking about the paint, you can use it 7 times. And what about the marbles? The marbles, there were 6 of them and now it's 5. Can I do it? Is there a pathway here or is this a something? All roads apart from the one you came from are blocked. Oh yeah, I have a crown. I'll wait for you. The hooks maps dot com. Yeah. And I have 200 gold. You guys want to stay here and stay here and stay here and stay here and stay here and stay here. What are those souls? Guys, let's go this way this time. Yippee! That way leads... That way is like a very long pathway. It's a very long pathway. That slowly You reach a place that has a lot of staircases and the dim lighting of this area is gone and now it's like you can see more of the light. Now it's more of the sun basically. What about the upper area? Is he really a dota? No. Or a... Or a Reven? In the Reven? I feel like we are missing somebody. Hold on, where is Minerva? We are missing the pets. Oh. Where is Minerva? Which one is going down or up? Where did it become him? Become... Look at what's happening down there. There's so much blood. Yeah, and it's leading to that cave. I have a bad feeling about this. Did we come from here? Didn't you say that? Yeah, we came. You came from the bottom place. Like it's the edge of the river. So do you want to go up or check out the cave? Should we check out the cave? Uh... Where is Ari? I don't think... Ari? Or she has 5,000? 5,000 enemies. So which pathway are you deciding to go? I mean if we go down in the cave, most likely there's gonna be a fight, no? Or if I'm short of... Yeah, no shit. Let's wait for a raid, I guess. Let's do a vote, I guess. Yeah, let's go. Yo guys, who wants to play Tic Tac? Broder now. Tic Tac! Let me get him on this bro. Hold up bro. Oh shi-t! Oh shit, Disturbia, you crooked or what? Oh shit, I win! Hello? The fuck? Wait, wait, wait, wait. Hello? Hello? I don't know what the fuck is happening. I don't know what happened. You're gonna see like, for 10 minutes straight, me struggling on the recording because nothing was loading. And I don't think anyone could hear me. Yeah? No, she's lagging again. Hello, I'm here. I hate Discord with such a fucking passion. We're disconnected. I can't even reconnect, mashallah. How was SQL, Bok? Is it Serbia? Yeah. Serbia, you said in database systems You're gonna do ERD, Normalization, SQL and Transaction in your third semester? No, I said that we're gonna do database in the fourth semester. You're gonna do database in the fourth semester? Yeah, we're doing data structure. How the hell did my university made me do database management system in the first semester? No, because you're comparing developed country to Pakistan. I mean yeah, this name is very outdated. Am I bad? Aries, can you help? Or who needs help? Me? Yes, I can hear you. Okay, I'm gone. I don't know what's happening. I wrote help, I wrote help. Okay, I think we're fine. What are we doing? Is everything fine? I think so. Aries, do you see the map? I see it I see it. So if you wanna go down, that's a cave area. All the blood is, so you wanna go up and save it. Yeah we're doing a vote. You know the general idea is not to go with this blood. Yeah but... who wants to go down? I can't hear a rage. I can. Maybe rejoin. Oh, naman, naman, naman, naman, naman, naman. It was your volume. I was asking who wants to go down. Not me. Nibblet. Nibblet and Nogic. By the way, I need to tell you like, where the blood is, there's like a lot of ghoul corpses. It's not exactly a fight there. It's like, like, Outside the cave there's like lots of these corpses that are cut down. Who cut them down is the real question and are they still in the cave? It's ghoul corpses by the way not human corpses. Just saying. Poor ghouls. No. Are you saying that there is a... So why are the ghouls breathing? I mean if there's a story then there's like more incentive to make a choice. I'm a Gadi. Gadi is. Do we have a board and have an idea? First do an Arcana check. Where am I bro? The fact that everyone is... Morena? Minerva? Oh no, shit. Minerva. Should I? Can we look outside the cave first? Ok, so has everyone decided? Go to the cave. Let's see. Khobab wants to do an Arcana, check. Outside the cave? Investigate. Investigate? Yeah. Yeah, I think Nugget should do the Arcana because... Plus 10. Okay, that didn't do shit. You went for a question. Pick him, bro. Yeah. What about a perception? Oh, there we go. That can work too. I got a 22 in investigation. Okay. Okay. I mean, investigate. These bodies are very well cut down as if someone who is a master swordsman would fight them. Oh wait, is the blood fresh? The blood looks like... From your perception you can see that it's probably a day old. This is definitely that guy from the 60s by the way. Definitely that guy. Yup, that guy from the creepy guy bro. He wasn't a swordsman. He didn't look like a swordsman. He had another type of sword though. So are you guys going in or? Let me open it up for you. Oh shit. I forgot I signed up for Sardar. Do we have a healer? Now that the clock is gone. Healer? Serbia is a healer. Kinda. Kinda. Makeshift healer. The cave is small by the way. Now that everyone is here, I can describe what's happening. So basically, you see more of those corpses inside and by the way that flame is actually not there, it's just on the map. Basically the camp is completely dried out, there's nothing there and everything's a mess and blood splattered everywhere What is this thing? That is a barrel No, that's a bore Why is there a hole in the middle? Wait, are those tentacles? No, wait, those are roots. Yes, there are tentacles one time. Where? Did you mean intestines? Hey, what the fuck are you doing? Where? I did a pet now. Those are roots though. Is there a dead Octobus? Those are roots of a tree. What if you... What if the bridge breaks and you fall down? And what about this hole right here? There's a lot happening. I did a perception on the board by the way. Oh, you did a perception? Ganyu. Hello, can you reconnect already please? Is Astri here? I think Astri is here. Hello? I'm back. What did I miss? What do you remember? Habam was doing a perception check on the boar. There was a ghoul that was eating the boar and the ghoul is also nice. And the room smells like ass. Of course it does. Why are there two-and there's a body. Where is my little? Where is my little? Can someone go check out the chest? You turn over the body and it appears to be barely alive. It's a man who seems like he's tired and also bleeding out. Oh shit. Does anyone know medicine here? You're the healer. Bleeding out. You're the healer. His eyes are closed and what else? What was I gonna do? I was gonna tear off a part of my rope so I could stop the bleeding or something. You can do a medicine check I think it lets you do that. Who has the best medicine check? I have a plus one. I have a plus one. I have a plus one. The whale is a...whatever is he? A wizard, right? So his wisdom must be high. We can do a medicine check. My medicine is plus two. I have a press conference. I'll try to stop the bleeding. Uhhh hold on let me... Make him bleed even more! Guys do something! Guys do something! God this is chaos! Okay... What did you guys do again? Oh! Wait! Hold on! Wow! That's 22! You were able to successfully stop his bleeding. I like him, bro. And... Vale wanted to save this man more than going on a date with the... Yeah, let me show you what the man actually looks like. Just take a random game Oh yeah, I just opened Pinterest. This works. Oh, this works. Oh my god, it's... Wait, that's... Just think of him that he looks like Chuyuan. Hold on. One second. Apparently it's only... Okay, never mind. I'm not gonna use this. I'm sending the person who he meant in the general chart. You're sending the person? Choochoo and they don't know now who that is. Very pretty. Oh, I see. This could be the swordsman who killed all of them. What is this? This works, I guess. I'm not gonna put this in the friendly NPC. He's the one that's bleeding out that you just killed. Wait, isn't he the one who killed everyone? All the ghouls? Yeah, he's a swordsman, so I'm guessing. Ow. Okay. Okay, you stop the bleeding. Yeah, yeah, I let's reset that. So ask your questions, I mean, whatever questions you guys have. No, the man is like not conscious. He just stopped the bleeding. No, spray water on him. Girl, we literally have a patient right here. Can you not heal him? Unfortunately, this cannot be just healed and he'll be conscious again. Yeah, I know but at least... Will a slap work? Can I do a strike check? No, don't worry. Wait, is he like under a spell or under a curse? No, no, he's just tired. He's not under a curse. You can do a perception check. Again? Okay. Yeah. What if I do whiskey check? What's gonna happen? You notice that he is breathing properly. He just is absolutely tired and cannot for the life of him wake up right now. Let me just let him sleep man. I will carry him on our back. Is there a way to get rid of his tiredness? There is a chest Can I just put him in the book? Which box are you opening? That one? Okay. A tiefling has to think about themselves, okay? I don't think you're even thinking about yourself. You're just thinking. Can someone do an investigation on this chest? The big one? The main chest? Hello? That chest is locked. So you wouldn't- Nevermind, it's not locked. It's not locked. I told you. Just because you got a 20, it's not locked anymore and you are able to see what's inside and it's... How about you open the other chest and I'll tell you what's inside that one. I'm thinking of something. Oh my god, he's... yeah, the suspense. No, no, I did it for that one. The small chest, I got a 22. Oh no, I got a... wait, no, what did I get? That chest has 300 gold guys! How do I add a role in management? Oh, now I might not figure it out. 300? I am a greedy elf. Hello? Hello, yes. Okay, I was saying the other chest has a painting inside. Painting? Painting? This painting appears to be moving. There's like... Oh my god, Morganiza? No, a woman dressed in white in a night landscape in the fields and her hair is moving around in the wind. Oh, it's like a loop of running? It's like one of those paintings in Harry Potter. Yeah, the moving painting in the hall. So do we keep it or...? The woman is looking at you guys. Can I? Can I? Can I? Charisma her bro? Charisma? Nooo, you can talk if you want. You can do a performance check. What do you want to do to talk to her? Nooo, no. No, there's no check, you can talk to it. What are you trying to perceive? I guess with your perception, you notice that this painting has been locked here for a very long time. as if it's like a highly valuable... Yeah, it's very highly valuable and it can be traded off for a lot of gold. What if the woman is trapped there? Ask her, bro. Okay, are you trapped, miss? The woman looks at you and is concerned and she says she is but a painting. But the look on her face suggests otherwise. Oh, that's not good. We have to persuade her, I think. We have to persuade her. Persuade her? I mean persuade her into telling us the truth. What are you gonna say? Listen, miss. We look like a trusty bunch. You can trust us with anything. Listen, ma'am. Listen here, miss. You can trust us with your life. Unfortunately, I don't know what to tell you. I am telling the truth. I am just a painting. You don't have to look deep into it. and she says it with a depressing expression. Can we throw the painting in the water? Oh, the painting in the water. Did you say that out loud? Keep your intrusive thoughts to yourself, Leo Ran. Oh shit. Then the painting responds, then like, oh dear, you wouldn't do that to a lady, would you? But somebody might sell you to a trader or something. She says she would be delighted. I am not saying anything. She would be delighted to be sold?

That's so sad. Yes. But her look says otherwise. There's something going on, something weird is going on. Did we fail the persuasion? We failed the persuasion check. Yeah, you did the persuasion. It didn't work like you intended. Okay. That's another step. Go on with your life. What are you gonna say exactly? What do you mean by you were just a painting? You were like, ooh. Are you trapped? Does someone trap you? No, of course not. Why would you think that? I was painted by Sir Saint George. That's it. Sir Saint George... And all you think about is getting sold? Well, that is the mere purpose of me, I guess. Your fearsome otherwise. My face? What do you mean? The look on your face, it says that... Well, you must be seeing things, you know. Who is Sir St. George? Sir St. George is a renowned artist. How have you not heard of him? And where is that renowned artist? Like, is he from Waterdeep? Because... It's mostly where the renowned Andes are from. Why yes, he is. I have never heard of him. I suppose it has been a few years. I don't know how long, but I've been here for quite some time. Lady Nioh like that painting. What? By the way, is that easy? I don't think so. No, she said BRB. How did a painting like this end up in a chest in an abandoned cave or something? Well, I'm not entirely sure. One day I was just laying on a wall and suddenly it went dark. Now I'm here. Laying on a wall? Like where? I wanna do an insight check. Like I wanna look deeper into her mind. If that's even possible. If that's even possible. You notice that the whole time it appears her face seems like she's lying. Oh my god, I knew it. Then what do I do now? She's not willing to tell us the truth. Do I just persuade her? When you do inside, it gives you another dialogue, right? You have to say the dialogue, not me. Listen lady, I don't know what's going on but something seems off about you. There's something you're not telling us. I've already told you there's nothing much in it. I'm just a painting. Can you do an intimidation check bro? Intimidation? Yup, I'll do it. Oh my god. What are you gonna say? Listen lady, if you do not tell us the truth, I'm throwing that painting in the water and you'll be gone forever. Who is this depressing self-suicidal? Who ever painted you so much? What are you saying? Me? Yeah, you did the persuasion check. We are... Good question. This is one long dialogue with a Patriot guest. Bro said, um, good question and mispersuaded. Good question. I mean, she was probably sold to someone, right? Sold? You're asking her? No, no, I'm just thinking. She was probably sold to someone and she ended up there. If you don't want to tell us how she ended up there. Persuasion doesn't work. Maybe you can tell her if she... You can ask her if she tells the truth then we can not try to get her back to her painter. Yeah. What's your name? My name? My name is Josephine Josephine? You want to go back to where you came from? What do you mean by that? The museum? Yes, the museum No, the painter The painter? Wait, that's not the lady by the way. Why speak George? Well, I'd be delighted actually. What does her face say? She said she'd be delighted. It still looks like she's lying. What if she was painted that way? What is the title of this painting? The Liar? I... I just... Josephine, The Liar. I have a question. Who are you running from in the picture? Running? Who were you? Yeah, who were you running from in that dress? What is the meaning of you? Your existence? Let me try to describe it more because I think... So she was... She's just standing in the field. It's night time and she's wearing a white dress that looks like... Let me just give you an example. I think it will give a lot away. Yeah, this is perfect actually. Oh my god. So I mean like wasting time? In real life she would look like this. Face and all. Are you based on a real person? Or are you just a painting? Like a fictional person? Well, I am just a painting darling. Yeah, but I am just based on a real person. Maybe somebody close to the painter? I highly doubt that. Do you want to get out of the painting? Out? What do you mean? Yeah, simply just leave the painting. Lonely well... I don't experience life the same way you do. I don't know the concept of loneliness. Kappa. Her face is lying again, I know. Can we just burn the picture? Can you what? Destroy the picture? Yeah, can you just burn the picture? Let's wait for the smart person in this room by the way. The smart person? Smart person. I mean, we could take a break right now because I think it's been an hour. By the way, is this the way or are we wasting time? Wasting time? I'm saying is this the way or are we wasting time on the painting? Remember in the carnival where there were three babies stacked up on top of each other? I mean, I don't think he's supposed to tell us that. This is your journey, you are exploring the area. You are supposed to find your own way. You know the funny thing is we aren't even focusing on the unconscious man lying beside us but we are more focused on the painting. It's the human mind, it gets curious when it sees something unusual. Maybe I should not have made a painting out of my ass. That was out of your ass? Oh my god. Yeah, I literally did not plan that. Why are all our checks failing on the painting? Failing? They're not failing. That's the thing. It's also failing because she's not telling a shit. It's not giving you the desired output but for the painting it's working as it should. Yeah but she's still lying. She looks like she's still lying. Yeah. Josephine the liar. Do they call you Josephine the liar? Are you asking? Yeah. Liar? Well... I wouldn't say that. That's a bit too... It's a bit of an insult. And then what do they call you? What is the title of this painting? Well... I'm not sure to be honest. I've never... I've never been told what my name was. I mean, I know I'm Josephine, but I don't know what... Let's put this painting dumbass on hold until the person that can ask actual questions is here, okay? Otherwise we're gonna be here for another hour. Yeah, you can keep the painting in the pocket dimension. Yeah, we can go to the dead person. Yeah, the dead person that does not die but like Who wants to carry him around? Put him in my pocket dimension? Yes. You want to put him in the pocket dimension? Yeah, put him in my pocket dimension and then he gets better. The person? Does that even work? The painting? Yeah, you can put the person. Oh, she's low my head to those smart guys. Ask questions please. What happened to the next question? Basically we found a painting who has been lying out of the ass every single time we say anything. She's lying every time we say anything? We have tried every check, persuasion, inside whatever but she just doesn't give us a clear answer she's like I'm delighted to just be sold or I will be happy if you give me back to webmaster or whatever but like her face looks like she's lying so yeah even though I intimidated her but she was like nah if that's what you desire then go ahead she does not give a shit basically okay so I didn't miss anything because that was what was happening when I left yep That's what was happening for half an hour. So now you can ask your questions. What have you already asked her? If she's based on a real person or if she wants to get out or what else did we ask her? That she wants to leave the painting. Yeah, that is the same as get out. We asked her if she wants to go back to her painter or we asked her name, the title of the painting and if she's lying and what else? How did she end up here? That's it. She said she was taken from a museum. Like she was on a museum wall and then suddenly everything went black and she ended up here. Oh, I guess she was stolen then. Yep. I mean, if nothing works, What do you expect me to do about it? There's a smart person here, hello? I'm the smart person? Look at this, dude. Canonically, yes. Canonically, yes, but I have negative 2 intelligence IRL. I don't know what you're doing, so I'm going to prove it. For now, how about we keep the painting with us? Let's talk to the guy or try to wake him up or something. The guy is unconscious. How do we wake him up? Is there a way? No. He's exhausted. He needs rest. He literally said he needs rest and now let's wake him up. Let's do his rest. I mean, it's been half an hour. The painting. And he's been here for a day. The roots? The thing is, it's a bit high up, you have to do an aflitex check to jump there. What if I feel I just fell down? If you can balance yourself on it. Bro, the smart person in the room. Oh my god. Let's go. You also have paint, guys. Oh yeah. But you can't use it that many times. Yes, limited use. That's not. Use the wrong. Hold up. I'll just use it. I'm wondering about the paint. That paint is like a 3D paint, basically. No, no. Now do an... not a slatix. Why? You have to balance on the rod. What's the point of the rod? Can I make it like two rods? You can. You can. Just use it. Let's go! Now what? You can investigate, yes. Yeah, well, absolutely nothing. You guys just keep on all games! You notice that these are just trees that have life essence in them. Like tree roots. Steal the life essence. Can we steal? No we can't steal. Can we? Oh wait don't. There was a spell in my Grim War World. Can I do that spell or not? What spell? Last time when we found the jar, I looked in the Grim War and we found a spell that can do that. Like turn I thought it was bad. Someone should investigate it, no? So you notice that Through the cracks of the roots there seems to be something on the other side. Like where it's dark. Oh so we can try to burn the roots and go through? Your first thought is always destruction. But we can like turn into gnomes. How do you unburn yourself then? After turning into one? There is a limit I think. There is like a time limit I think. Like are you able to do it? What happened? What happened? Wait how big is the hole? The cracks? How big? How big is what? The hole in the wall. No no no it's not the wall it's like through the roots of the tree like from like Can we not take shine? Can I use a glow stick? Glow stick? Where is such a glow stick at? Do not use darkness No shit, I can use the gambling magic hold up. Nooo! We don't need to do that. Yeah, he's about to... Wait, you're only gambling magic or the machine? Why? Yeah, he's about to name the planet. No, what we can do is burn the roots and go through. That's the simplest way. Can a gnome fit through the gap? A gnome? No, these are small gaps, very small. It's a Mage Hand. Mage Hand? If you can see through, yes, but it's dark. Wait, I can see through? I can see through. Whoever can see through darkness... Next man! I think... Astri said that the fans are not allowed You kicked my cat out of order. What if yes? We all have dark vision no? I think so. I don't remember. We all can see through the crack. Our dark vision should be like 16 feet or something.

You also have dark vision? Okay, you are right. You can use me too. But you don't see anything in the place exactly. It appears to be there's more corners to the room that you can't see because of perspective. But I have 60 feet dark vision. I can see. No, no, no. It's not that. It's like from where you're seeing, you can't see the whole place. Yeah, yeah. So, I mean you want to use a... Do what? Like burn the roof. Use fire, burn the boat and go through. You wanna use fireboard? Sure. You wanna burn the tree? No, we are fucked. What else do you wanna do then? I mean sure, go ahead, burn the tree. Whenever you wanted to do something with the mage hand, I need to see the mage and I wanted to explore but for that I need to see what is there. Does anyone not have light? I don't have it. Dancing lights, I don't know but that should help out. Yeah, it should help out though. Dancing lights... Wait, I don't have it. Dancing lights is... Can I use dancing lights inside? Yes. But you can already see inside, why do you need the light? No, but we don't have the angles, no? No, no, no. What I mean is like... We can already see inside, guys. You see inside? Let's say it's like a small cave area, but you don't see like... Because the cave area seems bigger than... How do I describe it, actually? Let me just draw it. Where the fuck is the drawing? Why are we... Why are we stuck? There. Are you saying we only see the edge and not like... It's like... It's like... We should just get rid of the tree at this point. Do something. Yeah Liora, do your magic. Ursula's burst with Firebolt. Whatever that's not gonna do damage to us. How about we stand all the way over here while Leora is down. Do you want to leave behind the patient? Firebolt is only 20 feet. We're taking the patient. We put him in the pocket dimension. Okay so Leora will use Firebolt from here. I am going to take that man over here. Lay him down. Crossfire? How are you? Crossfire? The man is in the pocket dimension. No! The man is not there. He is. They already put him in there. No! Take him out of there. You don't have a chance to cry. Let him rest. What is this Borila doing here? Bro, help us. I'm nervous. She was sitting on the rocks like very sassily. Do what you're gonna do. Say it out loud. I clench my hand and then I clench my ass. Say that lie! Are you thinking of something else? I have no idea what he is doing. Hello? He's taking his time. Is he gone? I don't think he's here. It appears Leora has I have Firebolt, would Firebolt work? I guess you can just do Firebolt to the tree roots. Hello? Okay, he's out, he can do it. So, Leora uses Firebolt of the vines and whatever the roots are. Boom! Now what? Okay, the roots begin to dissipate and die out with the fire and the room is revealed. Oh my god! No way! F! Okay, don't know where. What is this? Bro, it's ahead of me now. Damn! Inside... Inside... Oh my god! This creature appears to be sleeping right now. It appears to be sleeping! Yeah! Bye bye! I'm cautiously gonna... You're not supposed to know when something happens. You have to stay there. That's not how the game works. Do what? Do a performance? No, no, no, no, no, no. I'll tell you what. What exactly do you want to do then? I'll tell you what. Just blast him before you go for something. The best thing would be to get out of this room. But what about the treasure? I don't know your goblin instincts or I don't know your... Listen, I feel like if we touch the treasure, he's gonna wake up. This is what my instincts are telling me. So we need to deal with him first. Is he snoring? Ah yes. Is he snoring DM? Is he snoring? That's like very important. Yes, it is snoring and there's the... The boogie coming out. So you have chances? Chances with what? I'm not taking it. Pushing it off the cliff. Pushing it off? No, no, it's in the room. It's not near the... Where is Bruga? He's a bit shy. He's a bit shy. He's a bit shy. Minerva is actually not moving. That is just a bitch. Just kidding. How about we do a check to see what we can do with the game? Do a Kanjak? Yeah, do a Kanjak. Pull a Kanjak or something. Do a Kanjak? What does that mean? Just sneak over to the treasure. Just be stupid. Yeah, just do the thing you're just at. Leap over where? I have stealth plus zero. Someone... Does anyone have like... Plus in stealth or something? I have plus 4. Then you do it. Right now you are at the edge of the entrance right? Yeah. Okay okay. Just making sure. Just making sure because if you want to go in you would need to do checks. Okay, I'll do it. What checks? It would have to be a stealth check obviously. Yeah, go ahead Liora. Let Wael do it. Move. Oh, Wael? You guys are gonna get weak character. Because he has plus 4. He has plus 4 himself. Yeah, don't worry we got your back. We got your back. Yeah, we're at here. You should have gotta be the first one. Elenia, you have to stay here. Oh my god, I'm stuck Yeah, well quickly make your way, I mean stealthily make your way to the treasure and take it. Then the treasure is our one. Where is the treasure? Can you mark it? Like here? Yeah, right here. If you're at, I'm gonna say you are at the treasure right now. Okay, you can access the treasure. Okay. Uh, 1 second. Shit. What does he want to do? But the thing is we haven't had a fight since like so long. Even if we do end up in a fight, it's gonna be like you know, it's gonna be like practice warming up for a big one. Because I feel like there's a big fight going like coming up. Yeah, let's not do that actually. How bad does this guy hit? He accidentally wakes up. I feel like I'm gonna die. I can give you a very vague answer by doing something like this. Yeah, okay. You know what? I'm gonna go. I'm gonna leave. So he slaps like a bitch. No, no, no, no. Hold on, hold on, hold on. How about you do like a check to see if it's like if you touch the treasure, it's gonna like it might make him up. So maybe, you know, do a check first and then decide. Listen, do you not- can you not pick up the box with your fucking Mage Hand or something and bring it here? This is- this chest is rather heavy. Her Mage Hands can only take a ball. Ah yes. God. Um... So what are you guys doing? Are you gonna look inside the chest or are you just gonna stay there? I can look inside the chest, okay. I told you you were at the chest. You were literally at the chest. I didn't tell you guys. Okay, but before you look inside, make sure it's not a trap or something for the guy to- And then I would have- I would like you to do what kind of check? What card check? What will that be? Can I do an animal's perception check? Yeah, perception check. How alarming peanuts? Where's perception? Oh my god, this is gonna be bad. Who? Uh... It seems if... There's no trap door, there's nothing that's connected to the chest, there's no alarm. However... If you make noise of any kind, it will wake him up because the cave is very fucking loud if you say do anything. Astri I have a thing that I can probably do. Astri Oh my god, cast silence on him. Silence? What silence will I do? Astri I mean, it will never win. I thought there was some sort of illusion I could do to maybe... Okay... How fast can I run out if he wakes up? To run out you still have to do Astri I mean if you don't want to wake him up. If you want to wake him up then you can run. I don't want to wake him up. In the case he wakes up I What if we all go inside the room and then we have manpower? I mean we have manpower but what if you have to do like a fireball or something and then we won't have manpower anymore? We will be burned to Chris. Kill 4 turns to 1. I thought I could do 1. Very quietly trying to open the box, the chest, whatever it is. You love to do a stealth chest. I know. Where is my stealth? Okay, so what are you doing? Very quietly trying to open the chest, but if it makes a peep, I am stopping. Okay, you open the chest and it has two compartments. One is like a very small compartment and it contains a note and the other one It contains gold plated armor for warlocks and this... There's also a sword inside that's made of gold. I'm a wizard! Yes! You are! Do it for the homie! Do it for the homie! Wait, what does the warlock say? I am the warlock. Yeah. Drenavir is the warlock. It's gold! What does the note say? You pick up the note and it reads... For fuck's sake... Let me just type it out. That's what it says. This armor is gonna be cursed. I mean it has curse words. I'm sort of hinted that this bitch is gonna wake up. I'm running, you guys are fucking I would like to mention that this armor seems very very old and worn out so it can be worn, you can wear it but you have to mend it basically. Mending We have a mender here. No. This is what it is. Why am I waiting? Take the goddamn painting back George here take this armor you need it for what's coming. Wait George the same guy the painting mentioned. Yeah George the painter. Can I just quickly put the armor and the sword into the pocket dimension and quietly break my way out? Do I don't have to carry that shit? You can. But you need to do a strength check. A strength check? A strength check? Yes. Strength check followed by a stealth check? Bro, I have negative one! Yup, GG. Yes, cuz the gold will make sound. Do a stealth check as well. Blame your player. What if you don't? Is the armor worth it? We can just leave the armor man. Just leave the armor and just get out. If we have the note, we can show it to the painting. And like I feel like the painting is cursed or something. The artwork's coming though! It says to take the armor from the user. This is connected to the painting though, not gonna lie. Like the names. I wonder why. The work? This is connected to the painting. Yeah, it is connected. Yeah, so that's why we gotta know. But then also she's at risk. Can we not give her inspiration or something to increase her strength? We have inspiration, though. You can add, you can... You don't have inspiration but you can do what was it? Does someone enlarge? Someone what? Does someone has enlarge? Enlarge girl! Enlarge! That's not gonna do anything. But the thing is girl if you do that the monster is gonna wake up. She's gonna be bigger. and the stealth check difficulty will become higher. I think there has to be a better way, right DM? I'm not gonna suggest anything, I'm the DM. No, but you said something like, what about inspiration? You were saying something. Inspiration as in, I can bestow inspiration. What have you done, inspiration worthy? Vail got 20s 2 times. 3 times. So, inspiration. But this inspiration allows you to roll. I'll give you one more chance to roll if it's bad. This music is helping me make a decision. You have literally two people with two different answers. Wait, wait, let's just go for it. Let's just do it. Let's do it bro. Let's jolo it. I mean, what's the word? This by the way, the fact that I am willing to do this with the way my history has been. I don't like the fact that I'm trying to care for the party members here, but okay. Oh my god, I am running. We are not touching the armor. Oh, but what did you get? I got a 3 and a 5. So... I am not touching the armor. I can't even lift the armor bro. There's also a sword then. Can I just leave? Do we have to do like a Strand Jack and a Stealth Jack to lift the armor? Oh my god! Sadly yes. I mean, I mean, I'll leave the Strand Jack. You don't have to do it. Can I redo my Stealth? Yeah, you need to do a Stealth Jack to get the armor. Oh you...oh...oh...oh...I wasn't looking...I wasn't looking...what the f? She still has inspiration, you know? She still has inspiration, she can do it again. What happened to her? Lark, Rask. Wait! I did not see your rose. Why do you think I was freaking out? I don't know... Since you got rid of the strength check, listen DM, since you got rid of the strength check, she still has an inspiration left, right? She can still do... Yeah, yeah, yeah. Okay. Yeah. Sure. Oh my god! Oh my god! This is... Okay, so the creature opens his eyes but does not look towards you. It's just looking forward I'm down, forward and down and then falls back asleep. What? Why? So I successfully made it out? No, I don't care. No, you were running out right? Yes. Without the treasure? No, what about? What about? Yeah, no yeah I was leaving the treasure because I gave up. Yeah, so no treasure and you escaped. Okay. Does someone else want to try? Go ahead. I mean no. I mean Turnaver got this because he is the one you know. At least we got a name at least. But the thing is, what was dead? Is the creature blind or something? It didn't look at whale, it was looking forward from where it... like forward as in like... here. Oh, so it's stupid. It was looking in a straight line here basically. It's probably sleeping. Yeah, okay. It's probably sleeping. Um... I still want to cry my luck. The armor is literally just for warlocks, so it would only be useful to the Vandunia. Where the sword I feel like would be useful for the swordsman. It has to be something, it has to be important later on. I'm sure the DM will forget man. DM literally pulls it out of his ass, we are just over analyzing stuff. Exactly. No, no, no, I will actually integrate everything. Have I forgotten about anything yet? We don't know because we don't remember anything either. We don't know because we don't remember either. I mean no one's stopping you, don't even if you want to try. Go on, go on. You have a plus on strength as well, you might even win. Go. Yeah, plus one on strength. I mean plus two. If it wakes up, I'm like, okay, maybe I can just misty step out, I don't care. I'll do it. I'll steadily walk over to the chest. I mean... You walk over to the chest successfully, yes. And do another stealth check or strange check? Uncheck and then stealth check. Stealth check. The chest is open. Forget the strength. You get the armor into the pocket dimension. Now you have to leave. Wait, what about the sword? What about the sword? Yeah, and the sword. What about the Nord? I have the Nord. Alright, time to go back. Please! Please! Okay, you successfully leave. I am the aura of That was like the most sheer aura farming possible. Why did I even go? If I had done that, I think we would have gotten out of the cave faster. We would have been out of this entire sequence like 20 minutes ago. I am a guy out of the pocket dimension by the way. I don't feel comfortable. Bro, let him rest. Why are we leaving? If he wakes up, I think the DM will inform us. Right, DM? Yes, I will. Please let him sleep. Let him sleep, bro. Because the thing is, the pocket damage is like our camp or something, you know, so... We just kidnapped him. Yeah, that's the point. I mean unless you want to leave him here you know that's a different thing. No we're keeping him. He's mine now. Unless you want to carry him 24-7. Unless you want to carry him 24-7 then. No I'm doing it. It's better to leave and it's pocket damage. Okay I guess we can leave the cave but down here. Okay you guys leave. Okay that was literally like one hour of the cave. God. That was amazing. The amount of questions... The amount of questions... We're taking the painting with us, right? Hold on, hold on. Now we can show the note to the painting, I think. It might do something. We know it's lying or something. It might do something. Or maybe just ask her about George. Yeah, the note. No, we did, but she did not give us a... You didn't say the word, the name George, I don't think. She told us the name. I forgot to mention but she already told us the name of the painter. Sir St. George. Yeah. So, do you guys want to talk to the painting? Ask her about the note? Would she even know about the note? Like a smart person. I mean... She might know something. You're the smart person, ask your questions. You're the smart person, yeah bro. I mean, I guess we can talk to the painting and just see what she says. Okay, the painting appears to be looking rather different after coming out of the pocket dimension. Now the woman isn't wearing white but now it's black. What the hell? That's what she looks like now. Okay, interesting. Show her the note and ask if she... What should we ask? Do you know something about this node? Well... Well I can recognize the word George. I'm not sure if it's Sir Saint George but... It seems rather... You can't wait to listen about the painting. Well you could refer to anything darling. It doesn't have to be me. Girl, it says... It has painting and George has painting. No. Just throw it off the... I'll destroy the painting already. Worthless. What are you asking again? It has painting and George in the same sentence. You can't tell me this is not related. Well, I wouldn't know either way. I'm just a painting. Oh my god. This time her expression is exactly like the image I sent you. And what about this armor? Do you know something about it? I just pick out the armor. It's beautiful, isn't it? But I don't actually know what this armor is. Can we ask her about her appearance? Why should I go for white to black? Oh yeah, that's the real question. Two of us did that. Why? That's such a silly question. Why can't a girl just change her clothes? Oh my god. I love her. What the fuck? It's annoying bro. Get it out. Painting changing its clothes, like it has to be like something you know. Did something change other than your clothes? Well have you ever seen a painting move before? Isn't that different? I mean, but like... Oh my god I can't argue with this woman. Bro, Kiran just give me the painting. No. Just throw it out. Please. It's annoying as hell. I'm paying this out loud by the way. That's not nice there. Just go for it then. Show me your wardrobe. I want to see your wardrobe. Where did you get those clothes from? Well, aren't you rather quick? Well, I would love to but it's out of the frame. I'd sure like to see you try, sweetie. Okay, Leora steps in. Steps in? Well, your unfortunate attempt to put your feet into the painting goes wrong and it puts a stain on the painting and is like... She's like, why would you do that? Because you said you were looking inside of you like, what? Maybe you could have placed your feet somewhere else, not on my... You know? She's just rage, Bertag. Let's move on, put the painting away, nobody gives up. I guess only Sir George will know something. We are going to go to the deep anyway. Sir Gideon of New York. George might know something. We'll just take it to Sir George. I'd be delighted to see Sir George again. Bro. We don't know who George is. No. I mean he's in water deep. He's like a I told you guys I thought you guys did bring to... I think we missed out some parts. You're putting the painting back? Yeah, put the painting back. So what was different this time is that her expressions were not changing like they were before. Her expression was not telling what you mean. Like I told you, her expression looks exactly like the image I sent you. Oh! Cute, okay. Yeah, I told you. You guys can go up now? Yeah, you're gonna go up. Yes. You make your way through the roads and you come across something that looks like a house from your perspective. Let me show you... Let me put you guys down first, then I will show you because it gets a bit weird. I wonder when we will be out of this damned place. Are we still in the bedlands, the shadowlands or whatever? We'll see. Oh, it's completely changed. This looks very cozy. Oh my god, time to chill. I thought she was gonna say raid. I mean, I will learn saga moment. Though it seems rather quiet. Is it a zombie village? Minerva finally talks and they say it appears we are in... what was the place called again? Hold on. I'm looking at the map one second. Where's the map? Did we send it in the chat? I never sent it in the chat. I'll do it later. Yeah. And they say apparently it seems we've made it into the Trolls' Claw. Like this is the beginning of Trolls' Claw. Oh no. This village is not Trolls' Claw. This is like in an area This is just a piece of it. Are you saying that we haven't crossed that troll's claw or whatever that place is? We still have to cross that place? Yes! Let me show you the map again for clarity. All of you can see the map now. We were in the Trolls' Claw this whole time. We did not encounter one troll, I mean. Yeah, I wonder why, because you were never there. Yeah. Look, you start off from Baldur's Gate and then you walk, then you were walking. Remember you saw the river and shit? Yeah. Then, now you're at Trolls' Claw. Wait, I can't see. Man, where the fuck? Trolls' Claw was. Do you remember when I told you how long it takes to get to what it is? How long? You guys, I knew what was gonna happen DMG how long does it take? Cause I was in law You were here It took them, like getting to Troll's Claw took two sessions basically Oh, it took me to take like six seconds? Probably, to get to Waterloo 50 sessions It could be less, the more, the faster you guys travel soon Oh yeah, that's not gonna happen. It's not gonna happen because they're investigating everything. Okay. Shall we get you back to the village? Yes. Okay. So like, you guys wanna explore the village or just like speedrun? Speedrun? We can explore a little bit. It feels weird. This is water today. I could split, but it's not what I do. Uhhh... There's... What is it? There's no one around. That's... That is a... I think that's a campfire? I can't make it. I don't understand what the fuck that is. I don't know. Oh a well. A well makes more sense. You know these lines in the corner that look like planks? This? Yeah, ignore that. We're already doing investigation. Okay, you're investigating the well? Yeah. Okay. This well... It has a bucket that's all the way down. You can pull it up. You need to do a strength check. Bro, it's just a bucket. Hello? I mean, unless... If you're moving the crank, you need to do a strength check. And if you're not moving the crank, you're doing something else. Can I not just pull up the rope? You can do that. And inside the bucket is like a few drops of water and there's nothing. It's just a few drops. It's likely that there's nothing in the wells. So does that mean the well is dead? Yeah, knock on the door, like knock on one of the houses. Okay, let's go towards this house. The door seems to be unlocked on the house. Oh yeah, go in. Go in. It's three real things. Okay, you go in and you find that like the house has a rather and there's a weird stench and things seem to be gathered around and there's so many like... what do you call it like? Raw fruits just sitting there and there's... yeah rotten fruits and there's a person who's lying on the corner of a wall and they look like they You know how someone looks if they haven't drank anything but like they look old and wrinkled? Dehydrated. Dehydrated. Yeah, extremely dehydrated. Their skin is very pale and they are barely breathing. Okay, so they are breathing. Give them some water. Yeah. We have only a few drops of water in the bucket. Did you drink it? Alenia? By few drops, I meant like it's... It's not even like an atom. You have a water dispenser right here, you know? Disturbia. Produce. I wish that was like an amazing or something. I can only cast a spirit. I can let you use because you have a water spirit so you can just make water. Thank you. It's a third level spell for me by the way. Create water. Holy sh Anyways. Do you want to create water in the well or? In his mouth. Yeah, I mean creating the well would be better now. How do you want to make him drink the water? Open his mouth and then yeah just do a... just do a... Okay, from your finger comes out a gush of water that goes into his mouth and he begins to swallow it and like he grabs your hand as he wants more. He wants more water. He's desperate basically. Okay, then listen. I know that you have been dehydrated this whole time but I'm just gonna touch the water and I can't just use it. And do you stop the water or do you just keep making him drink? I'm like... um... keep making him drink I guess. Okay so he keeps drinking and drinking and drinking. and stops. It stops. Then you can take your finger. My finger out of his mouth? No, no, no. Was it in his mouth? I was like, remove your finger. You have to specify this stuff. You have to specify this stuff. No, no, no. He wasn't sucking on your finger. Okay, so is the man fine? No? He's just groaning but he seems better. Like... Oh, is everyone going to... You can tell he's extremely tired from malnutrition and dehydration. Another tired man. Why is everyone so tired? What's happening in this village? I'm a drought, I guess. Can he say something? Can he even speak? He is unable to talk. He has no energy. No energy but can he like... Astri is not energetic. Not even like give us a sign or gestures or whatever. Just say yes or no, nod his head or something. You can try but his understanding would be very low. If you have no energy, you're likely not to be able to process things that well. What do we do? Maybe we can search his house to find answers. The investigator, do your investigation check. We know who that is, Elenia. Detective Elenia. Anyways, the role of detective goes to someone else for now. Yeah, Lora. Go ahead, Lora. Lora. Anyways. Where is Arij? Is Arij gone? Yeah, where is? Oh. Okay, 18. So in his house, in his room, you go in his room and you find there are notes that are very old, like on his journal. Do you want to read them? Yes, of course. Just making sure! It seems like the first page says this. Let me just type it out real quickly. Is it gonna be... Stwarves again. No, no, no. Yeah? Oh, who is Sophia? Yeah. And the ghouls did it. The swordsman just killed the ghouls. Oh, swordman from his village? Yeah, probably. I think so. So... He's unconscious. Wait, is the guy with some punches? Oh no, that one? But he can't really answer properly, you know? He can't process anything. Yeah, he's not gonna answer properly. He's like in a daze or something. That is malnourished, get him something to eat. What do we have here bro? Self content or three or something? He can't talk. Maybe we can ask him a yes or no question. Do you like balls? Yes, go ahead. Do you like dick or do you like pushy? What did he say? I annoyed A. Your voice is very much better Bro...no... Not again, bro... Not again... New laptop knew everything with the model mic for me. I was scared, Marnie. You cannot stay fit. So he said explode in the village, I guess. This door seems to be like locked Yeah, you can unlock it. Yeah, break it down. Sleight of hand? Does anyone have a plus one sleight of hand? Yes, I have it, but breaking it down would be easier. I have a minus two in strength, Elborov. Alright, fine, I'll use sleight of hand. Anyways, we are breaking it down. That's for you as well, because I have minus two. Wait, let me show you the power. Does that work? Yeah, the door unlocks and this cutrid stench. Okay, briefer first. Yeah, go ahead. We went inside a house and we found a man and he was like barely conscious. You gave him what I know after that. Oh yeah, so Yeah, and then we explored, investigated the house, we found a note and you can read it in the chat and it talks about ghouls and a girl named Sophia and yeah, we don't really know what happened. Like the man can't even answer our question. Like he cannot process our questions. So now we are investigating another house. Portan Gord breaking into a house because we just locked it. Yeah. Oh, we just locked it. We can go in now. Okay, you go in and there's this putrid stench that feels rather familiar and this stench is like... Oh my god, forget it. Astri is coming from the very far corner of the... of the... like here. Somewhere here. Is it the same stent as the one in the cave? You can do a perception check. I remember it's stent. Oh my god. Yeah, so in this specific area there seems to be two people laying down on a mattress and they are holding hands. One is a man and one is a woman and they appear to be dead. Oh, we are too late. And in this area there's also a dining table with the same shit, raw, no, rotten food and what else? Also the people that have on their mouths blood on it. Is the food poisoned? They get poisoned. And why is every couple we encounter end of like have a tragic end or something? Literally every couple we have encountered in this session. Don't blame me! Don't blame the DM, don't blame the person making the story. Yes sir, do not blame the DM. Totally. Anyways. Someone investigate the rock game. Initiate? Holy shit! Initiate? What are you initiating? Initiate? I guess we can look around. You want to look around? In the house, yes. Yeah. Okay, if you look around the house in this corner there is a chest. I'm gonna feel awful about looting my chest here. Is it unlocked or do we have to? Is this chest unlocked? Alright, go ahead. What are they gonna have like a hook? Okay, you unlock inside The rotting carcass of a baby. Oh my god, shut up! What?! What the fuck?! Close the chest, close it! Close the chest! Yeah, the chest is closed. That is so sad! That is so sad! Can we just skip to the village and move on? It's too depressing for him! Okay. What happened? What did you say? He wants to skip the video. He said can we... Move on? Okay. Move on like from this place or like from the house? Can we then do anything from the... Rotten baby... Oh yeah. Also can we just move on from his village? I don't think there's anything in this village. I feel like village is dead or nothing. I am a loot goblin but this is not about loot, this is about story. Just split and look at the houses. Let's play up and look for clues, gang. The swordsman was most likely from this village too. So we might find something about him. Bro, where's this house? Is it this? Bro, how do you go inside this house? Is it this one? Which house are you going into? The biggest house. Okay, okay, yeah, that is the entrance. I'll go to this one then. Wait, one by one. Everyone let's overload the DM. Overlord the DM? The big one... What is happening? I'll go inside the big one. Let's just do this one, the big one. The big one is also locked, but it has a lot of locked on it. 3 locks to be exact. Another lock is also done. You can see Elenia floating in the speed of light. Oh, you got all of them. And inside it doesn't smell like the other houses. It smells rather fine like an ordinary house. Oh my god, finally some Khushbu. And over here there is a dining table. Here is a bedroom and here is a living room and here is a toilet. Somebody needs a bathroom break. Okay, so what do you guys want to do here? Check out the bedroom or go. In the living room there seems to be actual fruit that's not rotten, it's just like there. Is this like the house of the chief or something? It's just been skipping around. Letting his people die. Is there like a lot of fruit or something? This seems very fresh, like the food is very fresh. Finally some fresh food. Time to eat. Can we eat it? Yeah, it is edible. Why don't we feed this food to the guy that's dying? Feed the guy? Yeah, the dying guy. The dehydrated guy. Yeah, you can do that. We could also feed him our restaurants if we had any. Did we have any restaurants? We don't think we haven't been eating. Yeah, how are we alive? That is a question that we'll never have an answer to. We haven't had a campfire toss or anything. It happens behind the scenes guys. It happens off camera. Wait, I have ten Russians. Yeah. Wait, is that normal? Yeah, it is normal. I have 10 sweet potatoes I remember I gave you guys more food during the first session I have hot peppers Hell yeah, feed them. Feed that. No, I think I have that for one of my spells. Dragons' birth. I remember I had to get it for dragons' birth. Okay, but why is it that only this house is not affected? Let's go to the bedroom, perhaps. Yeah, the bedroom is right here. No, that's not the bedroom. The bedroom is right here. Yeah. Makes a U-turn. In this bedroom, it's like a single bed. There seems to be like... A chest, a notebook and some jewelry. I'm gonna look into the notebook. In the notebook, there seems to be sketches of the roots and people. One of those sketches looks... Wait, actually, never mind. So there's fruits and people basically, yeah. I'm not gonna go further. What about the note? What does it say? It's a notebook. It's a notebook. Okay, we can look into the chest. Actually, I'm not opening the chest this time. Whenever you do it. I have a feeling this is like this house belongs to the swordsman that we found in the cave. I don't know. Alright, I'll open the chest. Okay, the chest, you need, it's locked, you have to use the sleight of hand. Of course. Of course. Oh my god. And that is surprisingly enough. I thought there was a one. I thought there was like, not this one, but a one. Yeah. Inside there is... Another baby car guess. No. Inside there is a scarf that looks very similar to whales. I don't know why, but it is. Huh? It's not, it's nothing, no correlation. It's just saying it just looks like, the color looks like whale's scarf. This is an upgrade to the rags you are wearing. Take it. Hell yeah, we are no longer homeless. Actually, it's not a scarf. Wrong wording, it's a hood. Like a cloak. Hooded cloak. Let's go! This, this horror joke however, grants you something. It grants you invisibility. Of course! But it is temporary and you can only use it at night. How long does the invisibility last? During the whole night. Wait, actually? You said it was temporary. Actually, yeah, during the whole night. Yeah, but if he makes like a move, like if he gets into a fight, then the invisibility will break, no? Gets into a fight? If he gets hit, yes. What about the toilet? This toilet is rather shitty. I wonder why. It seems the person seems to be rather busy with shit. What the fuck? Okay, let's not do this. There's no one in there. There's no one in the house. What about this room right here? In this room there is a painting. It doesn't move, don't worry. It's a painting of a woman with white short hair, red eyes, and very It's a cute face like it's like like a very young face. Is this a kid? It's not a kid. Okay. Is there anything else? It's the dining room it has like More fruits and vegetables and it's all fresh. Just take them. We can use them later. What about the painting? What do you mean what about the painting? Can we look deeper into it or is it another waste of time? You can't look deeper into it. I can't or I can? You cannot look deeper into it. Oh, okay. Let's just steal the painting, I guess. One more painting. Why not? Let's go! He changed the icon. Let's go. Hell yeah. Yes, sir. Okay. Yeah, we need an update. I just remembered that I could do that quick. Now what do we do? There's nothing in the house. Now we explore another house I guess. I'm assuming you're getting very curious as to what the fuck is happening. I'll also add that dining table had a lot of water as well. Like jugs of water. First, let's look at the small houses. In both of those small houses, in the first one where Elenia is, there is... The door is like... We should take a shovel I guess just in case And where Vale is... Are you going in or are you looking outside? You go in, it's unlocked and there is a person inside who looks very malnourished as well and thirsty and is alive. And it is a woman. Feed him the rations, feed him the fruit, the fresh... We can take the water jug from the living room and bring it here, bro. Yeah. Yeah. It's pretend we have the water jug. We took everything. So... You pour the water into her mouth and she gulps it in. Her hands want to move to take all the water in but they can't, they don't have the energy. And then she has tears forming from her eyes and you can feel the sense of salvation on her face. And then you give her the food and she can barely chew on it with the lack of energy. and takes few bites out. This woman has black long hair and blue eyes. We don't really know what Sophia looks like. I'm just giving you more information. Can I ask her a yes or no question? Gersh, what makes you think this will be any different? Show or you can try. I wanna ask her if she's Sophia. Okay. Ask her. Are you Sophia? That's where you're here basically. She could literally nod her head yes or no. She can barely lift her head. No energy like I said. Bro the entities in this world are dumb. Let's just move on to the next level I guess. Yeah I guess. Which house? That is not a house. That is... That's like a... What do you call it? Oh, Ben just went for dinner. Yeah, he went for dinner. That... You're supposed to put hay there? Oh yeah, yeah. Yeah. A Silas. I think we have explored almost every house. No, you haven't. I'll just mark what you have explored so you know. We have explored this house. No, we haven't done that one. Wait, let's wait. Oh, sorry. I accidentally moved to Serbia. Wait, what about this thing in the squad, Nabra? Up here. In the corner? That looks very weird. You can find out what it is. Yeah, first explore this house right here. That house, that place, like which one? This one or the below one? Which one do you want to do Dungeons & Dragons? Just do this one, it doesn't matter. Dungeons & Dragons Okay, so in the front, in the upper house there is... Same stench as usual. And in this room there's no one, however there is rotten food and more notes. Read the notes. Okay, on the note it reads as follows. I shall write it down. Yeah, it's very big. I haven't even finished. I haven't even started. You guys can look through other things. I'll just type it. I'll tell you, in the other house that you're gonna look at, there is There's dead animals in this house. Like it's just cows and they've gone rotten. Like they're dead. And it's like...what is it? The fucking flies all over them. So yeah, carcasses. So bad. Yeah, you saw the fucking- I saw the baby car, guys. Damn, God. Can we made you be the bait for that monster in the cave? Yeah. I don't know whose fault that was. Okay. It's just- Yeah, more experience. Okay. I'm waiting for the note. Yeah, yeah, I'm finishing. I'm finishing. I'm finishing. Let him do his thing. Yeah, that's the first note. My notes are there. And the other note shares... Jeffery's... Jeffery's... Bro, the island! The island is gone! Oh no! Jeffery's... The other note is there. Jeffrey please do something, anything or help us leave. Why is a help highlighted one? That's an action. Help another creature's ability check or attack roll or administer first aid. I totally might highlight that class. Oh my god, who the fuck is Jeffrey? Who is Sophia? Geoffrey, Einstine, George, Sophia... Geoffrey...Fuck you Geoffrey, who are you? I think time for this house right here. Oh yeah, let's go into the corner. Which house? The secret house. What do you want to feed this guy first? The guy was dying. I guess you can give him a quick nom. Basically, it's as much as you feed him. Yeah, where's our money now? All that food. Money. Sure. And all you hear is the groans. Okay, now we can go up to the... This is a mystery house. The loaner house. This house seems... The door seems to be open, wide open. As if it wants you to enter. Oh no. Okay, an invitation to the devil's cave. You may say it was going somewhere else. Ah yes. Alright, I'll finally enter the house. What's the tiny house gonna do? Okay, you enter the house and the door shuts. What the f- Behind you. Earlier. Okay, let's leave now. We can go, right? No, not leaving them. No, it's like adventures of Durnivir. We don't have to interfere. Girl, if you were in the same place as Surt God, and just mischief outside. Where is the other? Where? Yeah, yes. But what, why did the door close? What's happening? Did something happen? Can I open the door? Can I knock on the door? Knock? What is that gonna do? I don't know. It's not gonna explode in my face, is it? It appears the door shut on its own but not with any intent or magic or anything. It just shut. As if it was nature. So I can open it, right? I can just open it and go out? You can try. I want to continue what you are saying. Like you open it, right? You try to? Okay, I didn't open it. You try to open it and it opens. Oh my god! Elenia, look at this! What were you saying about leaving me? I mean, I still signed by that point, but yeah, sure. Yes, you'll be so... Anyways, I'll respect you since you're older. Can somebody investigate this damn house? What's happening? Yeah, yeah, yeah. Okay, I guess we all go inside. What is that? I cannot see. No, it's a 10. Okay, inside this house, it's rather empty. There's nothing. There's no furniture. There is, like, no Basically, this is absolutely fucking nothing. This is an empty fucking house. But there is a painting of the same woman that you saw in the other house. What? Who is she? No, that was not the same woman. That was like white hair, red eyes in the painting. The woman in the painting. White hair, red eyes. This is that woman. White hair, red eyes. Okay, same painting. Interesting. Do you want to take it to? Yeah, okay. Stealing her painting, so no. As soon as you grab the painting, it unlocks something. Like a trap door opens below you and all of you fall down. Oh my god, without Liora? In a very dark room, but you can see through it obviously. Oh fuck. And you've fallen quite deep, like let's say 30 feet. Ow! Okay, what the way, Joel. Yeah. I have feather flied, or whatever that is. Feather falling. Feather falling. None of you take damage however because below you was a mattress. Oh my god thank you! Whoever made that trap door? Also fuck you. And you notice around you there are skeletons. And there is however a lot of jewelry on the skeletons. Oh okay! I mean... Anyways! Around you there is a... like there's... it seems like there's nothing but there seems to be a wall that has a crack on it. Another crack? How many cracks are there? It's like a... a crack. It's basically just a cracked wall. That's it. Oh and then what would happen? We go inside and we find another monster and a chest? No. Can you look through the crack or is it just like a... You can. You can look through the crack. Through the crack... you... you see a person sitting on a chair. What the actual head? What is going on in this house? They're not looking at you but they're like sitting like far in the room. They're sitting on a chair and they're tied up. Tied up? What if they're dead? Dead? You can't tell exactly because you can only see their backside. If you are alive then like move or something I don't know. Is there anything specific about the room? In the room there are There's like all the furniture that should be in the house is inside there. And there also seems to be fruits and vegetables that are fresh. Oh! Girl, we have to break the crag- I mean break through the crag. Or something. Um, okay. How do we- I can just Eldritch Blast, no? Yes you can! Go ahead, I'm gonna move back! No, it's not fireballed, it's fine. It's not fireballed. Okay. So I just do it? Yes, you do it. The door, you don't have to... Yeah, just say how you do it. Alright, I just... No, I just start blasting. Interesting way to put it. Okay, you blast through the wall as it bursts open and the person on the chair looks back slightly panicking and you can see who they are. And this I'll put the image in Friendly MVC. Oh my god, that's Jeffrey. Jeffrey and Shane. This is a woman. Oh, it's a woman! Anyways, never a man. And she is tied up. What the fuck is going on here? Her mouth is also tied up. I know but like... Okay, the fuck? You can- Go over and untie her. No, no, don't untie her, just open the tape I guess. Like the mouth tape. Okay, uncover her. Don't untie her yet. Yeah. Okay, you remove... You remove the tape. And... She appears to be trying to talk but she is mute. You can barely understand what she's saying. It's like rambling basically. Unless you know sign language. I know common sign language. Yeah, they can do that. I know it's common sign language too. We'll have to untie our hands for that. Okay. With the sign language, she begins to do the hand gestures and one of her hands is grabbed onto Vale's shoulder and on her other hand she's trying to talk to Vale with I don't know, it's cut off. Can you continue? Yeah. She says, help. Jeffrey is up to something and he's the one behind what's happening to the people. He's stealing all the food. He's doing such bad things. He locked me in here so I can not tell them the truth. The people in the village. So Jeffrey's a bitch in every word. Yeah, do you know where Jeffrey might be? And she points at a door on her right and she says he went through that way. What the hell? How many doors are in this house? This tiny ass house. We can't go It's underground. We can't really go back up, so I'm... She should stay here. I feel like she shouldn't follow. I don't want her to get out of here. Unless you want to put her in the pocket. Put her in the pocket. No, God! Collect every NPC like Pokemon. Where is Veneno? Oh my God. Oh my God. She can follow us, I guess she can give us some tips or something, like guide us. I guess so. But we have the protector. Alright, lead the way! And she tries to open the door but it's supposedly locked from the other side. Oh my god! Eldritch blasting time? I don't think that will work because this door is made of iron. I didn't say that before but I did not. Oh my god. Ah yes, you just pulled it out of your ass. No, no. It's not. In my head it was iron. I forgot to say it. Okay, so like, is there a way to unlock it? Like, slight of hand maybe? Hello, Hamora. Just kidding. This is my first thing. Hello, Hamora. What could you do? We could end the session. Oh my god. Unless you want to continue. There has to be something I can do. Why is the cliff hanging? Why is the cliff hanging? You want to hang off the cliff? I don't know what to do. No. Next, do something. I didn't even access it. No wait, maybe we should ask the woman why isn't she affected by whatever is happening in the village? How are you not malnourished? Yeah. Okay. So she's signing with a very disturbed look on her face that He is using her. Using her? In a bad way. Oh, what the fuck? Yeah. Murder up Sheen. He's literally, yeah, Jeffrey. Dead Jeffrey. Yeah. Unless you want her to go into detail about what she's talking about. Okay, okay, now we get that. Yeah. Yeah. Okay, hold on. Do you know... Wait, I don't think she'll know anything about the... Oh yeah, we can ask her about the woman and the painting. Oh yeah. White hair, red eyes. Thank god I have the painting with me. We have two of them. She tells you that is Sophia. Oh my god. Who is Sophia though? Yeah, who is Sophia? Sofia Okay So basically Sofia is the daughter of Jeffrey So that was his house, the shitty house with the shitty toilet Yeah Yeah Makes sense Jeffrey is basically the chief of the village, you can think of it like that Kanjak follow us into this hotel We fell down 30 feet onto a mattress. We broke through a wall and found a woman tied up in a room that we freed and she speaks through sign language and we found out a guy, the guy named Jeffrey who is actually the chief of the village was actually the one behind all this devastation. And the lady in the, the girl in the painting was his daughter Sophia. Sophia is the daughter. Now we have to go find the man, but we're stuck at an iron door that's locked from the other side. Jeffrey Einstein. And I did an 18 on investigation, what did I find? Well, a 14 plus 4. That's a lie to digest. Yeah. Does the lady know anything about You can. Food of man. Food of man. No, Rishu. It's only been one and a half in-game hours since you saw that. Oh, did you show the guy? No, we're thinking too. No, the villagers don't really talk. They're talking and groaning. What about the... Did anyone understand the sign language? Yes. Me and Vale know sign language. E. Oh, yeah. Vale. Where were we? What did I say? The pocket dimension. So you go to the pocket dimension and she feels rather wary of coming with you to this other dimension. You need to do a persuasion check because she's having trust issues. Tell her that whatever we are trying to show her might be helpful for you know the village or whatever I am Leora Asheville. Okay! Okay, so she goes along with you and she doesn't seem to have any reaction seeing this man that you are trying to show her. And what do you want to ask her? Okay, so we'll just tell her about the cave incident. Like we found this man in the cave and in the cave there were a lot of ghouls lying around so I think that the man did something to the ghouls so yeah he might have saved this village. She tells you that the village had made a bounty on the ghouls and it may have reached anywhere and and this must be a bounty hunter. Yeah, that makes sense. Interesting. But he is unconsciously, does he know anything about it? Can she do something about it? Do something about? Him sleeping? I told you he's just stuck here. He's just sleeping. Let him sleep bro. Let him sleep. No. Sleep. Good. Bro really wants to talk to the hot man. We'll meet him in the next session. Are you gonna shoot your shot on the dysphoria? It's relevant to the plot. Are you gonna shoot your shot? I did an investigation on the iron door, can I get an answer? Yeah, let's focus on that now, let's focus on Jeffrey. Guys, can I use my spell on the door? It's an iron door. So, you notice that above the door there seems to be a vent. This vent is... You can fit inside it basically. This vent is like... You can see through... It's not opened yet because it looks like there's bricks and there's holes inside. It's hard to explain. It's like a medieval vent. A very weird system basically. It's made of bricks and there's like... You remove a brick to show that it's used for ventilation. I don't know what I'm saying. I found what it looks like. Just want to make sure you guys... Yeah, I got the vision. Yeah, you got the vision. Okay. You remove the brakes, but you have to be tall for it because it's a bit high. Oh my god. I'm tall. I'm tall. I'm tall. I'm tall. I don't remember how high I am. You're a 7'2"? Me? No. Somebody was 6'2". I'm 5 times. That's the wrong image. Elenia, do something tall lady. He's gonna make me do a strength check. You successfully take out the bricks You are able to go through but you have to try to jump. You don't have to do an acrobatics one thing. I was gonna say, here we go again. You boing out of the ventilation and you are on the other side of the door now. What about the lady? Don't worry, Minerva is not concerned about this at all. Minerva is the most useless person to ever bring. I say this out loud enough so she can hear it. She's far away. I don't think she can hear this. I shouted very loudly. They literally do not give a flying fuck at all. They're just here for the... She's right here now. Oh my god, the useless lady is here. Okay, you go through the door and in front of you is like a long hallway. Like, you know, like it's like from the door to the other door, it's like walls all around you. It's like claustrophobic, kind of. It's like a slim hallway, if that makes sense. Oh, hey, mom. Yeah. Are you sure? Are you sure? I thought the session would end when we wanted it to end, not when you... I'm just kidding. I'm sure if nobody said anything here, the session would actually end. I'm just kidding. In front, in, outside, you look outside and it is the... how do I say it? There's like a bed and there are... Oh my god, what's the word? It's like crafting tables basically. This person is trying to make stuff. Like workbanks and stuff. Yeah, there's a workbanks and it appears they have a secret base here and like on the other side you notice there's All the rations that were supposed to be given to the people is apparently here. Oh my god, Jeffrey piece of shit. Yep. And... There is, however, another door. Oh my fucking doors! How many doors? It's a maze, I know. The dude loves doors. Open, open. Is it locked? It's not locked. You can go through. You go through and in this room there's a man. Oh, finally. Get your staff out. I need to show you exactly. There's a man talking to other... There's more people there, not just him. What the fuck is happening? We in a cult? Is this a cult? It's not a cult! I have to show you what the man looks like. Sounds like something a cult reader would say. Oh my god. I thought the thing from a website was... Oh my god. That's too late bro. That's what he looks like. This is in fact Jeffrey. Friendly, yeah. He looks like a bird of fire. Yeah. And around him are the people that supply the rations and you can tell they are because he's like signing an agreement with them or something. And As you open the door, they look back at you. And... This is where we should end the session. No! No, because I... Unless you want me to... ...brush it... No, because this is where I planned to end it from the beginning. If I do it right now, it's gonna be like... No, no, okay, we'll stop then. You can... I really wanted to blast this Jeffrey guy off. You'll get to do it soon. Maybe. But he put us in friendly NPC. Why is he in friendly NPC? Take him out. Wait, I don't know if I can put him in mods. Maybe I should have a NPC. Bad NPC. I should just rename it NPC actually. What is the name of the... the Dursley's form? Oh, we didn't find out her name. Oopsies. You can still ask. Like, you can just... I'll just tell you what it is. It's... It's Madeline. Madeline? Ooh, my name. Yeah. Madeline. Fine. I can put that down. Wait, what's her name? That was Kando. Oh that was Kando, okay. Someone really just like that. Okay, so it seems that was interesting for you guys. We keep going on sidequests. Yeah, cuz it's fun. Don't worry bro.
